Be warned that the degree of translation error may be higher than usual due to the translation method employed.

Dear Paul-san,

It has been one and a half years.

I will be 20 soon, and my sister will be turning 14.

I'm still working for Orsted while continuously training .

Orsted is knowledgeable, but it doesn't appear that he is good at teaching others.

Additionally, because he rarely uses magic, there is no demonstration.

He will teach things like chanting and give some tips but probably because he is a genius, misunderstandings often happen.

Either that or I'm not a brilliant student.

I don't have enough intelligence, so I can only understand 1/10 of what he teaches.

Owing to the memories remaining from my previous life, I could understand the principles in the early years, but to surpass the walls of the [Saint] and [King] class, that is not enough...

For example, the [Saint] class Fire magic 『Flash Flame [Flashover]』 is a way to make the flame spread in a vast area instantly.

By using light to generate heat in the air, like Vege○ [\[1\]](#) , but somehow it looks different. (!) Once I have used a magic with an incantation, I can immediately use the voiceless version of it, which puzzles Orsted.

Orsted does not only teach me about magic, but also other things, such as how to fight magicians from another faction as well.

Afterwards, he taught me numerous techniques from the Sword God Style, like what to be careful of and what to counter with.

A magician that specializes in fire magic when mixed in with a swordsman is very hard to defend against.

Therefore, many groups of magicians and swordsmen use this tactic a lot, so we must respond accordingly.

Simple PvP tactics.

As one who boasted high offensive ability due to having numerous offensive magics and a foresight eye, I was told that I could reduce the number of opponents by throwing them into confusion and then dealing fatal blows when facing them one by one.

It's not much different from what I had been doing in the past, but somehow, the result is different when I do it consciously.

Training with Eris and Orsted, as well as occasionally teaching Sylphy, Norn, and Aisha, has had some beneficial effects.

Perhaps because I have been continuously doing these things, I have attained: (!)

[Saint]-class Fire and Wind magic [Saint]-class Healing and Detoxification magic [Intermediate]-class God Barrier magic

It's very good progress for only a year.

I can see that I have been fooling around too much in the past. [\[2\]](#)

However, despite my other gains, drawing a summoning magic circle is still quite challenging for me, and I can't draw it very well.

I can't be playing around now if I want to master so many arts.

Anyway, I have grown a little stronger.

Training with Orsted has also helped me do his jobs.

After the uproar in the Asura Kingdom, there weren't many difficult jobs to handle.

For example, helping an adventurer that was trapped inside the labyrinth, Or helping a merchant stranded inside a forest about to become a demon's meal, Or going to a slave market, purchasing a slave boy, and selling him somewhere else.

Well, these were odd jobs; my work is mainly helping other people. I also enjoy it.

Basically, those who we help now will become useful to Orsted in the future.

For example, we helped a young female dwarven thief called Tal Qi the other day.

She wasn't important, but her son would become the assassins guild leader in the future.

He would also become a mean that would assassinate a certain person, but if that dwarf girl is killed, it will become Orsted's loss.

Of course, it doesn't really matter since Orsted could go to kill that certain person, who would get in his way in the future, himself.

But by helping step-by-step while considering the future is also a way Orsted could preserve his magic.

By changing the past, he saves himself trouble in the future.

It seems the key is to make sure that Orsted is in his best condition for the [decisive battle].

Orsted knew that [if the person that was meant to die in his youth survived, what he must do.] in his long loop. (!) It can be achieved by a scenario like [causing some incident for that guy] in the future.

By adding me into his team, he could move more efficiently than in all the loops he previously experienced.

It was similar to directing someone with hand signals randomly. (!) That's what I'm doing, but I'm also somehow making some friends.

That's basically why Orsted doesn't help me.

He has something else to do in another place.

Where the important [Flag] has to be set, he will go there himself.

Hitogami also doesn't interfere that much.

At least, he doesn't interfere when I'm moving alone.

If you look at it, it's probably because he's interfering directly with Orsted, as the missions that Orsted does are probably critical events for Hitogami.

Although, there were times when I worked directly with Orsted.

When I do, one or two of Hitogami's apostles will definitely appear.

The strange thing was that they never came at us all at once. (!) Maybe one of them was doing some job behind the scenes and moving separately.

For now, I'm not worried at all.

Is it all right that Orsted is only doing some odd jobs?

More than that, why doesn't he take any offensive moves toward Hitogami?

When I asked him about that, Orsted only shook his head lightly and said,
[According to the future diary, Hitogami is still trying to change the future.]

So, it's okay with what we're doing right now.

Hitogami is trying to change the future.

..... By my prediction, the next big confrontation would involve Cliff.

In the diary, Cliff was dead.

Hitogami is probably involved, but I can't be sure of that yet.

Orsted also hasn't told me much about this matter.

Anyway, I do my job, report back to the office, meet my friends and my family, and then do some training in my spare time.

Such is my life.

Oh, and speaking of work.

For work, I had to implement more of what I was thinking of for some money.

First is the office- the hut in the Magic City Sharia suburbs.

The place where we made the [Magic Armor] [\[3\]](#) also became our office.

Because it will be inconvenient for us to continue to use it as a base from now on, we have to renovate it.

It is a one story building, but inside there is a conference room, a sleeping room, and a reference room.

It was easy to carry out strategy meetings and to some extent, sleeping.

I mean.... sometimes I need to rest a little because I am too anxious.

Documenting and scheduling a meeting about where to go, what to do, and who must survive, as well as what kind of impact it will have in the future, there is no way I could remember all of that. (!)

Anyway, I also made an arsenal.

There is where I put the [Magic Armor] and other magic tools or Imbued products I usually use.

While I succeeded in miniaturizing my [Magic Armor]... but let's not go into the details on it. (!)

There are a large amount of tools that I use for work in the armory.

If what's in the armory is stolen, it's worth an entire life's fortune.

With that in mind, I used Earth magic to lock it, but the thought that it might be stolen is scary.

Maybe Orsted didn't want the hassle of managing the company's equipment, but it's something that should be done. (!) Again, I would like more personnel that could manage.

It is not only that. (!)

The basement is now our main office.

It is a huge basement and is also a labyrinth, made by my earth magic.

The basement is divided into 20 rooms, and there was teleport magic in each room.

When you step into one of the rooms, you will be transferred to one of the major places around the world well that's the plan.

Only five of these rooms don't have transfer magic yet.

Asura Kingdom, Holy Milis country, Great Forest, Dragon King Kingdom, and the Southern Magic Continent.

That's all there is to it.

It's because I don't have a Teleport Magic Team to make the magic circles locally from those places.

Also, Orsted also doesn't go to places that have low population, but if there are too many people, Teleport Magic is difficult to set.

Due to this, the number of teleport points is still small.

Of course, we have a plan to increase this number from now on.

Well, Paul-sama.

That's the story about my work, I'm sure you're already bored of it.

So I am waiting impatiently for you.

Now let's talk about the children, or rather your grandchildren.

First, my eldest daughter.

Lucy Greyrat.

She is growing up quickly and is healthy too.

We celebrated her third birthday just the other day.

She could now walk and runs around the house with a "Dotadota" sound.

After she learned some words, she began to speak loudly- I think it's due to Eris' influence- and the house has become lively.

In addition, Sylphy also began to teach her magic and human language recently.

This girl got a special education from the age of three.

Sylphy is ... becoming a teaching mom.

When she puts on the triangle glasses, [\[4\]](#) the night lesson with me suddenly becomes so intense.

Well, let's set aside Sylphy for now, and talk about Lucy.

She seldom meets me because of my work.

Sometimes, there are times when her expression is a little surprised when I came back.

It is a face that says [Who is this guy].

It is very sad.

However, if Sylphy says "Greet your Papa," she says "Welcome back, Papa."

When she says it, she is so cute that I want to eat her, but what immediately follows is "Where is Papa?" as she faces me, and she hides behind Sylphy.

I am very sad.

The way this is going, it looks like I won't be referred as a respected father by her in the future.

If it becomes that way, I will be sad.

Once, I brought Lucy to Orsted's place.

This was to test whether Orsted's curse would affect Lucy.

Testing whether what Hitogami said is true or not.

I took her to him thinking that.

As it turns out, the curse did not work on Lucy.

When Lucy met Orsted for the first time she showing beaming eyes.

Reaching for his silver hair, she shouted "Papa! Papa!"

She said Papa!

It was an attitude that even made me perplexed.

At the time, I thought of killing Orsted on the spot.

That's a lie, I'm sorry.

There is no way I would harbor such strong murderous intent.

Yeah, I didn't have even a bit of interest in that.

This is because Lucy is used to seeing Sylphy's white hair, and Orsted who has a similar hair color might be look like a relative.

When I told Orsted's name to her, she remembered the name immediately saying "Osute~tsu, Osute~tsu!"

It's how she pronounces it. (!)

While giving sidelong glances to my bitter face, Orsted went and gave a piggyback to Lucy.

Lucy grabbed Orsted's hair and tore it off.

When I said "Pulling hair is bad",

Orsted gave me an interesting answer [No problem, if it's only to this extent my fighting spirit, Ryu Kiyoshi [\[5\]](#) won't even move an inch] he said.

Catering my daughter, he didn't look so bad at all.

Of course since Lucy is cute.

However, with this, Hitogami's words also increased its credibility.

[Orsted ... and my descendants will work together to defeat Hitogami.]

When I told Orsted about it, he responded with

[Do not trust Hitogami's words.]

And, he stared at me with a scary look on his face.

I didn't mean to trust them of course.

However, I feel that not all of it is a lie.

It is just a convenient way of thinking.

However, recently, I started being able to read Orsted's mood, and Orsted's mood when playing with Lucy is good.

Even I will drop myself in front of such cuteness. (!)

Not only that, but he experienced loops with similar events over and over, of course he will be happy if he experiences something new.

Given the number of the loops he experienced, he has much to guess their feelings. (!) As a subordinate, I think I will try to make Orsted's daily life happier.

And our conversation has gotten sidetracked, hasn't it?

In case of children, Roxy also gave birth.

On that day, there was a heavy snowstorm and the office had not yet been completed.

Orsted made me go out with missions many times as well.

It's not uncommon that the president meet people directly.

At that time the hut only had one room, because my mission is to report in to Orsted. (!) Also, when the work for Orsted was over, there were many cases of waiting between tasks.

When I think of reporting in as usual that day, he said.

[Isn't it about the time?]

At first.

Well, it will be soon.

And, I won't think.

Because of thinking that, I'm quite restless at work.

I did not think that I will say this to Orsted, but... I am also a father, so I said "I will give my report later," and left the office immediately.

When I was in the street, I ran through the snow like a snow plow and returned home.

After returning Roxy was in her last month of pregnancy.

I was there just before she gave birth.

If I waited two days, I wouldn't have made it back in time for her to give birth.

"Yeah, Rudi...I wonder if it's alright, I wonder if I'll really be able to give birth."

When I got home, Roxy had a worried expression. Repeating again and again, she asked, "Will it be all right? It might be impossible," with a pale face. I did not let go of her hand. During the time when mother Zenith gave birth to me as well, I'm sure it was that kind of feeling. During that time all I was thinking was, "Roxy really is the worrying type."

- But, Roxy worries ended up right on the money.

It was a difficult birth. The baby's shoulder got caught. It must be a the so-called shoulder dystocia. [\[6\]](#)

I do not know the cause, but it could be because of Roxy's small body. She was in the normal birthing age of Migurudo tribe, but because the child is a half-blood child who has a big body, it was like she was giving birth at an early age given the size ratio. It was more than likely because I'm the father and human.

Roxy ... was in a dangerous state for both mother and child.

But, the worst did not happen.

Lilia's skills and experience in this matter are very high and Aisha is a genius. With me bringing in midwife and Doctor-san through the heavy snow rain, the party organization was perfect. Aisha had the experience working as the midwife from the time with Lucy and calmed down the emergency. Her birth was dealt with smoothly, with no complications.

As for Roxy's child, she gave birth to a girl. Safely. We didn't have to give a C-section, and both the child and mother survived. She gave birth safely.

The one who was born is a girl.

She was slightly bigger compared to Lucy when she was born. It's not like she was fat, but her face seemed a little bad. She looked like.....me?.

"Her eyes are like Roxy, her mouth is just like Rudi," according to Sylphy. (!) It didn't appear that she has an ugly face because of her mixed heritage between me and Roxy. Well, if you're a child between Roxy and I, I didn't need to worry about you that much.

"It was a girlso her name is Lara."

She was named Lara. Lara Greyrat.

We found out that she has the same hair color as Roxy soon after her birth. She had beautiful blue colored hair. It is the color that can be called "the symbol of Migurudo race".

Seeing that, Sylphy and Roxy both made a complicated face. I did not know why they made such a face at first. Roxy's hair color is fine, and Lara is a girl. You will definitely become a cute girl when you grow up, trust me.

Sylphy then told me why- she might be bullied because her hair color is different.

This city is mixed with a large number of variety races other than human; however, most of the population is still human, after all. If her looks differ from the human race considerably then she might be bullied.

Whether her original hair color might cause problems for Lara, such as whether or not she is bullied, I don't know yet; however, I believe that she will always have love from her family.

As a side note, Elinalise also gave birth along with Roxy.

That was complete with a familiar feeling, almost like they should just hurry up and give birth to it.

According to Cliff, that his child will be "Born Soon!", but the next time I met Elinalise she already recovered from giving birth and had her slender body back. She is a veteran at childbirth. Her experiences in it is on whole different level.

Well, the first child of Grimoire family was a boy, who was named Clive. Clive Grimoire. Elinalise was very pleased, "I will make the family full of heirs!"

Heirs. I... I think that there is no need for heirs. Even with Lara and Lucy. If somehow they want to help Orsted and follow my footsteps, I won't stop them. Also the curse didn't seem to work on them.

But, there is one person who is inspired by Elinalise's words. It's Eris.

She was often going to work with me until then. It was feeling like she was a part-time employee of Orsted Corporation. By my side, as my vanguard, as my sword, she cut through all the enemies standing in front of me.

But in response to Elinalise words, she said "Next is my turn!" and proceeded to suck me dry, even if we're at work. As long as there is an opportunity, she won't let it go and goes commando immediately on me. (!) I my maiden heart got crushed, but let's not talk about that.

Anyway, it seems she wasn't lucky, and didn't get pregnant for a while. (!) Eris was truly worried about this. (!) I often found her talking with Sylphy night after night after I got home. She didn't want her insecurity known to me, so I won't give the details of the conversation, but I might have heard some dreadful remark such as ".....maybe I need to do it more often". Anymore than this, I won't survive with that much nosebleed.

Even though I thought that, it's a husband's job to help his wife overcome her insecurity.

I thought so, I also tried my best. (!) Using all of my knowledge that I've accumulated, from the basic knowledge to Ougis [\[Z\]](#), whether changing her diet, or having her do some kind of training, I tried everything in my power in order to ease her worries. Leaving that aside.....I would be lying if I said that I didn't get excited. (!) I heard my mother, Zenith, also suffered from infertility for a period of time. Thus, to get rid of her worries, father also was busy doing this and that. He was doing his best every night then. Thus, Shu~sh...Norn was born and very healthy in school now. ...Norn aside. (!) Our efforts bore fruit, and Eris got pregnant safely. The next month, she toned down her training level.

It looks like her intense training every day was the main cause of her infertility. When one trains hard, it's harder to get pregnant. But if the child is strong, she could get pregnant, but in Eris's case her training was far more intense than normal training. Even if the egg already fertilized, if it's not implanted, it's the same as nothing happening. (!) That's why Eris was getting a break from going on missions with me. Even though she can't come with me to work, she's still happy. While stroking her already swollen belly Eris smiles happily while muttering "Mufufu". As the only one who knows her since she was young, I can tell you it's her true feeling. Somehow Eris looks like she has become respectable. The late Sauros-sama and Philip-sama, I wonder if you are sobbing happily from the underworld now.

I discovered Eris was pregnant about one month ago. (!) She's was already 4 months pregnant. If she seems to be quiet these days, it's partly due to morning sickness. When I came back from the next job, she already entered her fifth month pregnancy. She didn't do any strenuous exercises again after entering a plateau because she is a little worried. (!) I've sent a letter to Ghyslaine the moment I found out. (!) Ghyslaine would be very busy now because Asura's king, who was on sick bed for a long time, passed away. Ariel will become Queen soon. First Prince Gravell trying for his last stand, but that's already futile. It's not likely Ariel will lose to him. However, with that kind of rival, Ghyslaine won't have any free time for the next 2-3 years. After Eris's child is born, I will try to visit Asura Kingdom. (!) By the way, Eris only thought of boy's names for her child. So, I decided to think up a girl's name in secret. Whether it's girl or boy, as long as the child is healthy, I'm good with it.

With the wives and children like that. (!)

Family life, training, and work. You can say that if you take away even one of those, then I can't meet the children much and give them a good quality life. (!)
Finally.

It is about Zenith-Okaasan's memory. There are still no signs of it returning. At some point her emotions stopped improving as well. She almost didn't speak a word.

I also tried to hear stuff from Orsted, but still can't figure out how to heal her. If even he didn't know... then I can't think of any way to heal her. Well, perhaps because for Orsted this is the first time in a loop where Zenith has become a cripple, so he just didn't know how to treat her with some Imbued products . I won't give up, I will definitely find a way to cure her. Anyway, I think for now we'll just be taking it step-by-step without hurrying too much.

Dad, once, in Holy Milis country, you scolded me. That I'm ditching my mother and more worried about other women. Although I didn't intend to, please forgive me, with my current situation for now I must lower her priority.

I think I could do more for her in the future, and I will aim for that.

Sincerely yours

And with that I closed my diary like usual. While it's not like a diary, it's more like a letter. However, by writing these things, there are days when I got a sudden motivation from it. With such strong motivation, I could move my body better.

"All right, let's go"

As I'm motivated today, I stood up, and went ahead toward the magic circle.

My work begins.

Angelique Karentail, nicknamed Angel.

She was born in a small village located at the western most part of the ORyu kingdom, Its location is close to the jungle.

From her parents who were pharmacists, Angel also grown up and trained to become a pharmacist.

Just before she was an adult, her parents died attacked by a demon beasts [Goblin], but it should not be so unusual in this village.

After finishing their funeral with the villagers help and overcoming her sadness for their death, she took over her parents house and job as a pharmacist.

Angel has one person whom she could call a close friend.

Fam Haindora.

at the same time with Angel, her mother died because of a disease that only be caught by an adult, her father killed.....by goblin [\[1\]](#) , he was born from family of hunter who lived in the neighbourhood, usually they collected materials for medicine in the forest as escort for Angel's parents.

In other words, Fam father can't protect Angel's parents.

Because of that Fam has some kind of debt to Angel, for once Angel hold so much grudge toward Fam.

But after some conflict, it was settled.

Now, this duo of best friends are known to everyone in the village.

Like that, these two people will be entering 20 years old this year.

"Oh,..... I wonder if there isn't any good man from somewhere "

Muttered Fam.

Skilfully removing fur from the vest, and leather pants.

Wearing thick leather boots, carrying a long bow and quiver of arrows at the shoulder, and machetes on the waist.

She is dressed like a bandit, and looks dirty. But, overall, it can be said that she is a beautiful woman with well-defined features.

"At least, he won't be in a place like this "

That answer came from Angel.

She was a pharmacist, but she wears leather pants so she could move easier.

There was also a hatched knife strapped on her waist.

If there was a very large difference between these two girl, it was that Angel carries a large basket.

The basket's content were a variety of nuts and Medicinal Herbs, which arranged orderly and took about half of the basket's total volume.

These two girl, now inside the forest.

They're harvesting materials for the Pharmacist Angel to make the medicines.

"I think, he must be rich. Handsome, but naive, and never tries to hold hands with me. Because he's rather awkward with women, and sometimes his face would be blushing furiously"

"If he has a good personality and friendly attitude then usually he is poor"

"Angel you have no dream!"

"Fam, Let's look at reality"

In the village inhabited by these two girls, there is no such young man like in Fam's description.

It's not like there is none at all, but most of them are already married.

Millis devotees are not so much in number in that village.

But having more than one wife is prohibited by law, other than the village chief of course.

And despite almost being 50 years of age, the current village chief already has five wives.

He won't get married again.

"Also in reality, and If I get married, maybe it's with Dochiru"

Dochiru son of the Village chief, 20-years-old, his age is the same with this the two girls.

However, he's already married to his fiancée who was selected since their birth, He also already has a heir.

There is also a rumor that he will become village chief soon.

If that happen, he could marry his second wife.

According to the village tradition, when someone is appointed to become village chief, he must choose his second wife and marry her.

Currently, it's already become recent talk about who will become his second wife in the village.

For man, there is many unmarried women.

"Well, Dochiru probably won't choose me "

"The thing is, in our childhood Dochiru was always bullied by Fam "

"No, how if he select me to exact his revenge?

And bullying me at night! "

"I don't think so Fam, I think Dochiru is still scared of you "

Because they're from same generation, they often played and hanged-out together from a young age.

There were seven of them, and Fam is a bully child from their age.

At the time, Fam often made Dochiru cry.

Angel also has a vague though that whether she will really marrying one of them in the future, but unfortunately there isn't such thing.

From those seven childhood friends, three of them leave the village, leaving only three woman and Dochiru as a lone youth in their generation.

Dochiru then married to his fiancée, leaving only Fam and Angel.

"But, I think Angel has a chance since you're so cute "

"Well, I'll not. Cause if I married to the village chief I must leave my home and my job as Pharmacist and that will cause a lot of trouble for the villagers since I'm the only pharmacist "

"No you will somehow manage it, and has some remembrance about his time "

"I hope you are right, ha-ha-ha-ha"

And, Angel said that with a laugh.

But, the truth was she was thinking about something entirely else.

(I wonder ... that a Prince, won't come and take me as his wife huh)

Although Angel told her close friend to look at reality,

When she was a child, she heard from the bard, and longing for such a story.

It is a story of a small adventurer with blue hair. [\[2\]](#)

She was journeying alone as an adventurer from Millis continent to all over central continent, she become an A rank adventurer in no time.

Hearing such a story, Angel used to dance with joy inside her heart.

But still, at that time it was just a simplistic story from other side of the world.

But it's no longer just a fantasy, it happened 10 years ago.

A certain adventurer appeared in the village vicinity 10 years ago.

On the way leaving the forest, she tried to reach west port.

That adventurer stopped at Angel village.

A small adventurer with blue hair.

She was just like what the bard described about her.

It was in that moment that the other side of the world, the story became reality.

She stayed overnight in the village, and told the 10 year old Angel at that time about her adventure story.

It's not a fantasy story product from someone's delusion, it was a real story.

Fam had her eyes shone when she told them the story about her fight against the boss of the Labyrinth.

Angel's heart was racing when she heard the part of "Entering Labyrinth searching for a cool man" was her purpose for her adventure.

The adventurer succeeded in capturing the labyrinth but still failed to fulfill her purpose, that story however had a great impact in Angel's heart later.

From that day after she heard the story onward, Angel had some kind of admiration toward the adventurer.

Sometimes, her head was full of such longing of delusional encounters.

She was in pinch from being suddenly attacked by a demon, suddenly a prince gallantly comes to help her appears. And to that person, she offered herself as a form of gratitude.

(Crikey)

And, it's where her delusion come to an end in agony.

The longing is just longing.

A delusion is just a delusion.

There was no way such a convenient thing will occur, and Angel knows about that.

Having delusions about such marriage like dream is only a pipe dream.

They're just a longing.

The Angel now was only looking properly at reality.

5 years ago, she felt the feeling of sadness and loneliness from losing her parents, and she hated those feeling.

"Angel be careful, we're entering that guys territory "

"Yeah, I know"

They have come to a cave in the deepest part of the forest, Angel took down her basket to her feet.

This time, these two girl came to this cave in search for a certain medicine material in this cave.

A disease called Iburi disease, the main ingredient to that disease that become an epidemic in this area is inside this cave.

"It cannot be helped, if it's for Dochiru "

"Yeah"

Currently, the son of Village chief Dochiru was infected by Iburi disasea.

The Iburi disease, it's a disease that spreads all over the body and will cause certain death, if the patient didn't drink the medicine within 10 days.

However, there is a sure way to cure it, that was by using intermediate detoxification magic, and it's not contagious.

From this view, it is a disease which isn't dangerous in most of the city.

But, this deadly disease is feared in a remote area like the village where Angel lives in.

Because the journey to the nearest city where an intermediate detoxification magician could be found needs more than a 10 days journey.

Looking at their childhood friend, Dochiru suffering by such disease when he almost became village chief.

For that matter, this same disease is also the one which caused Fam and Angel parents death.

Fam's mother was also infected by Iburi disease,

In an attempt to cure it, Angel parents and Fam's father entered the forest to search for it medicine.... and died.

It is a disease that branded this two girl relationship to get closer.

And that accursed disease, trying to sink its fangs onto their childhood friend.

Two girl, carefully taking each of their step.

The ingredient for the medicine is a flower that only bloomed at the foot of this cliff.

Because it is only for one person, there is no need to take a large amount of it.

Five or six petals.

With that amount, it's enough for one person.

"..... Gulp" [\[3\]](#)

The view of these two traveling girls whom swallowed their saliva suddenly opened.

The gap between the trees suddenly cleared, and they come out at the place that look like a plaza.

There in front of them, is a high cliff.

And there is blue flowers spread on one side.

There is the colony of the flowers.

"..... Gasp!"

Even while Looking at the beautiful sight, their expression didn't relax one bit.

To the place where the flower is grown, Angel tearing it's petals with her trembling hands.

The next moment.

"GroaaaaaaaaRRRRRRRRRR!!"

A thunderous roar could be heard.

"Angel, run away!"

Fam cried.

However, Angel feet were already frozen the moment she heard that roar.

"Angel! nor!"

And while she grabbed her long bow and an arrow from her quiver, Fam yelled at Angel.

that appeared on top of the cliff.

a Giant lizard with purple red skin, overall length about ten meters or more.

now, in this forest.

Iburi Lizard.

That reptile guy has no wings, so it's similar to the giant lizard inhabiting Vegarid continent.

Why is the lizard, called "Iburi" Lizard.

Because near the area where that lizard lives, "Iburi" disease always spreads there.

And because it always made its turf near the flower where “Iburi” disease medicine could be found.

That’s the theory said by a certain scholars,

They said that Iburi Lizard is spreading the Iburi disease.

By spreading Iburi disease, their prey will come to pick the flower to cure the disease.

But, that truth has yet to be confirmed.

But, this village was already haunted by this Lizard and Iburi disease for the past five years.

Either Angel parents or Fam father.

Everyone were killed by this guy.

"AAAAAAAAAAAAARGGGGGHHHHHHH!"

Fam shouted to strengthen herself, and shot her arrow.

That arrow flew and stuck itself on the scales of the Lizard with a “ting!” sound.

In that moment, Iburi lizard also made it’s move.

It come down from the top of the cliff at tremendous speed like a gecko.

It look like Fam arrow didn’t have any effect on it.

"Stand up now Angel! Please! Run away! "

With Fam's voice, Angel stood up at last.

But she didn't run away immediately, she didn't hurried herself!

Such impatience tangled Angel's legs.

But she began to turn around and ran.

Fam looking at her, she also moving to made her escape.

However, it was already too late.

"GuuuAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA!!!"

"A Gyaa A~a~a~a!"

The thin Iburi Lizard catch Fam at tremendous speed, with chaotic feet movement it's teeth lined up and glared at Fam.

Fam is lifted like a doll, she is swayed while she shouted scared scream that was not befitting of a young girl, and thrown into the bed of flowers.

Angel looking at that.

In her eyes is, Fam who is tossed on the air.

She has seen Fam desperate face.

On top of that, she got lost about what she must to do.

She had thought to help her best friend.

Then when she noticed it, the Iburi Lizard was already in front of her.

"A"

I will die.

And, Angel was realized.

Someone that help her at the time of pinch.

Sometimes she has such delusions.

A delusion is only a delusion.

While in fact, there is no way someone will come to help her right now.

At this moment, she will die.

That was reality.

So surely, it would be a dream from here.

Suddenly, Iburi Lizard is blown off to the side.

"What?"

Angel did not understand the scene in front of her.

Suddenly, the monster that almost killed her, is changing its direction, Suddenly, that giant lizard goes to the completely different direction which is not impossible.

"GRRRRR"

Iburi Lizard saw at the opposite direction raised it's head while bleeding from the tip of it's mouth, what was caused it to be blown away.

Angel also looked in that direction.

Standing There, was a man.

Wearing dark gray colored robe that was fluttering with the wind, and wearing black colored armor below that fluttering robe.

In his left hand he carried some kind of tube.

With his fluttering brown colored hair, he walked toward the Iburi Lizard.

"GrAAAAAAAAAWWWWW!"

The moment it saw that man, Iburi Lizard opened its jaw and rushing at that man quickly.

Huge fangs approached that man, but he faced it calmly.

The man was bitten without mercy – that was how Angel predicted.

However, the man was alive.

The man, he caught Iburi Lizard head.

He stopped Iburi Lizard large body and movement with one hand.

Then, in an action that could be called a slow motion, he directed his left hand at Iburi Lizard head.

"" Shotgun Trigger!""

The next moment, something has been fired from the tube.

Seeing that, Angel didn't know what just happened.

She concluded that it was something fired at very high speed.

After all in Angel view, it's over in a flash,

Because, the Iburi Lizard's head has already vanished from this world.

"....."

Its head exploded into a million pieces, the long neck that was caught in that explosion's momentum caused the Iburi Lizard's body to fall backward.

Fast and furious, only light sounds emitted from its fallen body befitting of its size.

A sight she didn't think as reality.

However, bright red blood continued to flow from its neck's cross section.

"Whew"

While sighed, the man aimed his right hand to the lizard corpse.

Then, the body of Iburi Lizard was in flames in an instant.

Together with some popping sound of the oil that crackled, the smell of burning flesh filled the surroundings.

So, the man turned towards Angel.

with fire as his background, as if nothing happened to that man, he opened his mouth.

"You are Angelique Karentail right?"

"Heh?"

He suddenly said that with such a goofy voice.

"Or, Miss Fam Haindora?"

I want to know your name.

But that word didn't come out from her lips, after she shook her buzzing head, Angel noticed that they're staring at each other.

"I came to help"

When a man came with a dazzling robe said so, the feeling of security expanded inside Angel's chest.

The man called himself Rudeus Greyrat.

Casting skeptical gazes at Angel's unquenchable throbbing chest, applied healing magic for Fam, she had been treated in an instant.

Fam's consciousness didn't return immediately, even injuries such as broken bones, her leg that was almost torn, purple bruises on her skin immediately healed.

And he explained that he has been asked to come here by a certain person to help Angel, but he didn't reveal this too much about his request.

Also, Angel has no idea about who is the other party that asked him to come to help her.

"Regardless of what has happened, it was good that I just barely came in time this time."

"a ... hai!"

Rudeus is walking through the forest while piggybacking Fam.

Angel is to say, had been carrying a basket of flowers into clogged up a lot.

While walking, while worrying about her appearance frequently.

(No doubt about it my hair is disheveled, my clothes also covered with mud, maybe Yeah, my face looks so dirty, Oh.....what must I do about it? Is my appearance a mess?) She was blushing every time Rudeus turned around, while Angel keep turn aside herself.

It seems Rudeus didn't mind such attitude.

Rather, it's like he convinced himself to not look at her face, Without looking back, they walk in silence.

He looks back once a while, but it's really once in a while.

Angel, wanted to see Rudeus face more.

Ee~r, what can I do?, soon we will arrive at the village.

And then, he come like a hero.

Defeating the Lizard, he saved the village.

What should I do, if that happens I'm sure, it won't be possible to talk to him ...]

And, there where Angel eyes saw, Fam figure who is piggybacking by Rudeus burned into her eyes.

Her ample bosom is successfully squashed on Rudeus's back.

Seeing that, Angel felt a little jealous with her.

"Eh, Well, Rudeus-san!"

"Yes, What?"

Rudeus looking back at her remaining expressionless, and Angel riding on that momentum.

"About, Fam! Isn't she heavy?"

"It's all right"

"Eh, but you've already been carrying her since a while ago, don't you feel tired?"

"No, I always train myself, so this level of activity won't make me tired "

Saying so, while rolled-up his robe Rudeus howing her his upper arm.

Although his biceps is not visible because of his black armor, For some reason while watching it Angel was impressed by the words of "after all, I'm always training myself".

So, Rudeus struck his hands with pop.

"Oh, yeah. I'm sorry I'm not aware"

"What?"

(What, What, did you notice it?)

And, Angel eyes turned into black and white.

Rudeus said that with a smile while showing his white teeth.

"Say, Angelique-san I'm a bit tired. Shall we take a short break? "

By the way, his teeth shining is only Angel delusion.

"Oh, yeah, I'm sorry and thank you very much for your hard work, please take a rest.....and please just call me Angel by all means!"

"Angel,.....Okay"

Rudeus, slowly put Fam down, then sat himself on a fallen tree.

That fallen tree has a V-form shape.

It was found immediately that Rudeus, being friendly he sat on the opposite direction from Angel.

But, as for Angel, she thought.

This is a chance, and now is the only time.

(Eit!)

As it is, Angel sat down next to Rudeus.

"...!"

Angel could feel that Rudeus body is trembled and Bikuri.

(I wonder ... if it feels unpleasant?)

She takes a glance at his face.

Rudeus had an indifferent face.

But, his expression didn't look like he dislikes it.

He is just confused.

From what Angel guessed, and from her lips an excuse leaks immediately.

"Su, about this I'm sorry, I was scared. Well, even now I'm still scared, let me sit beside you!"

"Oh!..... yeah, if that's what you mean."

Ride on the momentum.

Angel was going all-out.

To the end of the holy war.

"Oh, and thank you very much"

"No, it's fine because it's my job "

Though Rudeus attitude looked unfriendly, but his eyes swam right and left overlooking Angel.

Angel followed his line of sight.

She's wondering, what he sees.

Around her neck, her clothes is unbuttoned and her chest is exposed.

In an effort to hide it in the moment, Angel hug herself with her own hands.

It seems that Angel attempt to be not interrupted.

Is already going beyond the horizon.

"...!"

Angel was huddled to slip, to Rudeus.

Rudeus is laterally offset by that amount, Angel, more Rudeus displaced.

In the end, Rudeus is relegated to the end of the tree, Angel was Pitotto close contact with the arm of Rudeus.

"That, Rudeus-san"

"Is it What a"

While she could feel Rudeus line of sight is focused on her chest, Angel swallowed her saliva.

Her size isn't as big as Fam.

But it's definitely greater than the average size in the village, she often receives sexual harassment like " Angel-chan, won't you bring me medicine from the valley of your breast? " from middle aged men.

It was a tool that only made fun of inside the village.

A part of woman inside Angel want to shout, but.

This is, a weapon now.

"I said, even if its work but the fact that you saved my life didn't change, I'm truly grateful for that "

"Errr~., you're welcome"

"If, after this, we back to the village, as long as you didn't immediately goes back you can come to my house,...and I will give you something as thank you present "

"No, I can't do that. Because my next job is already waiting for me there "

Her plan failed, but Angel didn't give up.

This is because, Angel gonna go to the Far end of the journey, to the eternal city.

"So, that is, well then, at least please let me give my gratitude, but I don't have anything....except for my body"

Even while feeling her face becoming red, Angel arms that crossed around her body to cover her chest.

..... then opening her arms that covered her chest, immediately Rudeus eyes glued to there.

And Rudeus suddenly standing-up.

"Oh, Rudeus-san?"

"Surprise attack, my chronic disease is almost acting up, I need my medicine"

While he said so, his line of sight is still glued to Angel chest.

But, hearing "medicine" word, Angel come back to her sense a little.

She is a pharmacist.

She had thought that the man in front of her had a chronic disease, and that her action might be triggered it to acting up.

"Oh, I am a Pharmacist! If it's medicine, I could mixed it after we're arrived at my home"

"No need to worry, because I bring some with myself"

But given such answer, Rudeus inserting his hand inside his armor.

And took it out , wrapped in white cloth.

Seeing that, rather than love affair, Angel more excited by the medicine.

It would be a kind of relapsed disease.

Rudeus is a powerful warrior.

He has strong stamina [4] that made him possible to travelling while wearing an armor, take Iburi Lizard attack head on.

In spite of that, he can also use healing magic.

Had applied advanced Healing magic to Fam.

She often heard that Healing magic and Detoxification magic is often learned as a set.

Thus perhaps, he is also familiar with detoxification magic.

Effective remedy for chronic disease and that chronic disease is infecting the person that seems to come out in such a legend.

He himself didn't know how to cure it, and want to find the way.

"Is that drugs.... for drink?"

"Yeah, well, it's something like that"

But despite saying so, Rudeus holds both tips of the cloth and spread it.

At first, Angel has some feeling that the fallen medicine will come into her view, and about to stretch her hand to catch it.

But, not a pills fallen, neither powdered medicine.

From that cloth, nothing fallen entered her eyes.

So, where is the medicine?

Strange thing caught Angel field of view and Angel looked up while she thought so.

It was a pantsu. [\[5\]](#)

Rudeus, soon he is holding a pantsu.

According to its size, it's from an adult woman.

When did?.

Eh.

Why.

The the cloth that wrapped the medicine until a while ago.

No, That's a cloth of a little while ago.

That cloth, he was holding was a pantsu.

What?

Why?

"...? ...?"

"Whew"

Casting skeptical gaze at confused Angel, Rudeus.....is taking a deep breath.

He burring his head against the pantsu,

"Su~tsu~u~u ---- ~Haaa~~ ~~!"

He exhaled deep breath.

"Suha, bad habit, bad habit, Suwa"

As it is, while snorted, he take a breath again and again.

Smelling and smelling, sometimes he lick it.

He was completely mesmerized by the pantsu.

"....."

At the sight, Angel was terrified.

That scene made her spine shivered, she can't move nor made sound, She is perfectly rigid, can't do anything at the sight of Rudeus behavior.

"Whew"

Rudeus finally done with his bizarre behavior five minutes later.

"O God, I give my thanks to you"

After saying that, while posing like a devotee praying to their god. He folded the panty neatly, and return it to his bosom.

"....."

Angel that didn't know what she must said, could only left her mouth agape with "pacpac" sound.

Her wit can't keep up with the current situation.

Her thought about that was good chance, suddenly a pantsu came out, then get sniffed.

She didn't get what just happened now.

"After all, object of worship is limited use only "

But, only one fact come to her.

Rudeus behavior just now, made Angel earlier feeling toward him smashed to piece.

Yes, angel first love is shattered instantly.

"Well,What was it Angel-san"

"..... I,I, it's nothing"

She woke up from her dream.

Then, Angel returned unceremoniously.

When you get to the village, Rudeus said to entrust the Fam in Angel.

"Because I won't make a stop at the village, I will excuse myself from here "

"..... Yes Yes"

Hearing his words, Angel could only nod her head reply.

That Bizarre view is still burned strongly in her mind.

"Now, take care"

Suddenly ..., he was stopped like he remembered something. Rudeus that started to walking to the outside of the village turned his body and walking toward her.

Looked back.

"Oh, well Angel-san didn't you said about reward before "

Hearing his words, chills ran through Angel spine.

Thank you.

Yeah.

If she think about it, indeed he saved her life.

She can't refuse if it's his request.

No matter how much she want to running away, from the man Physiologically disgusting man in front of her.

Angel is not that ungrateful to that level.

"Eh, uh so, I'm troubled that, you want my underwear too "

"No, I don't need that. But, I need you to do something "

"And, what do you want me to do?"

Oh, What should I do. It must be something that amazingly kinky.

Angel resolute face turned pale.

"....."

While scratching the back of the head and crunching sound attitude of Angel, while muttering, "Well, I do say," said Rudeus took out something from the backpack.

A picture book of one book, came out It was a doll of something.

"Then, Angel-san, please read this book to your children when they're born.

Please read this picture book for him.

and tell him that Supard race isn't Iburi " [\[6\]](#)

"Pardon me? Huh? Supe?"

"This is Supard race"

"Supard race"

From the word that absurdly told to her, Angel eyes was become black-and-white eyes.

"Because at the end of the book, there is a table about how to read the characters.

It could be double serving as teaching how to read character.

Just that, thank you "

After saying that much, Rudeus went away after placing the book to the Angel that taken aback.

In Angel hands, only a green haired demon-race doll remained with a picture book.

Just from the look of that Supard race doll, she felt terrified.

It's fully elaborate awfully, and colored with bright colors.

It's seems to begin at any moment.

The image of the terrible demon.

There was an impulse that made her want to throw it away right now.

However, the fact that it's a request from someone who saved her life made her discouraged.

"..... Let me see?"

Supard race.

She never meet them, but she know about them.

It is a race that is called the Iburi race.

When She was a child, if she is doing something bad her parents will threatened her that she will be eaten by Supard group.

was it such story that want to say the Supard race isn't a bad guy.

(Why such a thing)

Angel, not knowing what she must to do with such unknown request, pinched the doll head.

"Oh"

Then, the the doll hair is taken.

now in Angel hands is a warrior holding a spear with rugged face.

"Awesome"

Seeing that, Angel laughed.

She didn't know what his intention was.

But, it's what her life saver requested of her.

Let's do as she requested.

Angel, was thought so.

A few years later.

By curing Dochiru from disease, Angel chosen as his second wife of the village chief.

Dochiru is ordinary man, but he is a hard worker to the point that it isn't even funny.

However, he is not a pervert.

While feeling grateful to that fact, Angel raised her children that had born while reading that picture book for them.

Over time, the story of the picture book became a staple of story for the children in the village, bald warrior from Supard race that carrying justice. Later it's spreading through neighborhood village.

But....it is also a different story.

"Next story notice"

Rudeus that barely escaped from the temptation of cheating.

He who was exhausted both physically and mentally finally arrived at home.

But Eris' selfishness immediately hit Rudeus who came home seeking some healing from his daughter!

Be warned that the degree of translation error may be higher than usual due to the translation method employed.

I finished work safely this time around.

Rescuing the hunter Fam Haindora that was supposed to die in that forest.

When I heard the details on the mission, I thought it would be an easy job.

Healing the village chief's son with detoxification magic, and getting rid of that fake dragon in the forest.

It's very easy.

What I didn't know was that Fam was already inside the forest.

I finally managed to catch up with them after anxiously chasing after them, but Fam was almost dead.

That was dangerous.

When I got to her, she was already unconscious which caused me cold sweat.

While carrying her on my back, I continuously used healing magic on her.

At the same time, Angel the pharmacist was with Fam.

She was also dangerous.

Too voluptuous. That girl was certainly a femme fatale.

One misstep and I might have pushed her down.

It would have been instant death had I not brought with me the replica of the Divine Relic [\[1\]](#) just in case.

Of course, I wanted to bring the original, that is still enshrined in the altar, but there was no choice. If the other party were to ask for it back, I don't have any choice but to return it. So this was the only option.

"Whew"

Anyway, I better get back home quickly.

Go home and pat my daughter's head.

Eat rice cooked by Aisha for dinner during the evening, and do erotic things with my wives once the night is out.

It wouldn't be an exaggeration to say it's my raison d'etre .

It is also no exaggeration to say that in my every day life, I'm going back home only for that.

While I was thinking of these, I arrived at my house.

As I approached the entrance gates, the branches suddenly swayed around the entrance and the door was opened for me.

Since when can it do that? I wonder if it's an automatic door now.

Meh.

Jirou the Armadillo was not in his house. Maybe he's still with Roxy at school.

Zenith was enjoying her lunch in the garden, while Lilia was airing the laundry.

Upon seeing me, Lilia lowered her head and went inside the house.

"I'm home." [\[2\]](#)

"Oh, it's the voice of my brother! Welcome home, [\[3\]](#) Onii-chan! Sorry, your sister is a little bit busy now to welcome you, but at least I could say Welcome back!"

I heard that voice from the basement.

That is Aisha's voice.

"I hear you."

What was Aisha doing?.

I wonder if she is organizing her fertilizer?

"Welcome back Rudi"

While I was thinking of that, Sylphy came towards me from the living room.

Behind her is Lucy, following her like a baby duck.

"I'm home Sylphy.....this time I feel so tired."

"Thank you for your hard work."

Sylphy took my robe, then she cleaned it making papapa sounds with duster and hung it with a hanger.

By the way, the Magic Armor was left at the office.

Besides the entrance, I installed a large mirror. I'm looking like a young man that just entered society in this world.

But, the me today was quite tired.

I look like a salaryman that just came home from work.

"Papa, welcome back"

And when I looked at myself in the mirror, Lucy welcomed me.

Her hair color is bright brown, and she looks dignified.

She's almost three years old now and her face is handsome like an elf infant.

Her ears are shorter than her mother's, but she looks very similar to Sylphy in her childhood.

Just like that, she stood there quietly, and welcomed me.

Oh!

Papa, Welcome back!

Aaa!

"Lucy~~ ~~ I'm home!"

When tried to give her a hug, she suddenly ran away and hid herself behind Sylphy.

She is glaring at me with vigilance.

Shock!

Oh, do I look that dangerous?

"Come on, Lucy"

"Nooooo~~ ~~"

Sylphy scolded Lucy and held her hand towards me.

I caught it immediately.

Lucy's hand was very small, and warm.

Sylphy is right, her body temperature is higher than normal.

Maybe because she is a bit thin.

Or, was it a characteristic of the elf race?

Oh? Nope, Lucy-Tan, huh, huh Chu-chu, just give Papa a welcome kiss on the cheek, Uhehe.

"Yada, jorijori-" [\[4\]](#)

She hurriedly avoided me when I tried to give her some kisses.

Come to think of it, I did not shave at work.

Regret regret.

Anyway, though I'm a bit reluctant, I will stop for now.

Yeah, I don't want to force her when she doesn't want to.

I don't want her to hate me.

When I put Lucy down, she immediately ran pit-patting towards the dining room, fleeing from me.

Did she really hate me so much?.

"Mouuu..... that Lucy"

Sylphy sighed while posing with her hand at her hip.

But, compared to before, I think Lucy was beginning to open herself up to me.

She already could call me Daddy, and no longer made a "who is this guy?" kind of face.

I feel that there is still a little distance.....but, it can't be helped.

"There"

For now, in order to regain the warmth that I lost, I embraced Sylphy.

Kissing her, and groping her butt while doing so.

"Mou, Rudy"

Oh, somehow I got turned on.

I wonder if I could take her to the bedroom right now.

But, doing that when the children are still awake.....

"We can't do this now, let's do this later."

"Okay."

Being told so, I released her.

Anyway, as long as I make love to my wives, that femme fatale's scent would be blown away.

"Where are Lara and Roxy?"

"Lara is in the living room, and Roxy is still at school."

Following Sylphy's answer, I went to the living room with her.

Lara was sleeping in the cradle.

Lara Greyrat.

My second daughter.

A baby with beautiful blue hair.

But, probably because she has a deadpan expression, I could feel many "Ba~" intense sound effects can be heard around her bed.

Leo curled himself below the baby cradle. Well, would get in between him and his prided charge.

"Lara, I'm home."

"U Oh"

Even though Lara is still young, she could already understand me.

Even when not even a year has passed since her birth.

Possibly, the children of my house are geniuses.

Or perhaps this time around it's a reincarnated person.

But, she didn't respond to English or Japanese as usual.

But, I never get her saying "Thank you for your hard work, now please take a rest for a while". Nah, it's probably because of her deadpan expression.

I wonder if she will grow into a proud looking girl in the future.

"Lara, she doesn't cry or laugh as much, so I'm a little worried....."

Sylphy is worried about Lara in a different sense from me.

Although, I think that's okay.

I mean, I was also that way in the past.

This is of no concern.

No doubt about it.

Ma~well, I noticed Sylphy's worried expression.

The treatment towards someone with a mental disability in this world was very different from my original world.

"Well, it's okay. Even if something were to happen, she is still part of this family."

"I know that, but I get the feeling that Roxy would feel responsible."

"I will give her a loving hug if the time comes."

While stroking Leo that came to lick my hand, I simply told that to Sylphy.

But it's likely that Roxy will feel responsible.

I'm just really happy that I have a new daughter.....

I'm wondering, somehow, Roxy was showing her perfectionist side.

"Huh?"

And, that's when I noticed something.

Eris' not here.

She is always competing with Aisha in welcoming me.

And she's always making me touch her stomach and saying "Yes!".

So as to indicate it was becoming larger steadily.

At those times, I would also rub her breasts and get beaten in turn. It's always that kind of pattern, but.....

Today, that didn't happen for some reason.

I wonder what happened to her?

"Where is Eris?"

"Ah"

When I asked that, Sylphy showed me a troubled face.

"Somehow, she's been having little dispute with Aisha since this morning."

"Eh? What? Do you mean they got into a quarrel?"

"Quarrel? I wonder if that could be called quarreling.....unnnn~"

Sylphy gave me a vague answer.

One look is worth a hundred explanations.

"I understand, let me see them."

"Yeah"

And from patting Lara's head, we left the room.

By the way, Lucy was peeking at us from the gap of the door, but when our eyes met, she quickly escaped to the second floor with a dotadota sound.

Even if I had the urge to chase after Lucy, I walked towards the basement first.

Going down the stairs to the basement, we found Aisha knocking on the basement floor's door.

"Eris-nee, come on, in this house we already have Leo, Jirou, and Beat. "

"I know that!"

Aisha was knocking the door, and Eris was answering from the other side.

"What's the matter?"

Hearing my voice, Aisha turned her head.

"Ah, Onii-chan, Listen! It looks like Eris-nee picked up a stray cat this morning, it's kept meowing since this morning."

"A cat."

So it's a cat.

Well, Eris is indeed an animal lover.

In my heart, I'm not as endeared towards them.

But I quite like Leo, so I guess I'm in the dog faction.

Everyone, we must answer goodwill with goodwill.

"It's not that I hate cats, but don't we already have three other pets in the house?"

So I told her to at least ask Onii-chan's permission, but she wouldn't listen."

I see.

Looks like my input is necessary.

For once, I'm the head of the family.

"We can keep it."

"Really!?"

A joyous voice could be heard from the other side of the door.

I think I need to pamper Eris who is in her pregnancy once in a while.

Adding a cat or two won't affect the household too much, it's quite cheap.

"However, there is a baby and Lucy, and I won't be home so much. So, you must discipline it properly. "

"Of course! I know that!"

Hearing Eris' joyful voice, Aisha turned her face towards me.

"Mu~, then I must devote extra time to buy their food. "

Oh, so this is increasing Aisha workload.....

Perhaps, her O meter of taking care of the pregnant Eris is nearing its max.

"Aisha, I'm sorry."

"Don't worry, Onii-chan. After all, you gave your permission."

"I'm sorry, I will make it up to you later. "

"Mou~, well, it can't be helped..... "

After gently patting her head, her mood improved somewhat.

But, probably because she was loosening her hairstyle, her face looks a bit complicated.

"Then Eris, please open the door."

"Okay"

After saying that, the door to the basement opened slowly.

From inside, Eris' lips, forming a “^” character showed themselves.

She's not showing any signs of weakness pregnant women typically have.

So this is how King-class swordswomen take pregnancy.

"....."

And, through the open door, I looked inside the basement.

I examined the cat sitting down the basement, it breathed deeply and had a collar around its neck.

It was a splendid cat.

Though it was dirty, her ears were standing and her tail was waving to and fro.

Not only that.

What I first noticed were her breasts.

Large breasts. I wondered if they are about the same size as Eris'.

She is wearing torn rags, which could barely hide her chest and waist.

Supple and plump thighs, healthy brown skin and a tail which moved freely.

"Ah! Boss, Long time no see nya! I won't forget this favor forever, nya!"

"This morning, on the way back I picked her up! Her name is Rinia!"

Rinia Dedorudia.

My senpai. A beast race female who graduated from the magic university a few years back.

Aa~, such memories.

I get it.

All right.

"Throw her out!"

"No!"

The door was closed wildly in front of my eyes.

It took an hour to make that door open again.

After which we decided to move to the living room to hear her story.

Anyway, looks like Eris picked-up Rinia while accompanying Leo for a walk.

She is already in her fifth month of pregnancy.

After her condition stabilized, Eris started to take Leo out for walks again.

Her first exercise is light walks.

I could certainly feel her strong will.

Well, I also think some light exercising isn't bad for pregnant women.

While walking nearby the slave market area, that incident happened.

First, from hiding, she told, that Rinia suddenly leaped towards her.

Then, following her were rough-looking men.

Sadly, Rinia's tail got caught.....that's business.

Eris after seeing that, immediately came to a decision.

She drew the sword from her hip, giving help to the poor soul [nekomimi] [\[5\]](#) , and slashed the area between the two.

She then brought the spoils of war [Rinia] back home feeling triumphant.

"I am the one who helped her so she is mine! I'll raise her!"

And, Eris was determined.

Claiming the ownership over Rinia like a bandit.

"..... Y, Yes, I'm Eris-sama's property nya!"

Rinia saying that, she placed her ears above Eris' knee.

Her body was still shivering but I only saw a little shiver on her plump body.

She was trembling in fear.

Waving her tail to the strong, that's the law of the beast.

Well, it's okay ... but.

"By the way Rinia, why were you on the street? No, why are you here in this city? "

Certainly, that day, the day we parted with Rinia in an evening sun.

Saying she will become a great merchant, as her gallant figure walked out of the city.

And now, here she is wearing rags like a slave, and appearing dirty.

"Want to hear nya? It's a long story, full of tears..... "

"Give me a short summary."

"Nya."

She left town after graduating from the school, and said that she will become a merchant.

She purchased goods from Asura Kingdom and took them to the North and sold them.

She then purchased goods from the North, and sold them to Asura Kingdom.

In other words, work as a peddler.

For that reason, she purchased a horse drawn carriage with loan.

Taking this opportunity, she also stocked up on goods.

Also with a loan.

Usually, you would do a round trip to the next town by foot and do that repeatedly to earn little by little, but.....

In short, she wanted to earn big money in one trip.

And as a result her debt interest increased and she was always in the red. Well, that's a given.

Living in poverty day in day out.

It seems she was paying her debts little by little, but she didn't know when her debt would be cleared and those days continued on.

That way, she carried on, hoping to gain glory under the sun someday.

A merchant belonging to the firm where she loaned from had approached Rinia and talked to her.

He eagerly talked about paying back the debt with something. But looking at the business, it wasn't going well.

"You can't erase the debt, but it's possible to become a member of the company. It will make payments much easier.

To become a member, 20 Asura gold coin pieces were required as fee to pay the management in the firm, but you could also gain that back later.

You could return the remainder of the debt later.

Once you write IOU, just trust the rest to me."

When I heard of that, it really sounded fishy. And the cat was successfully baited with fish.

Rinia's 20 pieces of Asura gold coins were gone to purchase a badge of the members of the Chamber of Commerce.

But, that bright red member's badge was a fake.

When the time came to make her debt payments, they gave her a “What's this guy doing?” kind of face when she showed her badge to the Chamber of Commerce debt collector, and they immediately noticed that it was a fake.

But, the IOU is real.

Rinia's debt increased by 20 Asura gold coins.

Asura gold coins are the most valuable gold coins in this world.

20 Asura gold coin, and surely, the interest from that is a big amount of money.

Originally, Rinia was already up to her neck with the interests from the previous debt. Added with the interests, she already can't pay them. [\[6\]](#)

Her carriage was seized, and Rinia was taken into custody.

"Achishi [\[7\]](#) I was swindled and that's how I ended up being sold to a slave merchant."

I think half of it was her own fault, but

Well, a fraud is a fraud.

That swindler is the one in the wrong.

"Hmm."

Though, it's already come to this.

Eris already injured the slave traders, and that is a problem.

There's children and babies in the house.

Given these circumstances, I don't want lowlifes as my enemies.

"..... I wonder what's wrong?.... "

"Boss, help me, nya. By all means nya.....I don't want to become a slave, nya "

Rinia begged me while clasping her hands.

She's dressed in rags and has a collar.

Somehow, it's erotic.

"Rinia..... you"

"Yes Nya~?"

"Mou~, are you still a virgin?" [\[8\]](#)

"Nyaa?"

Before Rinia could stand up, I was suddenly looking at the ceiling.

The Boreas punch exploded, and I was flipped from the chair.

"Rudeus! Are you even listening to her story!?"

"That's right Rudi, you don't understand delicacy at all."

"Onii-chan is the worst."

I was severely bashed by the ladies.

"I'm sorry."

Now let's apologize honestly.

Yeah, that's right.

Certainly it's a bit too vulgar.

"Excuse me to say nya! Nya! I'm still a pure virgin girl nya!

Something like that was what made my value as a slave rise! "

"I got it, thank you."

I do not know why I heard myself.

I had to make sure somehow, whether they left some mental trauma in her.

I'm reflecting myself.

Even so, her value increased.

Even in this world, the kind that value in virginity does exist.

Come to think of it, in the Great Forest the unicorn is residing inside.

While thinking of these, I noticed something about my body.

My nose is in pain.

Upon examination, I had a nosebleed.

Sylphy was applying healing magic with quick motions.

"Maa~ however, I feel a bit worried. "

Eris already attacked the slave merchant.

They must feel humiliated, and will come exact revenge on us.

Somehow, I must do something about that.....

By returning Rinia to them peacefully.

Or by crushing the hostile slave merchant thoroughly.

If I choose the latter, I'm afraid Norn might get kidnapped in a detestable way.....

Either way, abandoning Rinia would fill us with guilt.

But she is my friend.

Uhmmm.

"Excuse me~e!"

And, we heard some voice from the entrance.

I don't know any man with this voice, but behind me, Rinia's body suddenly jerked and she jumped behind the couch to hide herself.

"It's them nya!"

Apparently, it's the slave merchant.

I proceeded to the entrance.

"I know our slave is inside this house, we have come to take her. "

"I do not know what you're talking about, please don't make such a baseless lie."

Lilia replied to them while I made my way.

They brought three people.

Standing at the front is a tiny man with a knife.

He might be from the dwarf race.

Behind him was a muscular bald man, and a Mohican style haired man.

Violence oozed from their bodies.

They gave a feeling like that of Samson and Adon.

"So to say... In this town, a red haired pregnant woman is about half, then combined with a large white dog, we already know where to search without asking."

"Maybe Eris-sama is acting violently. You just said it's a possibility. However, inside our home, there is no such thing like a slave to be taken back. "

Lilia gave them such clear answer, the baldie from behind made a cracking noise with his hands.

Pushing his way in front of the small man and then reaching towards Lilia.

" You [\[9\]](#) . This granny is in need of a beating -."

Lilia could only tremble while her shoulder was about to be grabbed violently.

" Wait wait wait woah, wait, don't make trouble, don't make trouble, don't make trouble, and absolutely don't touch her.....!"

She wasn't grabbed.

Hearing what the little guy said, the baldie dropped his hands.

"Big brother, why? Usually it's always. "

"You idiot! This maid, is the nanny of that Rudeus Greyrat, and the mother of his half sister. If you dare to put even a scratch on her, your entire family will be annihilated!"

Hearing that, the baldie looked at Lilia and shivered.

"Well, I'm here for business... "

"Look out, ...if the [Mad Sword King] really come out from this house like the story." [\[10\]](#)

"Hide~e"

And, that's when the little man noticed my presence.

Without delay he rubbed his hands together and made a meek face.

"Oh, it's pleasure to meet you, Rudeus-san... "

It's a Nechikkoi [\[11\]](#) voice.

He is posing humbly in front of me and didn't touch Lilia.

Well, I would probably get mad if that baldie even grabbed her.

No way, I wouldn't go as far as massacring them.

At least, I'm sure of that.

I don't know about Eris.

"..... Lilia-san, I will handle it from here."

"I understand, Rudeus-sama."

Lilia bowed to me, and she retreated a few steps.

She looked a bit reluctant.

"Nice to meet you, Rudeus-san. "

While rubbing his hands together, the small man bowed again.

"I'm working under the Balbard company and I was charged with this matter. My name is Kinchou."

"Nice to meet you, I'm Rudeus Greyrat"

But Kinchou?

That's like a certain drug for mosquito. [\[12\]](#)

"So Kinchou-san, what's your business here?"

From what I heard, I could make a rough guess already.

It would be silly if you were to say you come for something else.

"Though I am reluctant to say this Rudeus-san, one of our beast slaves ran away. "

"Hou~, what kind of slave?"

"A daughter of the Dorudia tribe, high battle capabilities and able to use magic. Really, the best slave. "

Oh. I already heard from Rinia.

She's the best slave.

Her evaluation is high so she must be insanely expensive.

"Then, the hunting party from our company chased after her, but they were annihilated. "

"Hou~~"

Must be Eris' work.

Somehow I feel sorry for them.

A slave merchant worker, rather than exacting revenge on the murderer, they chose to track her down.

I feel helpless.

"Well, that kind of thing is an everyday occurrence to us and all part and parcel of our work. There's always victims. Without even mentioning that the other party is subordinate to the second ranked in the seven great powers [Dragon God], and an acquaintance to the next king of the Asura Kingdom....right? "

"So to say, somehow I got saved. "

It looks like they're scared of Orsted and Ariel's name.

It's the power of connections.

Thank you, President Orsted! Section chief Ariel!

Somehow it won't become a huge deal.

But, it looks like the news about me working under Orsted have already become widespread.

Ma~, maybe the rumor spread from somewhere.

"However, ..Rudeus-san"

"Yes?"

"That, slave is, how do I put it, her price is quite high."

"You mean a premium slave?"

Although I think that he is rather a stupid man, but who knows that he has quite an ability in this.

Well, each man has their strong point, isn't that right?

"That slave slipped towards this area.

Incidentally, I usually meet you inside the store.

Hehe, as expected of that slave, she cheerfully followed your wife.

But too late, someone already bid on her. "

"The buyer"

Bosu-Guto

"Who are they?"

"Yeah, yeah. That's right that's right. Rudeus-san also knew them very well!"

That's...

Eris' former house.

"The princess from the Dorudia tribe could freely use magic in combat. Beautiful and still a virgin.

Hearing that, they immediately bought her for 300 Pieces of Asura gold coins as an advance payment. "

Maybe it's Uncle James, or his son. Really, this Greyrat house..... [\[13\]](#)

Rather than using that money for buying a slave, why didn't he use that for Fedoa territory's reconstruction?

But Eris also fell in love at first sight with Rinia, and if Rinia is a limited product, I won't get my hands on something like her again.

Seems like I got money issue.

"This slave is really pricy because it is a limited item. This person must be forced to accept her situation right? "

"Well, I could say so."

"Hey, could you retreat for now? I need some time to gather my money to purchase her. "

"....."

Hmm.

Stocking money huh.

Well, though it appear to be a big loss that will cause their company to collapse.

Even if they collapsed, I don't care.

I won't feel bitter about it.

"Come to think of it, Rudeus-san"

I'm perplexed, he's directing a threatening smile to me.

"One of your li'l sister and your wife, I'm sure they're coming back and forth towards Magic University. I feel bad if we must disturb them..... "

"Youyou don't intend to mess with Norn and Roxy are you? "

If this matter really come out, certainly I won't go easy.

Didn't I already prepare myself to destroy Ranoa Kingdom?

"Oh, uh, not for now, not for now.

Of course not. Of course, I don't want to be in hostile relationship with Rudeus-san?

If possible, we want to get along. "

"I also feel the same way. "

"Don't you agree?

So, please return our slave.

I also don't want to discard my life by being the enemy of Rudeus-san.

But, hora~, did you know?

As it is, we will end up killing each other, biting each other's neck and die at the same time, did you want to fight till you die?"

Yeah, he's got a point here.

They're also in a desperate state.

After they've cancelled the advance payment of 300 Pieces of Asura gold in case I paid them the same price, they'll fall from the pay back credit.

Hey, come to think of it, trying to stand themselves to pay back the 300 Pieces of Asura gold.

They would certainly go bankrupt.

And thinking that they would go bankrupt, somehow it made them desperate.

A wounded beast is scary.

"Whew.."

..... Well, oh well.

Even Rinia was careless this time.

Getting herself in debt, then added with another debt, and finally got herself swindled. It was her own fault.

If she was thrown into the prison, the Boreas and also myself won't let it happen.

As far as I know, at least for Sauros-sama, he never made that beast-eared maid work too hard.

He never gave them a hard labor.

Well, maybe they will do some erotic things, but a good-looking guy like Philip and Eris are many over there. And they love beasts, so she will be loved.

If it's like that, I will ask them to let me write a brief note.

She is a slave, but please don't treat her badly because she is my acquaintance.

All right, let's go with it.

"I understand"

"Did you now?"

"Yeah, now"

While I was looking back to bring Rinia.

- I swallowed that words.

My eyes caught her presence who was on the top of the stairs.

"....."

Lucy.

My cute daughter.

She has an anxious look. She had seen what's happening here from behind the railing of the stairs.

"..... Lilia-san."

"Yes, what is it, sir?"

Here, because they yield to this threat, but is it really alright to hand over Rinia to them who's lowering their head and using schemes? Heh.

I have been anxious in front of Lucy.

A father.

Inside the house, isn't the child getting scared with the hand-over-child tradition?

- No.

"From the safe in my room, please bring as much as you can."

"Yes, sir"

Lilia was quick.

After disappearing into the back of the house in a flash, and hurriedly came back with an armful of big bags.

Little and heavy objects were carried.

Opening the bags that were already divided into a small pack. They're tightly packed in the bag.

I picked up one of them, and threw it towards Kinchou.

"..... This is?"

While frowning quizzically, he opened the bag that he just received.

"!"

And his complexion changed.

"It is a magic stone. If you sell it in an appropriate place, it will be about 500 pieces of Asura gold coins."

"Oh you mean?"

"Here, another one."

I threw the second pouch.

Kinchou received it in a hurry.

"Perhaps, you didn't just captured one Dedorudia, you didn't captured the princess of Adorudia right?

Because those two were always together. "

"Eh? N, No? I mean, didn't we only capture one animal?"

"For your own favor, I advise you to not lie to me. "

Saying that, I threw the third pouch to him.

While catching it, Kinchou's facial color was full of confusion.

"You've said it, but if later I went to your shop and found another, your shop is history. Because I don't intend to finish it with just money. "

Kinchou's face changed to blue quickly.

"I, It is true. A Daughter of Dedorudia, we only have one of them!"

..... Well, so it's like that. I only need to listen once.

Rinia became a Merchant and Purusena became the village chief. The two of them taking a different road. There is no way they will be caught at the same time.

By now, Purusena would have arrived back to the Great Forest.

"Well..... if that's how is it, I will purchase Rinia."

"No way!? This, three bags?"

"Well if it's not enough, I still have some enchanted weapons (magic items) do you want one?"

I also reached out to the next bag.

2000 pieces of magic stones all at once. [TL : this is the original text “2 0 0 0 枚分、ポンといくぜ”]

I showed them what I earned all of this past year.

"N, no, this, this is fair enough!"

"Well, without saying so.

Recently, my house is a bit empty you know.

Because I am often not in the house that's why annoying insects come.....to haunt my family.

Perhaps, did you see them? "

"Oh Oh"

We must keep a nail tight here.

Intimidating diplomacy.

"Also, in the future, I want us to get along.

For example, if the daughter of Adorudia that I mentioned a little while ago such as or become a slave.

When a daughter or a sister are by any chance had become a slave.

I ask you to at least give me a little leeway."

"Eh, yeah, yeah, of course, you will have your leeway in our market."

"What if, I install the jewelry on the forehead and apply light magic for you to wear. How should I put it.....how about a helmet with flashlight instead..."

Kochirou's body began to tremble and he suddenly bowed to me with a frightened look on his face.

"Wah, O...Okay! She is sold to you! Don't threaten me! I don't want to be your enemy. "

"Thank you very much."

I won.

It is a victory, the power of money.

That said, I'm not going to turn this place's slave merchants into my enemy.

Incidentally, also the Boreas family.

"Also, please come back later! I got some letter for those Boreas and to receive the receipt."

"Oh, is that so,..... I got it."

After saying that, Kochirou took the big men and went away in a flash.

"Whew"

Large amounts of money went away in a flash huh.....

The magic stones of about 1500 pieces of Asura gold coins.

That was still a lot of money.

Lilia didn't say anything, but she must have been amazed.

"Sir"

"Lilia-san"

"Well done!"

"Thank you"

With a slight smile, Lilia bowed down to me.

It seems she forgave me just this once.

But, Aisha might get angry.

I wonder let's convince just Orsted to get remuneration somehow.

Also, that aside.

Lucy, look at me.

Your daddy is a man that will help people who are in a pinch.

So if you're in a pinch, I'll help you immediately.

So you don't have to worry about anything anymore.

Now, jump to your Papa's chest.

"... There!"

Thinking about that when I turned my body.

Lucy was already not there.

Sob.

Anyway, thus Rinia was saved, it was decided that she will live in the house.

As a slave.

Be warned that the degree of translation error may be higher than usual due to the translation method employed.

It was decided that Rinia will be working as our maid in the house.

As for me, I think it's fine to throw her out on the street.

But, something holds that, Rinia is my friend.

When my friends are in trouble, of course I must go to help them.

Maa~, though for instance I'm thinking of abandoning her, but I just can't do it, I didn't have the heart to do so. [\[1\]](#)

Moreover, Aisha strongly objected that idea.

After paying an outrageous amount of 1500 Asura gold coins, there is no way she will let her get kicked out from the house.

"Onii-chan your payment is good, but that amount of money is nothing to laugh off!

Until she pays back all of it, Rinia-san must work here! "

Indeed, your Onii-chan receive irregular salary from Orsted.

Be it magic item, or magic stone.

Probably because of his repeating loop, Orsted knows where to get it all.

So, if it's gold coins for my living expense in a lifetime, I could immediately gain again.

But, well 1500 pieces of Asura gold is still a large amount of money for me.

I mean, isn't that more expensive than a house?

"Oh well, she is Rudeus' friend, that's why I won't give up on her!"

And that's Eris words.

Since the very beginning Eris didn't want to hand over Rinia.

If I choose to hand over Rinia that time.

She will definitely come out with sword hanging on her waist making "kachin-kachin" sound, then producing a large number of corpses in a flash.

If I scold her for killing that slave merchant.

I don't care how she killed the slave merchants, but I'm afraid that will affect her baby.

Maybe the evil spirits from the people she killed will haunt her and kill her during pregnancy.

Therefore, next time I will use Ariel's name for some pretext to gain their trust.

Or, perhaps, saying that before they could even place their hands on their mouth.

Eris is that kind of woman.

I also have given up in the middle. (?)

"I think it's good, Rudi"

That's what Sylphy said.

She also did not oppose hiring Linia.

Sylphy already knows that my relationship with Rinia is that of a friend, Rather, she complimented me who valued this friendship.

"Wan~!"

And that's what the holy beast Leo said.

Though I don't know what he's saying?

Only Rinia know it.

"Oh, yes, of course Leo-sama. It's nice to be under you nya!, listen to what I said nya! It's fine to be under you nya! "

Rinia, she didn't ask me why the divine-beast-sama Leo is here.

Leo seems to have already explained his circumstance to her with respect to the matter apparently.

I do not know what you've explained, but she didn't hear more from me to respect the Divine-Beast's wish.

Anyway, Rinia's position is below Leo.

Poor Rinia, her position is even below a dog.

Rinia salary is two Asura silver coin but deducted half for repayment.

So it's one Asura silver coin a month.

Including bed with three meals.

As for the bed, I began to keep Eris in my room.

Her position is as Aisha's subordinate, but giving a form, she is like Eris' pet.

However, one Asura silver coin per month.

About 1 or 2 pieces of Asura gold per year.

Debt repayment, gonna take 2000 years or more.

"Rinia are you fine with that?"

"Uu~.....I already received too much help nya!.....That's already enough for me to cherish forever nya!.... "

Rinia seemed to have given up already.

Like an impala bitten in the neck by a cheetah, she's wagging her tail in front of Eris already.

Well, if the person herself is fine with it, then it's good, do good.

Then, Roxy also came back, but she did not disagree in particular.

Her comment is same with Sylphy, and compliments me for giving money to help my friend.

However, when she heard the price she gave me paranoid glance, I wonder why?

"So much, is the noble daughter's virginity that pricy?"

It didn't take long to solve her misunderstanding.

But, it looks like my lower body still doesn't have any credibility at all. [\[2\]](#)

Next morning.

Along with Roxy, I went to the Magic University.

She didn't ride on Jirou, we're walking together.

We made our way on the snowy path. [TL : 雪のつもった道をザクザクと the original text has SFX walking on the snow]

I didn't take any lessons from the Magic University for a long time, I also began to miss the once a month homeroom.

However I need to go to school now, greet Cliff and Zanoba and I need to ask something from them.

Leaving the avenue paved with magical bricks, we're getting closer to the first principal's bronze statue.

When I see such fortress like school building, I feel a bit emotional.

When I came here for the first time, I was a man suffering from his ED.

"Well then Rudi. We're parting here."

"Yes, Roxy. Cheer up for today too."

"Rudi also -"

"Aa~, look Roxy sensei came with a man today!"

When Roxy said her farewell, a sudden shrill voice could be heard.

Looking around, a group of students just leaving the dormitories, pointed to us.

"Aree~~ ..., isn't he Roxy-sensei's husband?"

"Ee~~, that legendary? Norn-senpai's onii-chan?? "

"I saw him for the first time, but he is surprisingly very cool!"

It looks like I was treated like an ultra rare animal.

However, I'm unexpectedly also an Ikemen. [\[3\]](#)

Fufu.

"....."

Suddenly, Roxy looks at me with eyes full of admiration.

Aa, it's different.

Rather like a child who will be happy with a little praise.

"Excuse me"

And, I've entwined my arms around Roxy's body, hugging her.

And, facing toward the students.

"Kyaa!"

While raising the shrill voice, the students disappeared into the school building.

"That's part of my appeal"

"....."

Roxy says that much, I release my arm quickly.

Her ears are red.

I myself feel a bit wounded, and my tail is wagging.

"W, won't you let me go?"

"....."

There is no reason to not let her go.

I could make any excuse to Roxy. To extend my time with her. [TL : the text is too hard “俺はロキシーのものだしな。自 慢に使える時は使って欲しい。"]

In fact, I only want to feel my little girl breast.

While I think so, I rub my cheek with her.

Nn~~, her cheek is smooth.

"W, What?, suddenly, in a place like this ..."

"G-O-O-D-B-Y-E KISS!"

"A, a, aaaaa, so that's it.....I see. Certainly I will receive it!
Then, Rudi take care! "

Roxy dashing to the staff building, while her right hand and feet moving together.

After parting with her, I run toward the research building.

"What? I was too early"

Arrived at the research building, but Cliff didn't seem to have arrived yet.

The reason is he also has a child, various thing certainly happened.

By the way, when she gave birth to a child, Elinalise unceremoniously dropped out from the magic university.

Originally her purpose for entering Magic University is, to do a man hunt.

Once she found a man and had a baby, she kissed goodbye to the school life.

Many frowned upon her for that, using the sacred school for something like that.

I respect Elinalise in that regard.

Let's see, now I have some free time.

I can go to Zanoba's place first, but.....

If that diligent Cliff didn't hear it first, he will be annoyed later.

U~m, let's go to Zanoba's place this afternoon.

I feel bad for Zanoba for always making sudden appearances at his place.

Let's go as planned, and meet in the order of the Cliff → Zanoba for today.

While I think like that, I see a parade around this area.

Walking on the road with remaining snow, they assemble themselves in the schoolyard.

Having nothing to do I approach them, the principal giving his speech on the stage.

"----But, magic is different, it has unlimited potential!

Regaining the lost magic, combination procedure of modern style chant, Everyone of you has the possibility of new evolution ---- "

I think I already heard that speech somewhere.

I try to remember, where I heard that speech before.

My entrance ceremony.

So~, it's already that season.

Now, what was my grade.

Fifth grade No, sixth grade.

I only attended the lessons at first and second years here, but I would like to attend to my graduation ceremony.

Sylphy also dropped out from school afterward, since it's not that important anymore.

Aa~, if I was already in my sixth year, then Silent Sevenstar senpai must be already graduated.

That girl, I wonder if she came to the graduation ceremony?

Most likely not.

I got the feeling that these few years, Nanahoshi got her hands full with learning summoning magic.

Now, she seldom asks for my help.

By the way, she receives great help from Perugius. Or else it's still not in experimental stage yet.

Well, it seems that she only enrolled because of this school facility, and now it look like that didn't matter to her.

Possibly, I guess she only wants to attend graduation ceremony at the original world.

Anyway, I still feel a little anxiety toward Nanahoshi.

My future self said that she reached her end.

Let's look at her condition when I have some free time.

Bringing onigiri and potato chips.

"Now, is the speech from the new student council president."

When I thinking such things, I'm unaware that principal speech already over.

He returned to teaching staff's sitting place behind the podium.

And there I see Roxy sitting in the middle of the teaching staff.

Aaa~, Roxy sitting straight as a teacher.

Must be nice.....

Among these freshman I want to say "Did you see that beautiful blue haired girl? She is my wife" proudly.

How's that?, looks prideful right.

" ---chan rea..... "

"That magic university specialty is-- "

"Hey that little girl there, she is already an adult right? "

"I guess she is still doesn't know men"

When the principal speech ended, the freshman began to buzz.

I puzzled about that.

When I look toward the podium, Norn standing there.

Together with her is tall demon-race girl, and accompanied by youthful brawny beast-man.

She is standing in the middle.

"Everyone, this year's chosen student council president is fifth year student, Norn Greyrat "

Norn is student council president.

This is the first time I heard about that.

I heard that she was a student council member.

I wonder if they elected her in these last few months.

"Though we think it's still too soon, but we decided to do it "

When Norn started her speech, the buzzing student didn't stop yet.

It looks like Norn isn't charismatic enough to stop the freshman chattering, like Ariel.

It can't be helped, I will use magic to silence them.

And, suddenly I noticed that among the guys around me. There were the guys giving such lukewarm look toward Norn.

They look familiar.

If I'm not mistaken, they're those bodyguards, [Fan Club] fellows.

What is this guy doing, among the freshman.....

"BE QUIEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEET!"

The next moment.

The young brawny beast on the stage, giving out a thundering roar.

That voice silenced the freshman in an instant, only a few small voices remaining around.

"Thank you Gilbert "

"Yes"

Norn said her thanks to the beast youth, then continued her speech.

"Everyone that assembled here from all over the world.

Among them, I guess there is one whose way of living is unusual from other don't you agree?

But here, where everyone becomes a student, is the magic university.

Now in this place, you become students in the magic university. You must abide the rules here! " [\[4\]](#)

That speech, I thought I already heard it somewhere.

Things about school rules and regulation, learning different things. And knowing about common sense.

It's what Ariel said at my entrance ceremony.

Apparently, the themes for student council president speech is already determined in this school.

"-----more than that. Everyone I wish you a good quality of school life "

Norn quickly bows her head. Then walks down from the stage.

Her figure of walking is full of dignity-----ah, there was a scene.

Soon, Norn's foot slipped from the stairs, and she fell down to the ground.

Kusukusu, I could hear laughing voices from the surrounding now she is famous.

a---a---, just little while ago, she is recognized as a cool student council president.....

And, that's what I thought, but somehow the lukewarm gaze around me has increased.

For example, the SS guys wearing satisfied looks on their face.

Fans of clumsy type girl certainly exist in this world.

But, student council president from the fifth year.....

Norn's definitely doing her best.

Your brother is proud of you.

Paul's soul looking from the grass field behind, taken that big moment of Norn with his tripod camera.

I'm filled with an unexplainable feeling.

Doing her study, practicing swordsmanship, doing her best in student council works.

Good luck, Norn!

All right!, I also must do my best.

Keep doing my best even after this, protect my family from Hitogami!

"Hmph, so that's the rumored Norn Greyrat, C.....no, it's B if the expectation value is included "

And immediately, the voice killing my excitement could be heard from my side.

What this guy just said.

Looking at him, a Bishounen is standing there.

It seems he's about 15 years old.

Blonde haired Elf.....

Amazing Ikemen sighted. [\[5\]](#)

Mou~, Ariel is normal.

But this Ikemen face is like radiating some kind of light which prevents us from looking at him directly.

U~n, No.

Certainly this guy's face, proud of himself.

If only in appearance level, he has overwhelmed the greatest Ikemen from Greyrat family, Luke.

That's for certain.

If this guy rank is S, Luke is A, Norn is around B.

"So much for what I hoped from the top of this school....she's only that level"

But, even if that's the truth, such comments must know the right time and place.

I really feel that you're an Ikemen, but limited to general population in this world.

Did you know, that all the scary seniors over there are staring at this place.

They're people who think that Norn is the best in the world.

Ah, look out! Those guys really came here.

From where that guys hid themselves, three guys sighted.

Chatting while glancing at me.

"Senpai, that guy is serious "

"Serious? About Norn-chan? Really? "

"Really serious"

That kind of conversation could be heard.

No, just now it's just my own dubbing.

He's a freshman ikemen, and I dislike bullying.

But, SS (Them), I do not think they will like it if they hear what you just said.

Look!, They're watching me "Please no finishing blow for me, I'm already somewhat feel more superior....." while looking towards me.

They're cruelly looking at place like roof among other thing?
[TL : 屋上とか連れて行かれてひどい目に会っちゃうよ? ---too hard for my level now]

"Is this, that older brother guy, Rudeus person acquaintance

Well, I do not deny for that matter.

I also know about Rudeus hard faction.

But let me clarify.

You can't win against me.

And, when I saw the guy, our eyes met.

"You really think so?"

That fellow looking at me me, asking for my approval.

Ee? I'm behaving like...?

"... Well, u~n, well, Rudeus himself, is great person, I wonder? But, Norn- chan also does try her best right? "

"Hatsu"

Puzzled about their reply, he laughed at them.

"Aaa, I'm sorry. Humans in this town, everyone scared of Rudeus.

But I desire peace of mind.

My name is Raifold.

From elven village Magnafold, and I'm son of its village chief.

I don't have any reason for clashing with Rudeus."

Aa~, thank you very much for your polite attitude.

But, in such a situation it's a bit hard to introduce myself.

How about this. For the time being let's introduce myself as Ruud Ronma.

"Both of us, we go to different courses with that Norn.

In these last several years, there is only one addition to special student.

I wonder if you're trained as a preparation to become village chief of Elven village? "

Oh.

I see, same as Rinia and Purusena.

Coming from a faraway land, they come all the way here to study human society.

"Certainly I will stand at the top of this school.

Even that Norn girl, will become my woman "

No, that's something I can't let you to do.

No matter how hard your circumstance, I won't let you get Norn for such a reason.

This Onii-san won't permit it.

"Good, you have that good look in your eyes, come with me

"Ha?"

Possibly, just now I'm speaking like I'm recruiting him to become my underling.

Now come to think of, I didn't have underlings.

But, somehow I could feel some eyes watching our direction with envying looks.

Before he made some kind of action opposing Norn's power.

..... This situation, as her brother, what should I do?

As he isn't hostile toward Norn now, somehow it looks like I must do something right now.

Furthermore giving too much help is unnecessary.

Seems like I'm being overprotective.

Probably Norn herself is already in proper position in this school.

Though it seems Raifold is a chief candidate, but he didn't have any political power in this country

For example assuming of Norn's helper, there are the Bodyguard [Fanclub] guys ready for that.

Let me handle my business alone okay, such a feeling.

What should I do.

"Leave that guy alone "

Then, there is a presence that gives some voice to us.

Somebody help put an end to this!

With some hope in my chest I look back, I thought I will see the speaker's face.

"My name is Mii-Nall, son of village chief of Bii-nall village. A dwarven village."

Who is this guy?

It looks like he is also a freshman.

His attitude is so high, but his height is only half of us.

However, no matter how you look, his face is that of an adult, there is some stock of moustache.

Watching that it's seems like he is from Dwarf race.

"How naive of you thinking that there is only one special student...?"

Don't make me laugh.

I also, am special students of this term? "

Ah, that part is something that can't be said.

Looking down at that dwarf face, Raifold face turned into a surprised one.

"Oh, isn't that Mii...! "

" Long time no see, Rai"

Apparently, they seem to know each other.

Looks like the elven village and dwarven village are close to each other.

So even their village chief son are also acquainted.

"Well, so this year's special students are the two of us?"

"Nope, that's also wrong"

Laughing in a unique way, maybe Mii-Nal lineage has a unique way to laugh, there is someone hiding himself behind his shadow.

A small boy with the same size as Mii-nal, dwarf race?

His family ... no, that child is different.

He is probably from human race, a youth from human race.

His age is about seven.

His face is familiar with someonefrom Asura lineage.

"Hey, introduce yourself."

The boy introduced his name with a trembling voice.

"My, my name is, Grannel.

Grannel-Zafin-Asura.

I'm the second son of Asura Kingdom first prince Grabell-Zafin Asura "

I was perplexed.

Grabell's son.

This boy ...?

What is the true reason to come here?

I wonder is it for revenge. For that incident in Asura Kingdom?

Or, to do assassinating mission this late?

With such a small kid?

"That, father lost in the political game, we are in dangerous situation..... "

Oh!

I got it.

Grabell, in some chance that Ariel would assassinate his sons, he let them escape.

Hey come to think of it, the second son, I wonder if his eldest son is in another country?

..... No, it's different.

This country, Ranoa Kingdom is full of Ariel's supporters.

Yet he sent to this country, he might be some kind of hostage for Ariel.

Didn't care about the consequences, but in this world, it looks like there is a custom for sons to greet people while saying their father's name.

"I see, we are alike. People from various place chased from their village for some reason, and now we three meet each other in this place "

"I don't have any particular reason to get chased-out.....Because I am only third in inheritance, resolutely....."

"Okay, it's good. Everyone has their own circumstances. You must heard some rumor? "

"You too....! "

Ikemen from high-elf race

Entwined his arms around Mii-nal and Grannel shoulder.

"Ma~, fellow special student, help each other.

If we join our power, becoming the top in this University is not a mere dream....right? "

"Oooo~h!"

"Eee~tto, please take care of me"

I don't know what happened, but it looks like the special student freshmen immediately befriended each other during entrance ceremony.

What a beautiful sight.

Well..., just for now I'll forgive him about the matter regarding Norn.

At the entrance of school, everyone wants to make their character.

If you're a second year and muttered that "B Rank" crap, I won't let that slip.

Well, anyway, I want to say do your best.

"Oo, so this is this year's gathering nya! "

Being deeply affected by that sight, someone from outside of the freshman crowd.

Until a few years ago, that is the voice of one of the troublemakers in this school.

Looking that way, making a way for herself through the crowd is a cat-eared girl with one hand in her pocket, come toward us is Rinia.

She become a maid at our home, I wonder why she came?

".....What the, aren't you Rinia senpai?"

"Who?"

"You know, the boss from two years ago"

"..... Some kind of delinquent?"

"Why, you're supposed to be graduated already...?"

Her surroundings are perplexed.

She walked straight to me.

"Hey, boss"

"Oh, what's the matter?"

"I come to deliver Roxy-sama's lunch that she forgot to bring nya! Originally I want to deliver to the office nya, but it looks like she is here nya "

So that's it.

Rather than at lunch time, her speedy action to come here now, must be Aisha's suggestion.

Aa~, Roxy seems to have forgotten to bring her lunch on a regular basis.

By the way, I didn't bring any lunch.

It's not like I didn't want to eat a homemade lunch, but I already planned to eat out with my friends as a way to communicate.

"....."

"....."

Then I noticed, those two freshmen who were talking with high spirits from before, averted their eyes from here and watched their feet.

"Oi, why don't you talk.....feel like returning to the Great Forest? "

"I also want to ask"

"Eh? What? "

To those two guys that spoke in a small voice, only Grannel-san wearing puzzled look on his face.

"Are~e?"

So Rinia noticed them.

These two are from the Great Forest.

And, she raised her hand to them in a friendly manner.

"O~y, Rai, Mii!"

Those two bodies are trembling, they're facing back.

It seems, they're acquainted.

"Hey, did you come here from the Great Forest nya?

Isn't it already about eight years?

Hey I missed you nya, are you healthy nya?

Hey, face to me nya "

It's no good, there is going to be a quarrel.

Aree?, Rinia's eyes, that's the eyes when she is about to fight.

Hey, now that Grannel boy also got scared.

"No, you're mistaking me for someone"

"I, I also didn't know someone with such a name "

"Oh?"

Rinia grabbed those two heads and turned them toward her, saying yakuza-like lines.

Like, it felt that I "just a minute your loan is not that little " completely like that.

"Perhaps, it's fatal thing, to carelessly leave nya? 8 years had passed. I see, your memory need to get renewed, be pre..... "

So, somehow I understand the relationship of this three.

Pursena and Rinia are the bully, those two are their henchman.

Even if she herself is a slave now, this girl has strange sense of a boss.

"N, no, there is no way it's true.....! since I heard someone who leave the large forest will become someone else surely "[\[6\]](#)

"Pu, Pursena-san and Rinia-san have become really beautiful. For a moment I think you're someone else....., like that, please forgive our rudeness.... "

Well, slowly, they're self destructing.

The surrounding freshmen, become frightened and watch from some distance.

New students, it's hard if you think it's a scary school that has been dominated by our school violence.

Roxy's alma mater, our Magic University.

Going to University as the opportunity for practicing magic, it's a glorious place.

So, I decided to give a little help for the cute freshman from the evil clutch of their delinquent senpai.

"Hey, what's going here!"

"..... What?"

"Eh, ... eeeeeeee ..."

Our surroundings suddenly become noisy.

The crowd is split into two.

Someone, walking toward our place.

Soon, that person showed up.

Bright blonde hair inherited from mother, eyes full of motivation.

It's Norn.

Student council president Norn Greyrat.

Following from behind, youth brawny beast-man and demon-race girl.

Looking at the two people behind her, made me remember of Ariel.

OK! Norn.

You made a blunder a little while ago, but now the other party is Rinia.

Now say something, show your dignity as student council president.

Okay, I won't allow Rinia to say anything. This Onii-san will give threatening glares from behind!

"Nii-san!"

When I thought about that.

Norn passed Rinia, she came toward me.

With one's hands on her hips, she came and looked up to me with a pouting expression.

"Why did you mix in the entrance ceremony?"

.....seems like Rinia is neglected.

No, I didn't do anything such as bullying, I hope.

"And, for some reason or another"

"You didn't see my embarrassing moment.....aa~, such embarrassment... "

"Well, un, it was a wonderful speech. Very elegant. Father in heaven-----"

"I didn't want to hear such a thing!"

She was angry at being praised.

I feel a little downhearted.

"Why are you in a place like this? Are you bullying the freshman? "

"What?"

Bullying?

Me ...?

That can't be true.

Looking around, all gaze focused toward Norn and me.

Reliable eyes for Norn, and frightened eyes for me.

That's weird, am I always such a bad guy?

"Say!, what did you do to this child? "

"No, nothing.....just, they're saying a little bad thing about Norn..... "

Such as, let's see B rank.

Un~

....Un~?

"I'm already used to that sort of thing, please stop it! Look they're now scared! "

"N, no, they're scared of Rinia isn't it? "

"Rinia senpai is working for us, so it's definitely nii-san! "

Oh, shit! [\[7\]](#)

So that's how it is.

I failed to see from that point of view.

Me as the leader of the banchou, Rinia is my henchman.

Damn it.

Is it because of my daily conduct?

"I mean, listen Nii-san!"

"What? What is it?"

This nii-san, is almost weeping you know.

More than this, did you want to deliver final blow?

"Some time ago, Roxy-nee said it! Rinia-senpai, became our s, s, slave! What do you want? "

Eh? That?

"Indeed a slave is a slave.

Instead of shouldering her debt, just made her work at our home.

That way, no one loses "

Clearly, Norn's lips are puckering while she frowned.

Really, rather, Rinia please help me!

I don't have any evil intention.

"Norn-chan, what boss said is true nya! He already saved my life nya! "

Rinia while rubbing her hand together approached Norn.

The two freshman showed a relieved look.

Seeing that, Norn also sighed.

"..... So that's it. Well, right. Well, I also hate it if I know Rinia-senpai in such cruel fate, I will certainly also do the same "

She believed me.

"But, Rinia-senpai, you're already graduated. Please stop causing problems in the school!"

"Is that a problem nya? Achichi and I just greeted my acquaintance in the past..... "

"....."

"I know, It's my bad nya! Just a minute become center of attention I ride the way nya "

Norn looked up with a disgruntled look, Rinia scratched her head and bowed down.

Such a pity, maybe she didn't mean to pick a quarrel.

That said, "these two Nya!, I need to give them some spirit" like that, this conversation isn't done yet!

Hearing that, the two freshmen become frightened.

Diverting her eyes from Rinia, Norn faced me again.

"Nii-san, I'm glad that you're trying to protect me, but please don't help me too much. Let me do it on my own. "

"Yes, I will bear that in my mind."

When I lower my head, I could hear raised voices from the surrounding.

"She could make that Rudeus bow his head down!"

"As expected of the student council president"

"Norn-chan so cute"

Is it so rare for me to bow my head down?

My daily occurrence is bowing my head down....

Very well.

In my head Norn's reputation goes up, so I'm fine with it.

"....."

I suddenly noticed, the three freshman remained frozen in their place, watching here.

Norn then notice them.

"Er~m, is that them? "

"Yeah, they're special students."

"Oh, I heard about them. There are three students entering this year."

Norn then cleared her throat.

Then bowing to those three and lifting the end of her skirt, minus leg.

"Nice to meet you, everyone.

I'm the new student council president. My name is Norn Greyrat "

Answering her, is the smallest child of those three.

"Se, second son of A, Asura kingdom first prince, Grannel-Zafin Asura "

"Thank you very much for being so polite.

Grannel-san, though learning in another country sounds scary.

But I think with such upbringing demeanor, you don't have to worry.

If there is something made you anxious, please come to the student council.

More than it came to magic University, upbringing whatever, we student council are a friend of the student.

Upbringing aside, we the student council are an ally to all who come to study here"

Such smooth talk.

As if she already practiced it, Norn's words and movement are elegant, she expresses her gratitude once again.

"Y, yes"

"Well then, enjoy your school life..... "

Norn said her greeting, and left this place.

Grannel saw her, his face is feverish, the escort also said their greeting.

Wait a minute, I didn't see her for a short time only, and Norn grew into a splendid lady.

As I thought, she picked up etiquette class.

Anyway, that incident with the three special student, marked Norn's first act as Student council president [Junior dominating senior].

I also feel rather unpleasant staying in that place, moving away with Rinia.

It would be nice if you put Roxy's lunch on her desk in the staff room.

Though same generation still remained in Magic University, a new wind began to blow.

I was heading toward Cliff's place, and parted with Rinia on the way.

Be warned that the degree of translation error may be higher than usual due to the translation method employed.

Recently, Cliff figure is more known via his eyepatch.

Cliff initial which is carved into his eyepatch is stylish indeed, look like Elinalise is the one who made that.

However, when he wearing it, it made him look more threatening than something wearied for fashion.

He also has less muscle, if recalling about Ghyslaine.

"Ariel's order, son of first prince.....it's likely this will bring more trouble "

When Cliff attended homeroom, it seems those trio is introduced themselves.

He sighed at the thought of the future trouble.

"Since I think he isn't a hostage of Ariel-sama, please get along with him.

Don't be so negative, like he is involved in his father political war "

"I know that. Ma~....at most, be careful so that guy won't going out with your sister "

"Thank you"

While conversing with Cliff we're entering his laboratory.

Elinalise is there.

She is rearing her child.

Elinalise is already live for several hundreds years, I wonder how many children she already has?.

But, Cliff child is especially cute, Clive you're bringing butterfly and flower when reared.

She is also veteran in rearing child, so I'm sure he will grow into splendid child.

"Well, shall we go?"

Carrying 3 wooden box from laboratory, Cliff walking to me.

That's wooden box has 30 centimeters square size on each side.

I'm carrying two of them.

They're so heavy.

"Sorry"

"No, not at all"

Carrying them, we left the research building, and continue our way going out from the school.

"How is Clive health?"

"He is growing up healthily. But still crying at night, it's going to be busy.....made me remember the time in orphanage "

"Cliff-senpai growing-up in orphanage "

"Ah!, In orphanage, there is many abandoned child..... but, as I thought I myself is the only one that special "

"Certainly"

We're going ahead toward city outskirts.

We use horse-drawn carriage since we getting out from university, and that's carriage carried us till the city's gate.

We're sitting side-by-side inside that horse drawn carriage.

"Cliff-senpai is splendid, you will surely become a fine father "

"I can't do anything yet. Rieze is there, so I must look decent at least "

"But, I don't think so, he just born one month ago after all, so it didn't count as not participate in raising children "

"Even raising child, has many form.

In your case, there is your wife and your maid, you could learn from her[maid]. So it's not really that hard."

Cliff with the wooden box on his knee, saying that like he finally understand something.

"As a servant of the god, if I can't watch over my child growth everyday.....it's pathetic"

"If you say so father Cliff, then that child will definitely saved "

"Ah!, now I want to go back and have some confession.....also "

Unawares of it, Cliff already successfully passed the test to become father in Millis religion.

It's not formal yet, and yet he still could working the church due to his status.

He didn't only do his research.

Then, as I though, he still though about it, returning to his hometown.

This year, is my sixth year, Cliff is in his seventh year.

My senpai, will have graduated next year.

"Cliff-senpai, what do you want to do after graduating? "

".....I Don't know. Since I didn't contact my grand father yet. But, I think once I got back. I will tell him that I already married and have a child "

"I will miss you"

At that time, I will following Orsted advice.

To the battlefield against Hitogami.

I don't have plan to convince Cliff, in the first place I never heard Cliff circumstance.

"That's still one year later"

"You're right"

While we're talking about such thing, the carriage arrived at the Shari'a southern gate.

Paid the money for the coach, we're continuing on foot from here.

Getting out from the gate, heading toward southeast.

After a while, the main office of our company came into sight.

As a building at the outskirts, it's considerably big.

It's surrounded by fence so there won't be trespasser.

"But, after sometimes I noticed, that time, you're lied to me after all "

"Yes, no matter what you won't believe me, because of the curse. "

"I won't blame you, with that kind of powerful curse. Even now.....look!, I'm still trembling."

Having such conversation, we're Moving to the front door of our office.

There is a words "Staff Only" written on the door.

I pick the key from my breast pocket and unlock the door.

Although I said pick, but I actually didn't use it.

Leaving that place, we're going to the inner part of the room.

"Ugh"

The instant the door opened, Cliff shivered.

Glancing over here, using luxurious wood desk in the room, Orsted writing something.

His grim face is same as ever

"Hm. Cliff Grimol "

"Oh, oh, yeah. ...'s Cliff Gurimoru"

"a, Ah!, yes. It's Cliff Grimol..... "

"Must be difficult for everytime"

"..... What do you mean?"

Somehow in this way, it's fine as it is.

Granting my request to meet Orsted, it means so much for me.

"Orsted-sama. Let's start this quickly, there is three today."

"Ah"

Cliff and I Placing the wooden box on the desk.

Opening one of them, Orsted taking the contain.

The box content is a full face helmet.

Other box contain also same.

Only, their color is different. It's has three color now by order is black, brown and gray.

"Please, wear them"

"....."

Orsted didn't say anything, pushing his head inside, he now wear the helmet.

Only wearing helmet without armor, he is giving the impression of suspicious person.

In my eyes, he is getting more scary....

"Cliff senpai, how about you?"

"...it's no good, it's even worse than before."

"Well the, next one"

And, Orsted wearing those three helmet in order.

Looking at Clif reaction for each one, I confirmed it's effect.

After it's done, we're hearing Cliff opinion.

"As I though after taking this three in turn, 1 flack form of magical conversion is still lacking, it appear to be backfired.

Hey come to think of it, the magical power of that curse itself is very high "

"It's magical power.....? "

"Aaa, Orsted...sama magical power that I saw, when the curse invoked how does it feel? "[TL : ??? ああ、オルステッド.....様の魔力を視界にいれた途端、呪いが発動する感じ だと思う]

"Well, covering my whole body with some anti-magic material?"

"By putting you inside a box without a single crack, that way the curse won't be invoked, but that didn't solve anything "

"It is as you said"

This is what we're trying to do, research about Orsted curse.

This one year, he is doing some experiment with Elinalise curse research as the basis.

Then, it was found that the core of Orsted curse is actually in his head.

So, thus covering it with helmet type tools, Cliff is very determined in this subject, to test the limit of his Anti-curse tools effective.

Once, there is some results.

Currently, the latest version of Anti-curse helmet, Orsted curse is weakened a bit.

It was only small effect.

Even with this helmet on, children begin to cry when he is walking in the town, stray dogs get scared and run away immediately, and Horse-drawn carriage slipped.

However, Ellis and Sylphy attitude when facing Orsted is softened, well that's enough for now.

You might say, it's changed from "He is the enemy by the parents" to "Evil Boss" it seems the degree of change is different, as for the Result, the females somehow could judge it more clearly.

Lucky me, Orsted curse didn't work to me at all.

Cliff, in the middle of his research about Orsted, he is thinking the reason I lied to him.

It's an important step.

Now, I feel a little complicated feeling, I will managed it for the time being one way or another.

Although, it's still long way to go.

At present the helmet size is about twice as big as Orsted head.

There isn't any ventilation for the air to enter, It didn't have eye visor before, can't hear voice, can't speak.

It is not a thing that can be wore for a long time.

Really, long way to go.

Though, Cliff succeeded in creating it in one year, that's isn't just fluke it's the work of genius.

As it is the research is progressing, Orsted could walk near the town gate.

As for Cliff, he is satisfied with the result of the curse on another person to develop anti-curse tool for Elinalise.

It's regrettable that he must return to the research of Erinazire curse, when Elinalise stopped rearing her baby.

But worry not.

He just need to quickly make his second child.

"Well then, the next one is also one month later. "

"Ah, no need to hurry, Cliff Grimol. To think, that you had such talent"

"Eh!? a aa, tha, that's right!. Since I'm a genius "

To the result of Cliff research, Orsted could only astonished.

Apparently in his long loop there is the time when he is trying to do something about his curse.

But, even after several hundred years of research it didn't bear a fruit at all. It seems he given up in the middle of it.

During his 200 years, there is no other person succeeded in the research of his curse except for Cliff.

But, isn't that person is Orsted friend so you has friends.

However, the results came out.

Next target is, one way or another Cliff research study regarding curse is included in Orsted plan.

Heck, I wonder if I have to join him walking around.

Before, it was walking around this office surrounding area.....

"Rudeus"

And, when I thought about it, Orsted call me.

Cliff, already moved to the outside of the office.

Because the curse is worked, he want to get away from Orsted as soon as possible.

Even if he is already know about the curse, his body reacting differently.

It was like the case between human and cockroach, even if cockroach didn't have any power to kill human, they're still freaked out when they meet it.

".....It was helpful"

Saying his gratitude, damn it!.

Nmo~, president-san, you're skilfully using your voice.

Alright!, once the anti-curse tool is completed, you could enjoy windows shopping alone.

Going to date with Orsted.

Well I can't really said it's enjoyable to us.

"No, my family is still opposing my decision, it's also painful for me, Orsted-sama who move freely, Hitogami hate me, I'm leaving on my own "

"That's right"

When Orsted-sama curse is healed, Orsted will become one of the largest company in the world.

While considering such thing, I leave the office.

Parting with Orsted, I'm going on my way to the back of the office, entering the arsenal.

From there, I take out the Mashirubeyoroi. [TL : 魔導鎧 ---
Demon Controlled Armor]

Small sized Mashirubeyoroi.

It's black armor divided into several parts, Arms part, Legs parts, and Body parts.

It look very light weighted in the first glance, but because it is the one that I made with my earth magic, it has massive weight.

For that reason, the only way to carry it is by wearing it and channeling magical power in it.

"Cliff-senpai, thank you for waiting"

"Ah, then let's go "

Together with Cliff we're going back to the university.

Next is Zanoba.

Must walking again for the second time, I has no choice, since likely a trouble will occur if Orsted entering the university.

"Cliff-senpai, did you already has a lunch? "

"Now you said it.....I will go back to my room, I will go to cafeteria first. You invite Zanoba, let's have a lunch together "

"OK"

Placing the helmet, Cliff quickly going back to his laboratory.

As he said, I'm going straight to Zanoba laboratory.

When I want to open the door, my movement stopped.

Before, when I casually opening this door, I saw interesting scene where Zanoba worshiped his own sex appeal.

Our situation at that time is awkward each other.

I'm a man who reflecting on his wrong doing.

Before entering the room, it's necessary to always knock the door first.

I knocked the door.

"Knock, hello! "

"Oh, master! Nice timing! come in."

There was a reply immediately.

After I already get confirmation, I open the door.

There, a 30 years old geek stand.....

also about 10 years old naked girl.

The little girl pressing her stomach and her face is contorted and about to cry.

From between her feet, flowing a line of blood.

Ah!, this, is scene of the crime.

"Zanoba.....you.....to reach your hand to Julie..... "

"You even could said joke at this situation! Master, quickly use healing magic to Julie. her blood didn't stop flowing since earlier "

Zanoba voice is desperate.

I wonder if there is some accident happened.

Julie also looking up at me with half crying face.

"Grand master-.....my stomach is painful. Please help me....."

I'm not a doctor.....while I though something like that, I'm looking at Julie body.

There is no wounds.

If it becomes like this, internal wound.

Blood is flowing from between her crotch.

It's Fishy.

This, maybe....no, it must be that!

"Probably, I guess it's menses. Let's just call Ginger-san."

"Ee! A~h! So it's menses! Which remind me that Julie is a girl! Really, how could I forget about such fact!"

"Master?"

Looking at Zanoba laughing himself, Julie has anxious look.

Julie is 9 years old, or 10-year-old?

But for her first menstruation to come so early, is that also the trait of dwarf race.

Or, is there some error in her age when we bought her?

You might say, any of those two.

"So, before going to lunch. Julie, you can take a break. Before Ginger return, is it alright to leave you alone? "

".....it's scary. Master please take me along "

"Hmm "

My goodness, Zanoan, you're so popular.

Hateful guy.

"Well, that's nice idea. I'll buy something to eat "

Julie, already become an adult.

Adult, wait a minute, come to think of it, lately her magical power stopped growing.

Soon, our plan will put into action.

An hour later, Zanoan laboratory.

After that, meet up with Cliff, we come back after we bought lunch.

Currently, I'm facing three people while eat our lunch.

On the side, Ginger looking after Julie.

That person, rather than a knight she is more like a maid.

"Master, about Mashirubeyoroi performance, how is it? "

"It was not bad, It could receive demons attack.

But, as I thought, I still fear some insecure about it's ability.

It's fine with demon, but it will get tough if the opponent is a swordsman "

"Defense power, resilience, and mobility.....because we sacrifices all "

"But, to reach the prototype level, size is required..... "

This one and a half years, Mashirubeyoroi has changed version in quite number.

At first beginning with completing Mashirubeyoroi <set> , then thinking about downsizing it while keeping it's performance as it is, this is where the hard part is.

In the first place, that thing is a collection of the best technology at that time, and added with Hitogami Mysterious technique which taught by Hitogami to me.

Even after "Complete Revision", still not small enough. Or it could become smaller by one size, but that will make it ability fall, this result is not too significance at all.

Then, finally after repeated trial and error, thoroughly studying the Body part magic formula.

Concentrating on both feet part magic formula, wrapping it's principle then change it's form.

This, miniaturization, reduce the consumption of magical power significantly(however, it's still on the level where only I could using it).

Completion of Arm parts and Legs part [V2].

But, [V2] power has some limitation.

At any rate, the thing about magical power flowing through the body part, it's fully need my magical power to move, one hand or one feet from it's original location.

So, with this kind of inefficiency magical power consumption, it only could show performance about the average level of advanced swordsman at it best.

So, by breaking it's limbs we're inserting auxiliary magical formula and it's also installed in the body part.

Now, it's become [V2 Revise] which has average performance of [Saint] class swordsman.

The ideal power efficiency version that I envisioned.....is still far.

The ideals is, always far away, and not always what the world society would like.

"Well, it seems we got no choice but continue improving with there would be no choice but to continue to improve while using this"

"You're right"

Cliff also give his consent.

Anyway, he has a task to complete the equipment for each body member.

"Then, master, I wonder how about gatling gun barrel?"

"That is too overpower, so I limiting the use of it..... "

Somehow or another I'm always thinking of developing new weapons.

Roxy acquaintance manufacturing, The Gatling Gun.

Following Orsted advice, we made a small change, it could fired 10 rock shell at the same time.

Something like....Finger-Fu○aboms, or commonly called Shotgun.

This is for counter measure against God of water style.

Orsted said, that God of Water style parrying the magic itself.

So, with a little variation in timing, my shotgun which could fired off bullet simultaneously is the best counter for it.

It's useless when facing [King] class of God water style or above it, with exception of it's firing range it's hard to call it useless thing, it's a very user-friendly weapon.

I'm work hard in various ways, but cannot become strong suddenly in the middle of growth period.

Practicing magic, body tampering training.

Training to use my head more often.

Recently only small fish come for me, when will the strong enemy appear.

I need history of killing, like killing enemy in oneshot.

"Come to think of it Zanoba, how is your automatic doll doll research progress?"

"Ah, it's over there I temporary abandoned it, because research to protect master life is more important "

"AH!,.....I'm sorry for causing you such trouble"

"Ha ha ha, Mashirubeyoroi research is also fun. There is no need to apologize. Rather I feel gratitude included in this "

So to say by Zanoba, But to say so, while hitting Mashirubeyoroi.

I wonder if that what he really feel.

"Come to think of it Zanoba, now that Julie become an adult, I wonder if we can start selling the dolls and the book by now? "

"Hmm"

Dolls and picture book.

Once, the first step has been completed.

While I'm not here Zanoba secretly bought paint, and made the finishing touch to the product.

Well, few of Ruijerudo hair color is light, his spear color is cream, come to think of it his skin color is also too bright, well that's only trivial problem.

That in case, the painting is a supplement to know more about Superudo race.

Norn keep one on her bedside, Roxy screamed when she see it the first thing in the morning, she then shut herself in her room and ignoring me.

Regarding what happen to the picture book.

Wow, Zanoba is the one who draw it.

It's not soft enough to be the liking of the childs, it's hard to reach that degree.

The mass production is already printed, it's colored manually by hands.

I'm overwhelmed with feeling of handmade goods, in this world it's roughly all like that, so there is no bad feeling.

Finally, with by adding table of character at the end of each book it's not only story book, but also double as learning book.

in case it's become text book, with consideration of it's early disposal.

Doll and book, two in one, in every work that I save someone, I never forget to give it to that person.

It's good to keep at it....earnestly.

"It is difficult"

However, Zanoba showing his pessimism.

"..... is it about money?"

"No, I didn't have to worry about the fund. Because Ariel-hime giving her aid to us. Also Personal workshop in Asura kingdom is available, to produce it. However, Where I'm concerned is whether or not we has connection to the merchants "

"Oh"

Oh yeah, I did not think about the people who will sell it.

Originally, I'm thinking of starting my own shop.

However,I can't do that with my current situation.

Rather than a salesman ..., a shopkeeper is more necessary.

That guy must have business inciting.....

I don't have such acquaintance.

I really didn't know what to do.

"Can you get Ariel to introduce us to her connection? "

"Her highness Ariel is very busy lately, because her day of coronation is drawing near. We didn't need to increase her problem "

"Only giving a loan won't make it interesting "

Let's put this on hold, for now.

Well, there is no need to rushing.

Julie didn't become adult yet, it's not too late starting from now.

U~n, it's look like.

"Zanoba, did you thing it's possible to teach ABC about business to Julie for five years from now?"

"It is possible ... but, Juli is the doll maker isn't it?. isn't it better to entrust another person for selling the goods? Or bought another slave to be entrusted with the matter of selling it "

Another slave huh.

Interested in business, reading and writing, also arithmetic.

While you're at it, also must have good face.

A popular person, might be good.

Such slave is.....U~n, having some knowledge for.....there isn't!

Getting caught in a fraud inside the shop is a no no, so a certain enslaved cat is the last one I want to entrust this to.

It might be nice to bought a new slave.

"U~n.....as I though, more reliable plan is putting this into a knowledgeable person is the most sensible plan "

"That's right"

You're right.

For this side, let's perfecting our plan from now on.

Rushing the matter will only result in a blunder.

From now on, let's planning this carefully.

For about 10 years, let's do this slowly.

"Well then, let's focus on this matter for now.....The Mashirubeyoroi improvement "

"Yes master, by the way, I already has a concept for the next version not too mention about some flashy plan"

Then.

Along with finished lunch, our research meeting also come to end.

As for Mashirubeyoroi, it's performance has improved slightly.

In the evening, dropping by the staff room, I greet vice principal Genus.

Getting angry with his unfinished work pointing Roxy to help him, forced to stand in the hallway.

When I feel downhearted, Norn come to return the key to the student council office.

Well then, after a long time, I'm going back home together with Norn and Roxy.

"Norn, did you understand the point of today lesson? "

"Yes, it is all right. Roxy-nee. As usual, your lesson is easy to understand "

Right next to me, Norns and Roxy is talking happily.

Unknown to me, these two is getting along very well.

There isn't trace of their awkward relationship from before.

"I will be careful from now, but if you has some difficulty please say it "

"When that time come, please give me a private lesson "

"Fufu, my private lesson is expensive you know "

It's lively. Listening to the conversation of these two, I comfortably going back to home.

"Tadaima"

" Welcome back, everyone"

"....."

Coming out to the entrance way, Zenith and Lilya who is weeding in the garden greet us.

Zenith, it seems there is no change in Zenith yet.

In good way, or bad way, she is in equilibrium state.

Of course, her memory isn't return yet.

The method to cure her isn't found yet, I got my hand full with working and visiting several place.

Recently, Sylphy and Rirya also doing something, but the result is still nil.

"I'm home"

"Welcome back Rudy, Roxy ..., and Norns-chan"

Once entering the house, Sylphy greet us from the inside of the house.

From behind my honey apron, Lucy come walking
"tekoteko".[TL : this is sfx for walking]

And, running dotadota, she's tackling Norn from below.

"Welcome back! Nong-ney!"

"I'm home, Lucy-chan."

Norn accustomed with embracing Lucy, stroke her head.

Lucy is like Norn very much, she is giving full face smile.

However, when our eyes meet. She moved her body and hiding behind Norn.

That, is she hate me that much.....?

"Norns-chan, are you staying at home today?"

"No, but I heard Linia-senpai is staying here, I came to meet her "

"A~.....un, various thing happened. And Rudy ended up helped her "

Sylphy said so, but somehow she is sighed.

What she is sighed for?.

"And, is it going to increase again? "

"U~n, don't know. But, it's just matter of time till Linia fall to Rudy. She is sexy too"

Your comment is like I'm going to get my hand on Linia.

Certainly, I admit that cat princess is a sexy one.

Asking whether or not I want to do a night wrestling with her, of course I want.

But, that is that, this is this.

I has my reason too.

"How about Ellis-neesan? Did she oppose it?"

"This child is mine, I won't hand over to Rudy "

"Ah, so it was like that"

Come to think of it, I didn't see Ellis.

"Sylphy, where is Ellis?"

"Going out with Leo. Even though I already said that she is pregnant, but she won't listen. I also notice that she is doing sword practice during the day. After entering stabilize phase, she always like that..... "

Ellis same as ever.

But, really, at least calm yourself a little.

Ellis is strong, but the children in her stomach is weak.

I also could only sighed.

Really, I wonder if Ellis child will born properly.

I feel anxious.....

"Oh, welcome back!"

That voice, coming from above us.

Looking at there, is Aisha.

"Hey, everyone, look!"

Aisha look delighted, beckoning at the interior of the second floor.

From there come out a woman, wearing same maid uniform as Aisha.

Coming down the stair, she is spin herself one time “Kururi”.

Her hem is slightly raised, a healthy looking calf could be seen.

Then, posing like a gravure idol, she place her hands on her hip.

"Nyahaha!"

Nekomimi maid.

"I modified from the one mother gave to me, and come with this clothes. It's cute right?"

Cute indeed.

I could heard admiration breath from the ladies.

Aisha handmade.

She called it hand-to-me, but it look like a new one.

But, the fabric itself? It's Old indeed.

"Be prepared, because there is more work to do from tomorrow onward!"

"Okay, Aisha-senpai, thank you!"

"Start From the dishes!"

on the front is little Aisha, and behind her is tall Linia.

Passing triumphantly from our side, these two girl entering the kitchen.

The sight of Aisha chopping figure is, somewhat strange.

".....who will though that the cheerful Linia-senpai at school is, become a slave in our house "

Norn said it straight out.

Rinia is an idiot after all, so she likely has instantly forgotten her previous predicament.

Then, for the first time the entire family is dining together, entering the bath with Ellis and checking her stomach size.

Lulling Lucy together with Sylphy before the night, after bath teaching magic to Norn and Aisha, and talking with Lilya about Zenith condition.

Before going to bed, intently observed Roxy feeding breast milk to Lara.

Finally, sleep with Sylphy.

It was peaceful day.

From tomorrow, after a while, it's the training day.

gambatte.[TL : cheer-up, pumped-up, let's do my best]

Mushoku Tensei:Web Chapter 194

Preview - Baka-Tsuki

Be warned that the degree of translation error may be higher than usual due to the translation method employed.

10 days have passed since then.

In that time I'm staying at the office, training from morning till night.

If Orsted is there, from morning is training my physical strength, mock battle at noon, lessons in the office at night, cleaning the office and sorting all the documents before going to sleep, keep repeating that cycle.

The day when Orsted is not here, usually I'm training alone.
[TL : sorry for editor, but please help me change Orusuteddo into Orsted in my translation file, オルステッド-□Orusuteddo-□Katakana(read in english)□Orsted or Olsted(which one japanese couldn't say, R or L? Depending on that it's one of the two)]

Wearing Mashirubeyoroi, continuously and tirelessly repeating a set of moves that Orsted taught me till exhausted, seeking someone to do co-op training. [TL : basically he one someone to come and do training with him]

Once in a while, Sylphy comes to deliver lunch, at that time I got someone to do co-op training. But, today I'm training alone.

Well then, about this style that taught to me is something that left behind 400 years ago, by the Dragon King Urupen.

Dragon King Urupen. [TL : the original text could means Dragon God or Dragon King, I choose Dragon King since Orsted is already hailed as Dragon God-please change back to Dragon God, because Orsted is the 100th generation Dragon God, per chapter Turning Point 1]

He is what the general public known as one of the "Three Demon Slayer Hero".

Pergius comrades.

According to Orsted, among the generations of Dragon King, he is in fact the one with lowest Magical capacity (- -). [TL : I'm not kidding, the author really give that in original text]

At that time he is treated as the weakest Dragon King, he himself hardly has the qualifications as Dragon King with his low magical power.

Like that he, developed a completely original Dragon King technique on his own.

And with his original technique, he won the Dragon King title, and defeated Demon God Laplace.

Even in this days his name is hailed as the strongest and [The Most Genius Among Dragon Kings], or so what people said.

Dragon King Urupen Style, is a fighting style for defeating an opponent with minimum level of magical power.

Orsted discovered a secret note left behind by Urupen, with that note he successfully learned [Saint Dragon Touki], the Greatest Fighting Style and mastered it to the highest level.

The style that uses little Magical power.

However, that kind of style is necessary for me, by using minimum power to battle the enemies, is a knowledge that I need the most.

Beside, combining magic arts and martial arts[wushu] is a classic form of martial arts, it matches perfectly with me who's wearing Mashirubeyoroi.

Well then, let's research for combination today.

First is Rock Shell.

Direct hit from it will definitely cause injury, even for Orsted.

It has extremely high power.

Rivaling [Sword of Light] from Sword God Style.

Therefore, the combination is usually using this.

After that, it's Quagmire.

Perhaps because I am using it over and over, Quagmire magic is one of the magic with the fastest invocation speed amongst my magic.

With this magic, I will greatly hinder movement of the enemy with high speed and start my offense from that point.

Or Blitz,

It's invoking speed is slightly longer than Quagmire, but this magic is a great magic that could penetrate through the opponents Fighting spirit and paralyze them, a very useful magic.

If the opponent couldn't be hindered by Quagmire, then I usually use Blitz on them such a scene has happened multiple times.

Using this at the start instead of Quagmire is also the most usual way for me.

As for stopping enemy movement, using Heavy fog or Frost Nova, to Destroy the enemy posture.

Then, basically finishing them with Rock Shell.

In other words , it's a combination move, I restrain the enemies movement, and limit what they could do.

By fully utilizing that hands, I usually could create an opening to my opponent that couldn't be parried.

And then using Rock Shell.

By practicing that patterns, combined with the help of my companion, Our victory is almost certain.

The important thing is Routine.[TL : he means getting used to his own move and utilize them in any situation, well kind like You practicing the moves in martial art and repeating those move thousands of time till your body could use it by reflect]

Getting used to my Routine, even if my opponent has the most bizarre movement, I could respond to them without time lag.

Quagmire□My opponent taking an action□countering my opponent's move with magic□My opponent still could respond to my Counter□countering his move again with my magic, keep repeating that till my opponent is cornered, and finish him off with Rock Shell.

Yeah.

It sound simple.

Practically, each swordsman could cut through his path to any magic, the case where a primitive attack hits , such as support magic failed is high.

It's difficult to put in practice.

Which reminds me, about [King] Class level magic or higher, from what Orsted taught me.

Although but too much to bear a result.

After all the point is, [King] class attack magic or higher rank is [Mixing Arrangement of [Saint] Classes Magic for most of the case.

For example , [Emperor] Class water magic " Absolute zero (Absolute Zero)".

This could be achieved by combining [Mizu蒸 (Water Splash)]And [Freezing area (Icicle field)] into [Frost Nova]. And at the same time expanding it's AOE into massive area at the high speed. [TL : Mizu蒸 (Water Splash)□ Mizumusu]

By enveloping massive area with [Mizu蒸 (Water Splash)], then freeze them at high speed, this is the [Emperor] water class magic [Absolute zero (Absolute Zero)].

It's too late to teach me that, I already could do that.[TL : yeah he already do that twice at least in, great forest and abandoned village]

That meant.

I already mastered [Emperor] Class.

For this reason Vaji Gaji said that my Rock Shell [is already in the Realm of Emperor Class Earth Magic].

Usually, in normal way there is no thing such as enhancement in Rock Shell, therefore I bring together the theory in that area.

In short, I who has mastered all four attack magic to the [Saint] Class at least, has already mastered all of the attack magic.

However, [God] Class magic it seems is useless.

To use [God] Class magic vast amount of magical power is needed, along with fine tuning in it's controlling, the use of Long Chant to control the magic effect and a magic format.

But Orsted said that it's power, is so powerful that it could basically change the terrain of the world.[TL : maybe something like Red Dragon Great Hole is the effect of it]

In one of this worlds strange terrain, there is a trace of such magic.

Honestly, I'm still poor at drawing magic format, and it's nice if I don't draw something big for such magic.

Mixing magic, basic training, and it's application.

By utilizing variations of this card, there is no opponent that I couldn't defeat.

Let's take a step at a time by building strength from the basic.

To do that, together.

"Rudeus"

And, when I do my usual magic special training, Orsted is back.

I immediately facing toward Orsted, and bowed to him.

"Welcome back!"

"Ah"

When president come back, bowing ones head is a company employees duty.

While wiping my sweat, I continued to say hello with my waist bent 45 degrees to the front.

Doing this by myself is feel lonely, but I must be patience till Cliff's study on Orstedd curse is finished.

Anyway, when that happens , I could greet the president with many number of employees.

Who will cares even if we're a black company. [TL : maybe he mean illegal company]

"It's work"

At first Orsted said [Don't be so formal], but he is used to that now.

"I will begin the explanation now, departure will be three days from now "

"I respectfully ready to receive the work!"

From Orsted, I personally receive company jobs .

The next tasks have been decided.

"As usual, it is not a really hard job but.....meet your families in this three days"

"Yes, yes!"

So, I decided to return to my house.

"Oh,welcome back boss.....a Danna-sama Nyah! "

Returning to home, a cat eared maid is sitting in front of the entrance door.

What are you doing, this guy.

Is she screw up in something.

"I'm home, Linia. By the way, what are you doing in that place "

"Unya-ha-hajust a little failure, I'm punished to reflecting my self....."

Linia ears is hanging low on her head, look like she is being downhearted.

"I understand"

Let's leave her reflecting herself.

Passing by her side, I'm entering the house.

"I'm Home----!"

There, from behind the door of living room, Lucy face continued to peek towards me.

Ah!, I wonder if she is gonna run again.

And when I think that, she suddenly leaps from behind the door.

And running with "DotaDota", jumping to my legs. [TL ; SFX a baby running]

"Papa! Welcome back!"

I wonder what happened .

With her warm welcoming today.

"Ai~, I'm home Lucy!"

Embracing my leg without changing her position, she is hiding behind me, clinging to my robe.

Somehow or other, her distance toward me is unusually close today.

Papa is happy.

"Mama! Papa is back---!"

"Yeah, I know, wait a second!"

"ma-ma-!"

Sylphy voice could be heard from the bathroom.

Doing laundry, or it seems cleaning the bath while bathing.

Afterwards , Lucy called Sylphy several times, before long she reached her limit, and left my robe, she is running "DotaDota" to the bathroom.

What was it I wonder

Well, don't think too much about it. That's what a child would do.

Usually I always go straight toward Lucy, it's fine if once in a while she comes toward me, let's consider Lucy's feeling.

While I think so, I'm wandering inside the house.

I found a Leo and Lara in the living room.

She is sleeping soundly in peaceful mood.

She is also healthy-looking today.

Continued toward the kitchen, I found Rirya doing preparation for cooking. [TL : Mis-en-Place in cooking language]

Her face looks a bit worn-out.

What happened to her?.

"Rirya-san, I'm home!"

"Welcome back, danna-sama" [TL : Master]

"Are you tired?"

"Nope"

even though she said so, Rirya face really looked tired.

"Why don't you didn't take a rest for a bit?"

"It's not a big deal"

"Really?"

"Yes"

If the person herself said that, then it's okay.

I wonder what's causing her such hardship.

"If your condition today is a bit under the weather please take a rest, don't you want to take a rest for a bit? "

"Thanks for your concern, but this really is not a big problem"

If Rirya said so, then I will believe her.

However, if it's not her body, maybe it was her mental fatigue.

it's the so called anxiety.

"Did something happen?"

"..... it's Just, Ellis-sama going to school"

"Ellis? What she is doing?"

"She said today she is going to teach swordsmanship to Norn-sama....."

Swordsmanship...

Really, a pregnant woman should just sit quietly.

Ellis, whether or not you also want to become a teacher.

Although I'm not really opposing that, but I want you to restrain yourself a bit when you're still pregnant.

That just made me more worried.

"I'm deeply apologize. Me and everyone already trying to stop her, but she ignored that and keep going out..... "

"Ah!, u~n. Thank you very much "

Saying that to a child who won't listen.

Rirya must be tired.

Once, I also experienced that from someone who told strongly to me.....

Furthermore, she only listens to my words.

Uh-huh.

I am also convinced that Ellis, won't listen to Sylphy words, and Aisha's preaching.

"Ah!, come to think of it where is Aisha?"

When she heard that, Riryu answered me with a bitter smile.

"She is in the Backyard"

Following Riryu words, Aisha was on the backyard.

She is sitting on the corner of the garden.

Looking at her, her shoulder are trembling a bit.

It's so rare for Aisha, showing such a feeble state.

I wonder if she is crying.

"Aisha?"

"Ah!, welcome back Onii-chan"

From Aisha's back, a flat reply voice could be heard.

Without looking at her face, I won't know whether she is crying or not.

"Huh"

However, I sighed immediately.

Looking at her, with the shovel in her hand, it looks like she dug a hole in the corner of the garden.

In that hole, something that looks like pottery pieces are buried.

From that pieces, I thought I saw something familiar.

Looking closely, there is also a handle part.

Even that handle part looks familiar.

In the past, Aisha bought a stylish tea cup set with the same handle with her own pocket money.

That tea cup over there, is her Favorited tea cup.

She always uses that whenever she enjoyed tea by herself.

I also remember that I used that cup once.

If I'm not mistaken, that time she look very delightful or [Onii-chan is the only exception] or [an excellent cup to drink tea with Onii-chan is feel different, right?] or something like that.

Honestly, I didn't know what to make it's taste different, but looking at Aisha delightful face, I remember that somehow it's really tasty.

That, Favorited cup is now broken.

"You know, Onii-chan" coming from Aisha, is her unusual low pitch voice.

"... Wha.. what is it?"

This is anger.

For the peaceful Aisha to get angry.

Oh crap, It's look like I did something bad.

Apologize?, what is my fault that I need to apologize for?, It will only be like pouring oil into fire named anger to the other party.

What should I do?, what is the source of her anger?.

And, when I'm troubled, Aisha turned towards me and looking into my eyes then said.

"That cat over there, why you didn't throw her away?"

"What?"

That cat over there?, Which cat I wonder?.

No, maybe, she refer to a cat that doing seiza at the entrance right now.

"A, abandoning her. Slave merchant....no, sell her to Ellis-nee home. If I'm not mistaken, won't that place purchase her with high price? 1500 Asura gold coin, they will only need half a minute to get that much right? "

"Wa.. wait a minute. Calm down. now, sit down first. "

I made chairs with earth magic, and advises Aisha to sit.

Aisha take one piece from the hole, and stood.

She threw that piece, at my feet.

And, I sat on my own chair with a thud.

"That, it's not really that expensive. But, I won't get my hand on that cup anymore.

The person who made it is already dead, and the s t ore is already bankrupt "

".....but, u~n, something with a shape will definitely break one day"

I made a chair again, and made Aisha sit in front of me.

Somehow that made her a little calm.

"I know that. I'm, not that angry about the broken cup "

"Uh Huh"

For now, I have no doubt that Linia is the one that broke that cup.

And, that made Aisha angry.

Even is she said that she didn't angry, I have no doubt that you really feel it.

"But, I think, That cat over there isn't suited to become a maid. She breaks the tableware when she washed them, when she cleaned the mirror she broke it, when she was doing laundry the sheet is full of her fur "

"Didn't anyone made a mistake at first. Though she is like that, Linia is an Ojou-sama from some place " [TL : princess-Ojou]

"I ...!"

Looks like Aisha want to say something with loud voices, but she swallowed her words.

look like it was my mistake, she didn't say her words.

"... before this, when she is sweeping the living room, she poured water on Lara-chan"

"Pouring water on Lara? Te.. tell me the detail?"

"When she is sweeping the high place, she held a bucket in one hand, and dust-cloth in other one. Because of that her balance is crumbled and she fell.....you might say, it would have become a serious matter if I arrived a little late "

That cat, didn't even know how to clean on her own.

Come to think of it, once before, I come to her room, and it's wonderfully messy.

"But isn't that often happen?, if it only that I can't even complain. How about Norn-nee, she is more awful than Linia, she is on the same level"

"Don't compare her with Norn casually"

"Casually? ... No, I'm not going to say bad things about Norns-nee, but, though that cat not particularly has bad memory. But, she always made the same mistake even after I warn her repeatedly"

Aisha keep going on, and I could only sighed.

"That cat, never apologises"

Never apologises.

It's bad.

"Ho~u"

"When she made some blunder, she gave her evil laugh[It's my bad, Nyahahaha, I will be more carefull from now Nya]"

That, for the time being made her apologize.

But, from Linia own will.

But, she must really apologize to the other party.

Made the mood, and when she come inside she could apologize.

"That, not your everyday habit"

"Right?"

If it was me I could forgive her, But Linia boss is Aisha.

There is a place where I won't too much involved in it.

"So, ne~, Onii-chan. Please Onii-chan, won't you throw her out?. I, can't stand working with her anymore "

Aisha being so rare doing as far as badmouthing Linia in her plight.

Probably, she really couldn't stomach this anymore.

Although, some big incident won't likely happened.

Only one case, won't be the trigger.

However, by allowing one-by-one mistake with a smile, that will accumulate, till it reach this point now.

U~n.

But.

"Yes, certainly she is a bit bad, she trying to blend with new environment.

But, now is a tough time for her,

In order to getting used with new environment, she might only acting cheerful.

It, may look she isn't seriously apologize in Aisha eyes.

I mean, didn't it painful to look at someone who make the same mistake as us? "

I think, Linia trying hard herself.

Once, I also was a man who made the same mistake.

But, this probably only the temporary measure.

Hence, she must really reflecting herself.

It can be said, that you can only reflecting yourself when making a big mistake, so you won't repeat it.

At least, when I saw Linia in front of the entrance door she really reflecting herself.

I could feel calm composure from her.

"That was a lie.

that cat never reflecting herself.

Roughly, but even her attitude is very strange.

she is humble toward Roxy-nee, Ellis-nee, and Leo, but she made light of Sylphy-nee... "

Aisha said so, and her lips sharpened.

She is this stubborn.

"What about Sylphy, treat her lightly?"

"Things like, when Ellis-nee being careless. Calling her Fitz once in a while."

Once in time, when they're still in Magic University, they're on bad term.

I mean, Sylphy and Linia in such strange mood.

"That certainly, because Sylphy and Linia knowing each other longer than us "

".....precisely because of that, since Linia come here, this house atmosphere become strange "

The atmosphere, changed.

Certainly, come to think of it, when Roxy or Ellis came, this kind of problem didn't happen.

"Anyway, if Linia made a blunder again, she must apologize.

And is she broke something, it will added to her debt.

Must show more upright attitude if she is really trying to reform herself.

..... personally, I will train her.

That's why, I want you to give her a little more time, How about that? "

"Tsun" [TL : she is pouting while turn her head to the right or left]

Aisha mouth pointed, she turned her face away with closed eyes.

Looking at her showing that attitude, only walking in silent, it's look like she is not that angry anymore.

"Na~, please Aisha. Even if she is like that, she is still your Onii-chan friend "

".....ma~, but just this time I will overlook her for your sake Onii-chan "

After saying that Aisha, suddenly stood and turned herself facing me.

"However Onii-chan. I has very bad feeling, as it is, let's pray that won't happen " after saying that, Aisha went back into the house.

After that, I told Linia.

Linear answer was [Roger Nyah!], nothing can be done about her light tone.

But she better regret in that.....

Incidentally, Roxy coming home together with Ellis, and reprimand her in order for her to not doing strenuous exercise.

Ellis placing her hands on her hips, her lips formed “^”, and said [I understand!].

But that [I understand!], how much she understand of it?.

For the time being, she seems not rampaging while carrying her sword, with her stomach become bigger she also more matured.

But, as I thought it's still worrying.

In order for her to not lose her child, I must rein her tightly.

My child and Ellis, you must hang in there!!.

At the dinner table, perhaps because Aisha is sulking, the mood is more gloomy than usual.

Furthermore, after the dinner finished, Sylphy secretly saying to me [Linia is not fit in this house] which is right on the mark, without feeling sorry.

There is no reason for Sylphy to feel sorry at all, it's her duty to keep the household in check after all.

Still, as Aisha said, it won't be good if I leave this as it is.

Somehow, I must resolve this case before going to work.

Or, I wonder if I must wait a little more to see this.

U~m.

Evening of that day.

Since it's both of them got their day of the moon, I decided to sleep alone.

Honestly, after ten days of holding myself to train myself, I almost reaching my limit.

Well, in this kind of day I could only give up on ecchi act.

Or drown on my own lust.

Or, I simply want to do it.

"Rudeus"

When heading toward my room, Ellis already waiting for me.

Wrapping her arms and opening her legs shoulder width as usual.

Wrapped in negligee her stomach is bulging "pokkori".

Recently, her sleepwear has more warm-looking feeling, but, today Ellis unusually wearing erotic negligee.

It's not good, do something so your stomach won't get chilly. [TL : original text is "いかんよ、お腹が冷えてしま"]

"Let's do it!"

"I refuse"

Children's important.

No sex while pregnant, is the rule of this house.

"But, you want to do it right? I heard, that now is the time of the month for Sylphy and Roxy."

"I'm fine today, I could endure it"

"My dear husband. There is no need to restrain yourself "

Saying so, Ellis grab my hand and forcibly pulled me.

Too strong, I got myself dragged to the bedroom.

Regrettable, if this continue I might really lost myself.

When I entering that mode, there is no brake for me.

It is regrettable.

This is regrettable, to come inside Ellis who is pregnant must do some movement. [TL : too confusing words “いくらエリスが妊娠中も運動をしてるからって、これはいかん。”]

"Sto . . , stop it, Ellis. We can't do that while you're pregnant.

if the long awaited children washed away, Ellis and I will surely regret it.

don't do this, absolutely don't do this" [TL : their child could aborted]

"I know about that. Even I, always care about that "

Though you care, you're going to school, leaving the house to take a stroll with dog.

Well, since it seems the person herself moving her body carefully.

But, errr, my standard is different, I guess it's okay.

I guess I'm overly worrying.

No, no, must made difference between that and this.

"That's why, look!"

Ellis pulled me to the bed side, and flipped the blanket.

"..... Nya, Nyan"

On top of the bed was Linia, lying down.

I think she is wearing one of Ellis negligee, curling her bewitching body.

"If it's not good with me, do it with Linia!"

"Unyaa..... "

Looking at me, Linia face is full with resolution and resignation.

Through the gap of her negligee, the pointed tips of her breast showing.

Her waist constriction is good, moderate amount of muscle, her line of foot also plump.

Her cat eyes shining in the darkness.

Before I feel her eroticism, Ellis look in amazement.

"What is this?"

"So, linia!"

In other words, it seems it's okay for me to embrace Linia.

Ellis?

She who easily get jealous with disgruntled face as I flirting with Sylphy.[TL : one more confusing words “あっさりしているようでいて実は嫉妬深くて、シルフィとイチャついているとムッとした顔をするエリスが?”, anyone who know the meaning feel free to edit this]/[Edit : done]

"Errr, Ellis, this, isn't that unfaithful act? "

"She is slave so it's not cheating. Father and dear grandfather also said so. Moreover, I give a little hand in this, so it won't be a problem!"

Sauros, Philip, come here a minute and seiza!.[TL : sitting straight]

Hilda-san, Hilda-san there, come here and scold them.

This father and his companion here, is telling some weird things to your daughter!

"Oh, Father in large forest, mother..... I.. I'm helpless now, I will become a plaything as a slave..... "

Linia muttered something in low voice, something like prayer.

As I thought, she also disagree.

To get fired.

She really can't do anything, facing with Ellis Selfishness.

"Purusena..... sorry for doing this before you, Nyah!. Achishi, It's my victory Nyah!. You will got more suitable one Nya!. "

Well, as a matter of fact she might not very reluctant doing this.

I guess it's fine if both party agree.

"Linia"

"Nyah ...!"

While calling her my hand reaching to her, Linia body suddenly become rigid with “bikuri” sound.

But, even when her body become rigid she isn't running away.

Turning my hand on her thigh, touching her butt.

It supposedly has supple muscle of predator animal, but unexpectedly it has very soft feeling.

Then turn my other hand on her back, touching her waist, this side also has “mokyumokyu” feeling, it's very charming.

"Si, since it's my first time Nyah, please be gentle Nyah....."

"....."

"Mu~, this silence is frightening nyah.....ufufu~n.
NyaNya~n it's nice sound, just kidding.....Nyaaa! " [TL
: this part is really confusing “む、無言は怖いにゃー..... うっふ ん、ごろにゃあーん、にゃんちて.....ニャああ”]/[Edit : don't know ごろにゃあーん meaning , will edit it next time]

I put power in my arms, and lifted Linia as it is.

Carrying her across the room with princess carry.[TL : Ohimesama dakko]

Moving pass the next room, still carrying her.

Turn the doorknob with my foot, and opening it with a kick.

There, in front of me is the dark and cold hallway.

In that place I, throw away Linia.

"Ginya~!"

Unfortunately she landed by her butt, I grab the door knob.

Closing it from inside, and lock it.

Fu, with this, I got some peace in mind.

Evil vanquished.[TL : Evil just left, but I like this more]

"Wait a minute, boss, isn't your treatment a little cruel!?"

I didn't hear anything.

I don't see anything, there is no Evil cat tempting me.

My chastity was protected.

"Wait a minute Rudeus! What are you doing!?"

Ellis comes from behind, but that's useless.

"Ellis, do not misunderstand, I love to do ecchi things with you, but I won't do anything to that cat "

"Re.. really ...? If, if that's the case then it's fine, but, but, we can't do that before the child is born you know? "

"Aa!, of course" following this.

"Boss, open the door! My.. now my pride as a maiden is breaking Nya! "

TheDoor is knocked in steady pace.

But, no need to worry about that.

Yeah, that thing is irrelevant.

"Boss, please nya-! It's already unpleasant working with Aisha nya! "

When I think so, Linia began to cry.

From Linia statement just now, as I thought those two compatibility is bad.

Though the other day, when Aisha sewed maid uniform for Linia, their compatibility look just fine.....

“Even if at least I become concubine, I want to raise my position Nya~!!

even if only with physical relationship hip is good, Please nya~!.[TL : I need someone to tone this down “体だけの関係でいいから、お願いニャー!”] / [Edit : tone it down]

Really! If there is a chance I got a child and become fourth wife, to consider about my seemingly infinite debt Nya! "

So that's it, she is plotting something like that.

But well, you don't know about that.

Her debt is too much, and it will take so much time to paid.

However, there is no chance that I will treat Linia as a sex slave.

Although it would be lying if I said I didn't want to do erotic things.

Linia, is my friend.

And I want her to remain, as a friend.

Beside, I already has two daughter now, let's say that, if I do it with Linia after the talk this noon, Aisha will angry, and I don't know how I will face Sylphy and Roxy.

If I show unfaithfulness because of some fleeting emotion, it will lead to the crisis of family breakdown.

I must do anything to protect my family.

"Ogya! A~! A~!"

Then, from somewhere in the house, crying sound is resounded.

Apparently, because of Linia voice, it ended up waking the sleeping Lara.

What should I do?, open the door for the time being, and silencing Linia?.

And, while I lost my self in though for a moment, a sound of the door opened was heard.

"Just a minute Linia, what time do you thing is now!, Lucy and Lara couldn't sleep"

"Ginya! Fitz! So.. sorry nyaa, I, I don't have bad intention nya! "

"It's not Fitz! It's Sylphy! Anyway, it's already so late so be quiet!"

"Ye.. yes..."

With Sylphy roar, Linia became quiet.

Tottering sound could be heard somewhere.

Perhaps, she already going back to Ellis room and going to bed.

For a while, the sound of Lara crying could be heard, but she become quiet immediately.

For now, a quiet night return to us.

However, about the poor Linia.

Though half of it could be said as her own mistake, she got in debt, and confined in the house without anyway to paid her debt.

She can't do house work very well, and the head maid Aisha won't take any compromise in that regard, At least she could sold her body to please her master, but get rejected....

By now, she might be weeping on her pillow.

And, an unpleasant feeling if filling this house now.

Aisha sulking, Rirya look tired, Sylphy is shouting after a long time, and Lara is crying.

Possibly, Ellis going to school, already suggested beforehand, as a matter of fact can't read the atmosphere inside the house.

I think it's already part of her behavior, that she can't read the mood in the house.

Anyway, nothing can be done if I don't start it.

Her bad nature, Linia is unaware that she isn't a gang leader anymore.

I won't say she is bad girl for can't read the mood, but.....

As I though, has a huge debt then got sold as a slave, and her price is skyrocketed, no wonder she feel insecure.

..... as the one who bought her, Linia is my responsibility.

One way or another, I must do something for her.

Tomorrow, I'll look for a non-maid jobs for Linia.

Be warned that the degree of translation error may be higher than usual due to the translation method employed.

I can't put Rinia in this house anymore.

The mood in the house has become worse since she came. If her temptation continues, I don't know when my sense of reason is going to lose.

If I succumb to the temptation, it might lead to a dispute in my family, resulting Sylphy running away from home and taking Lucy with her.

If that happens, it will only lead to a bad end like in the diary.

It should be avoided in advance.

That is why I decided to introduce Rinia to new jobs.

Naturally, the idea of her debt being cancelled was discarded first from my thoughts.

There is a line that even our friendship can't surpass.

In society that was called returning the [great cost]. [\[1\]](#)

The reason for that was of course, [\[2\]](#) to increase my standing in the neighborhood.

Well, now about a job for Rinia.....

Honestly, I don't have any idea about what she could do.

She could use magic, so combat is an option.

However, to return something like a debt of 1500 Asura gold coins, that choice is not what comes to mind first.

Foreseeing that, I am also thinking of various ideas.

First, let's ask if she could help in Zanoba or Cliff's research, and get paid for that.

Rinia had excellent results, so maybe there is an area that needed her. That was what I thought at first.

But I quickly changed my mind. With her personality, research isn't something she could do.

Aa~, the steady kind of work isn't suited for Rinia.

Ato (?) , I think it also won't work. It's a foolish act to force Cliff when his child was just born, shamelessly pushing another additional bill to him.

Giving her responsibility to be a merchant that sells Ruijerd dolls.....that so-called idea - was instantly discarded.

I don't want the girl who got herself involved in a huge debt starting her business again.

Become Norn's exclusive maid in Magic University?.

I also considered this idea, but it was also instantly rejected.

Norn will hate it. Perhaps it will end up in a similar result with this.

Become an adventurer and pay her debt?

Or something like that, but being an adventurer isn't as profitable as it sounds.

Rinia didn't qualify as an adventurer, and it needs great cost and a long time to earn a profit - if she didn't die first.

Let me see, those jobs above are no good. None of them could reach 1500 Asura gold coins. I can't help but getting my neck tilted thinking about this.

But let's just assume that all of those [Can't Do]s are only in my imagination.

As a matter of fact, maybe now there is work there that is suitable for her and gives a high salary.

Thinking so, I decided to take Rinia to the school.

Rinia's appearance is that of a maid.

When we entered the school's vicinity, she and I stood out a lot. With a triumphant look, she began to kick around and made the surrounding student scatter.

"Ora! Ora! Bancho is coming nya! Open the path for him nya!" [\[3\]](#)

From others perspective, we're like hoodlums.

"Chi~ssu! Long time no see!" [\[4\]](#)

"Os~su!"

When I thought of stopping her, a beast race man came and greeted her with a happy face. Let's wait for the time being.

It's been two years since Rinia graduated.

Looking at the current student, it looks like there are still many that remember Rinia.

Maybe around this place, I could get some clues from this Senpai.

"Ossu~, Rinia-senpai! Long time no see!"

While I was thinking about that, one guy approached us.

Who is this guy?.

I feel that he was introduced to me in the old days. Around my sophomore year.

I cannot remember his name, but he was the one that lead the students.

"Oh, you, isn't your yell lacking fighting spirit nya? "

"Ossu!"

"All right! Increase the pitch nya!"

"O~O~sssuuuuu!"

Rinia is really bossy.

Even though she's wearing a maid uniform.

Even though she's covered in debt.

"By the way, Rinia-senpai, is this okay?"

"Nn? Is what okay nya? "

"I heard, now you're a joke. From the stories that I heard, you've become an eternal slave to student council president's Aniki " [\[5\]](#)

"You might say nya. Wait a minute, that's not the entire truth nya. But following the strong one is also a teaching of the Beast Tribe nya, so it isn't too bad nya."

Really, for Rinia to answer him with full spirits is contrary to her mood, your Kouhai could only sigh. [\[6\]](#)

"..... Honestly, I feel disappointed."

"To what, nya?"

"Rinia-senpai, before you graduated you were full of spirit, taking the top position of the school before Rudeus or Ariel, but the present Rinia-senpai is.....like a common pet cat, isn't it? "

Rinia was speechless, falling silent for few seconds.

And when I thought she would be angry.....and bare her fangs, "fuu~" she laughed.

"Certainly, Achishi, now I'm fallen. But just wait. Before long nya, the junior will be dominating the senior nya "

"Ge~, so, so it's like that?"

"Really nya. To experience a junior dominating the senior nya, I think it's not bad experiencing this once in a while nya..... "

Looking at Rinia saying that, her Kouhai's eyes are wet with tears.

"Rinia-senpai, as expected! I-my thinking process hasn't reached that level yet!"

"Well, this is where we're different nya! "

Tapping her forehead, Rinia said that proudly.

Then after that, Rinia send her junior off who is looking at her with eyes full of admiration and showered her with tons of praises, while I went to my classroom.

Well, I'm being considerate towards their relationship.

"....."

I'm on the way to the research building.

Along the way, greetings for Rinia came like there's no end to it.

But, after entering the research building, and there are no people anymore, the greetings ceased.

Walking quietly in the school building, Rinia looked around and back.

"Boss, how about the conversation from little while ago nya, about social standing Nya? "

"The conversation a little while ago?"

While the rubbing one's hands together, Rinia looks like a debt collector.

"The conversation about junior dominating senior nya.

That's only talk on the surface, I'm not gonna against boss nya"

"I see."

Because of Rinia's circumstances, she is still at her branching path of life so it could be her true feelings.

Considering some strange lines at her end of word, thus now talking about her public position, I guess what she said some time ago was her true feelings, I even still think that it is till now.

"It's fine for you to aim for more higher position, however, don't overdo your revenge toward your enemy. "

"Of course nya, if you think I lied, you can prove it in the empty classroom ahead, please be gentle nya, ufufufu "

What's with the 'ufufufu'?.

Ah!, Junior dominating senior, perhaps did she means with [I as the top] then [aiming to become direct subordinate of me] did she means that?

Whether or not I'm doing something, to make her into my bride, without asking permission from my beloved trio wives namely Sylphy, Roxy, and Eris.

How Cunning !

This fellow, don't tell me she is an assassin dispatched by Hitogami to destroy my family from inside.

" You, in the last few years, did you meet a guy who is claiming himself as a god in your dreams giving you some revelation?"

"What with that suddenly nya? Revelations in dreams? There is no such thing as long as I remember nya..... "

"For your own good, don't lie"

Though it's weird to say this.

Dragon God's Judgement is to [Kill any suspicious person].

I won't go to that extent though.

"Ye, yesterday's dream, was a dream about the sky splitting open and a lot of fish raining down nya.....before that, eee~~RRR, I don't remember nya..... "

To see such a happy dream.

Surely, one fish is one point so she must want to increase it by collecting 100 fish points.

But, I must be careful with some other meaning in there.

Anyway, for the time being, she isn't Hitogami's apostle.....I think.

And Hitogami, won't use guys like this to weaken me with such situation.

".....Well it's fine then. But, if you saw such dreams talk to me immediately "

"OkaNya!" [\[7\]](#)

While I feel relieved, we're going to Zanoba's place.

"Oh, Shishou Mu~u!" [\[8\]](#)

When I arrived at Zanoba's place, he frowned as soon as he saw Rinia.

"..... O, Long time no see"

"Ou, Zanoba, sorry for not contacting you after I returned nya"

Zanoba was dripping cold sweat, while looking around his room.

"Excuse me, I'm tidying my room a bit, please wait a minute. "

And, looking from that place, one doll after another was put into the box.

Hurriedly.

From an important doll, to the fragile looking doll.

Inside, Julie was coloring a Ruijerd doll,

In the middle of her works, she began to imitate Zanoba and cleaned up the desk and what's around it.

"Hm~, now it's fine. Well then, let's start the talk. "

Zanoba is, pointing to the table a little away from the workplace.

Julie left the desk immediately and she was walking with "totetote" sounds following Zanoba's command.

"Julie, continue the works."

"Yes, master."

Then me, Rinia, and Zanoba sat down.

However, the still restless Zanoba, is calling Ginger [\[9\]](#) in the corner of the room.

"Ginger"

"Yes!"

Zanoba only called her, but she understood that and stood between the table and the workplace.

As if protecting the workplace.

"So, Shishou"

Then, after he is satisfied, Zanoba faced towards me.

"Is there some important matter today?"

While Zanoba warily glanced towards Rinia, he asked me.

He is extremely vigilant.

He didn't said that aloud,

But perhaps, leaving Rinia in this place is a rude request.

I feel bad.

"No, only some trivial matter"

"Hmm"

With this, in what way to make Rinia assisting Zanoba's research.

As expected, no, more that what I expected, their affinity is the worst.

And, it seems the one that caused it was the incident where Rinia broke Zanoba's doll.

Bullying causing one spirits to break.

Though it's not like that in Aisha's case, she is just reaching her limit of patience, when her cup is broken.

Though Zanoba look nonchalant on the surface. But, he will definitely show an unpleasant face if I asked him to make Rinia to assist here.

"By the way Shishou, why did you come with Rinia?

Although I overheard the talk that somehow she became a maid in your house..... "

"Well, various things happened, and now I'm looking for a job for her. "

"Ah!, so, so, It's like that"

Zanoba's eyes swam right and left.

Possibly, it's seems he has some kind of works in his mind, but it looks like he's disagreeing to work with Rinia.

Don't worry.

I will bring her back.

Even so, such as her misdeed in the past it's looks like it still hasn't been resolved.

"Well, that's it. Let's talk about research now."

"Oh, that's right!"

From what I implied from him, Zanoba didn't want to do something for Rinia, Yeah, following that he began to talk happily about Mashirubeyoroi as usual.

I took lunch in the cafeteria.

The surrounding students looked at us with skeptical glances, and in the end many men gathered around Rinia.

"Nyahahaha! Achishi I said something hilarious about Purusena nya. What are you chubby nya.....or that" [\[10\]](#)

"As expected, Rinia-san!"

"That manner of speaking is really Purusena-san, there isn't anything odd in that tone."

Probably before Ariel came, Rinia have some kind of charisma in herself.

Charisma of a delinquent.

She is naturally attracting bad guys[delinquent] from her surroundings.

She naturally use it, although how she act according to her surroundings was also her nature.

Hmm....a job that required to gather people.

Well, for now let's try in Cliff's place.

As it turns out, it was also no good in Cliff's place.

The condition is the same with Zanoba's place. They're aware that someone like Rinia is hard to handle.

I personally didn't want to leave her here.

Well, even if she is helping in Zanoba or Cliff's place, it didn't guarantee that she could return her debt.

Now what I must do to this person?

"Didn't you need someone to help you with your own work?"

When I'm trying to consult my problem to Cliff, that's what his response.

And thus said about my work, going around the world against Hitogami's evil hand, according to where Orsted's evil hand pointed to and doing some arrangement work for him.

But there is a problem with it.

"If she is affected by Orsted-sama's curse, then what is the point of making her do that?"

"Ah!, That curse is, the magical power activates when looking at him directly. Therefore, an interview with Orsted-sama is... "

I see, indeed.....it's a no-no!

"How about making her work in the same office, but without meeting him personally?"

"That's that's likely. Moreover, it's looks like a Beast man race is sensitive to odor, there is some possibility that the curse could also activate with that..... "

Odor, is the curse even affecting the sense of smell?

What is it, wait a minute it's interesting.

"That, could a beast men race smell magic with their nose?"

"Oh, there isn't any proof yet, it's just my hunch about that kind of possibility.....but if we have Rinia, we could confirm it. How about that?"

Getting cursed with the odor.

If it's like that, we must also study how to reduce Orsted's odor.

An animal's sense of smell was several hundreds fold of a human.....the thing is, how much smaller from human till couldn't detected by animal.

If the theory is correct, that's one step further toward anti-curse tool completion, deodorant is necessary.

but to make sure that the deodorant is working, must make sure by coming out.

adding flower aroma, might be act as double barrier for blocking the curse.

Orsted that wearing aromatic helmet Hmm, somehow that very bizarre idea.

"Well then, let's do some small investigation, approaching from that direction "

"Oh, that's right. But, then someone from Adurovia lineage would be nice. Their nose is work better " dog more than cat.

Come to think of it, what if there is Purusena here.

I guess only if she is losing her interest from become Village chief patriarch.

"so it's better sense of smell....but, if that's the case why limited to beastman race?. How about examining various tribe? " in human race and other species, even the color they could recognize is different.

though there is much variation about the so called [People] in this world, but just like there is [Demon eyes that could see the magic particle].

if [This particle is the one that causing the curse] is found while examined from various race.

"...that's right, not only beastman race there is also various demon race, collecting them all is tough "

"isn't it"

there is various race, in Magic city Sharia.

it's because magic university isn't refuse any kind of student.

But, it's not means that all race gathered here all the time.

it's always changing.

such as gathering rare species, verifying one by one, then investigating one by one till the origin of curse is found.

that's very mind-boggling work.

However, research is something like that.

basically, it's quite brute works.

"Anyway, first, let's start from gathering the people "

"so it's come to that, however, I'm not moving around too much, so a job to gather people is something I'm not good at "

Cliff communication skill is very poor.

same with me.

"someone who is popular, someone who has personality that could make many people gathered in his surrounding...."

my line of sight and Cliff, spontaneously looking at Rinia.

even if only delinquent guys, she attracting the people around her.

and, made a place to hanging around[gathering], from there began to gathering people.

only gathering what we need, gathering large number of people, will most likely come out of the hand.

Of course, with that amount, many problem will occurred.

gathering many dangerous existence.

simply by gathering together their spirit will raise in another level, one bad person as example will influence many of the members.

a group without leader is not so different from the mob.

however, once Rinia is tamed, the others will come following her example.

it seems I guess I can't left the leader alone after the people gathered.

"Nya, what is Nya.....?. what the two of you talking about Nya?"

here she is, in one corner of the room spending her free time yawning, and jolted her body in response to our line of sight.

However, what method to use to collect them?.

even when Rinia do nothing people will always gathering around her, must do something other than gathering people.

some reason to gather many people.....as I thought it's Gold[Money].

in the place where money is gathering around, there will be many people there.

some kind of event with money as it's prize.....no, that's will only gather them temporarily.

as I though, doing it in business form is the best way.

assuming that we're doing business, I guess that fund is necessary.

raising the funds from my own money.....somehow I feel like putting the cart before the horse. I guess it's fine to think it as some kind of investment.

ah!

I see.

To gather servants for Orsted, in addition to help assisting my works.

If you think about it, I will be tired if I'm alone.

There must be some kind of support organization, isn't this actually what I need?.

It is not only support.

if by dividing some simple jobs, three people at once, four people at once many person could be saved.

And, by that amount, Orsted's future also less burdened.

Of course, there is also possibility of them being charmed by Hitogami, so the important jobs is handled directly.

But, it's still too fast for Orsted and I to breath a relief yet, manipulating the organization in reverse also possible, Hitogami, also won't just wait in silence as well.

But, what to do when there isn't any work?.

only increasing the amount of meals taken, it's not very interesting.

giving each individual their own job.

Jobs....that only you could do.

as I thought, dispatching typical capable person.....no, Orsted has the money.

forming a typical trading company, investing in talented fellow, various prearranged scheme isn't that also nice.

But, for that Rinia to take the management.

if something happened, it would be nice if someone assisting her jobs.

someone who is more talented.....having some knowledge.

taking this opportunity, let's talk about this matter.

All right.

"Rinia"

"Nyah, what's up Nyas.....? "

"after this, your job is, to collecting people "

"What is to collect nyah?"

"I see, it's more fitting job with her personality, nor merchant or mercenary, everything is good since preliminary works is done now "

"Wha, what is the relationship between this and money Nyah?"

"Leave the funding to me. And, if it's turned out to be success with the money paid to the government. And cut a bit the money paid to the government, that way my investment will be regained "[TL : something like investment to some kind of project, then after the project finished you could regain your investment with some extras]

if the share is not enough, let's consult the situation with Orsted to increase the stocks.

depending o the situation, relying on credit from Ariel might be needed.

"?I, I see nya, what about the place nya?"

"that, It will be prepared right now."

"right now.....that's kinda random, is that really alright nya?"

for Rinia to give such consent, her face isn't that bright too.

Of course, even I didn't expect that this will be going well from the start.

but, if it's only limited to employed some people, maybe the chance to gain profit will be come.

in case we got our hand in some employee who has business acumen, that guys will be in charge of marketing Ruijerd dolls. [TL : Ruijerd Superudia, I prefer to use Lijeld Speldia]

"we don't know whether this will be going well or not till we try right? "

"achishi, but if this didn't go well, please pardon me from increasing my debt nya..... "

I see, Rinia is feeling anxious.

as I thought, the impact of her first failure is huge.

But, honestly even with her income for working for me her whole life won't be enough to cover her debt.

but, if things continuing like that, my family will certainly collapse.

and if it comes to that, I might need to develop time travel magic.

".....In order to not become like that, you must hang in there " look like, Rinia isn't fully convinced yet, but still nodding her head in the end.

"Ugh"

Then, on the way home, we stopping by at real estate agent, doing some review, and purchasing a building to become the office.

it's cabin sized building, and it's location is also not very good.

However, there is a building with roof, so it's a good base for the time being.

it's also has reasonable price.

it's reduced the estimated funds that I predicted.

purchase that place now----and immediately ask Aisha to tidying that place.

"For now, this place is your base[office]"

"understood Nyah"

At this early stage, I want to find a clerk as my replacement to watch over this company.

a staff who could do some paperwork and arranging the office documents.

because of Orsted's curse there is possibility of immediately dismissal, this is disposable business after all.

"here, this is emergency funds for the time being" for the time being, I'm giving Rinia 10 Asura gold coin worth money.

that amount of money is more than enough as fund for starting a business in Ranoa kingdom.

"O, OOOO.....Is, Is handing this much amount to me is really alright Nya? " looking at that amount of money, Rinia's eyes glittering.

There is a saying that casting pearls before swine.

seeing that much amount of money, there isn't any living being that didn't know it's value.

However, if this cat is know the true value of this money, among living beings cats are ephemeral creatures, thus in order for the abundance amount of money for not flowing out like water fountain, I supposed not to hand over this amount of money to her.

under the pretext "It's for Lesson". maybe.

"He, Hehehehe, Boss. Want to entrust this to me Nyah, with this many funds, I won't make mistake Nyah, This time for sure, This time for sure I will definitely success Nyah..... "

Rinia's eyes changed into the dollar mark.

now I truly feel uneasy.

I guess, Passing that much money to this fellow is no good.

I mean, since after this I'm going to do my works for Orsted.

When I came back, suddenly Rinia's debt is doubled, and she is in the basement wearing nothing but rags.

Or, become Eris real pet, wearing choker and getting her love.

"Onii-chan, the cleaning is done "

there she is.

it's Aisha's turn.

"Aisha, I have some request for you"

"..... What?"

so to say, Aisha has a really dissatisfied face, she is looking up at my face. She still has that sulking expression, it's look like the matter of the other day isn't forgiven yet.

"I want you to watch over how Rinia using the company fund. I want you to watch over at how Rinia handle the company money, so for her to didn't incidentally make big mistake, I want you to support her "

".....But, I have works at home "

"no need to do it everyday, just do it once every three days "

"that, why must I do that?"

She is glancing toward Rinia.

It's look like, because of the problem from the other day, Aisha didn't want to work with Rinia.

Looking at er attitude, I really feel uneasy if she saw the bunch that gathering around Rinia.....

Like What?, Like army of insect gathering around Rafflesia.
[TL : one kind of flower in Sumatra island]

Well, it's just Aisha feel reluctant.

She has her own reasons after all.

"Because, I know you're the only one whom I could trust with this kind of job"

"why? Is it because I said that Rinia could become a maid?.

Or, is it because of me that the atmosphere inside the house is bad? "

Aisha with her sulking attitude, glancing at me while she is crouching.

usually Aisha always looking straight into my eyes, but this time she is turning away her eyes. [TL : Aisha Good job]

"that's not it"

"....."

"it is only.....that you, if Rinia is making a mistake, will reprimand her immediately right? "

"but, can I really handle?. I could caused more damage instead..... " from my edge I could see Rinia's weak face, but ignore her for now.

"But, it can be say that, your presence will allow Rinia to make full use of her talent, that is for sure. "

".....u~n, so it's controlling the works, It's seems that is really fitting me."

"In other words, your presence is to prevent her mistakes"

Aisha looked at me with astonished expression.

that's her disappointed expression.

she didn't want to make a mistake, that is what her expression said.

wait a minute, maybe I said it in the wrong way.

U~~~n.....

"Aisha, I think. Immediately abandoning a person just because they made some mistake, is not a good thing. "

".....U~~n. I understand. That's really an amazing way of thinking, Onii-chan "

"Thank you. That way Aisha, when in the futureAisha meet some same case, I don't want you to become someone who easily abandon others "

Aisha is smart child.

the so-called genius type, and could do well no matter what she does.

But, because of that. The time when her fellow didn't understand what she is thinking will be come.

though the future has changed, but she is always at my side till her death.

if by some chance, Aisha leaving the house, and might be trying to find a job somewhere.

I think Aisha would do well somehow, but there is a chance that her co-worker jealous of her and trying to do bad things to her, it's not rare for someone like her to completely shut herself from others.

as a result, she is ostracized from the family, that is more than enough reason to cause someone to become a shut in.

and I think, before that happen, I want Aisha to learn firsthand by herself.

it's not something that I could made her understand.....since I'm bad at socializing myself.

"now once again, with same position as Rinia, won't you try again from the scratch? "

"....."

Aisha looking at me and Rinia alternately.

then, close her eyes.

1 second, 2 seconds.

it's look like she is thinking about something, in silence.

"is it for my sake?"

"that's my intention.....well honestly, I got the feeling that with you being in charge of the support and funds, we could avoid the worst situation "

"I see, thanks for the honest answer "

Aisha eyes opened.

"Onii-chan, if I reject your request here, would you hate me?"

"there is no way I would do that. After all it's detestable, but I think it's okay for you to reject it "

"....."

Aisha body moving timidly, she stretched out both her hand to me.

when I spread my hands, she immediately giving me a strong hug.

"I understand. If Onii-chan said so, then I will try to do my best "

"Yeah"

though I feel that I'm a bit bossy here.

But, that's not a mistake.

with this, I could expect something good will happen.

together with Rinia, doing something in this new job, Aisha should be able learn something.

she might be learn something different from what I expect, but that should be okay.

I'd like to think so.

.....By the way Aisha, isn't your breast growing somehow become quite big.

This, approximately around D-cup.

though her is isn't that high, her chest huge.

I guess she is in transition to become glamour woman.

I guess just a little more and she will become like Lilya.

No, I do not care. About my little sister breast.

"Thank you, Onii-chan "

"No, I was the one who need to said that, for listening to my request "

"I, will listen to anything that you said Onii-chan " smiling mischievously, Aisha getting away from me.[TL : what? So her true goal is to make her brother feel her breast?]

It's her usual smile.

she is turning toward Rinia with that smile still on her face, Aisha stretching her hand.

"like that, let's work hard together!"

"Ri, right Nyah!"

they exchanged Handshake firmly.

the two people whose relationship didn't go well as superior and her subordinate.

now let's Forget the past, and work hard in this.

Finally, Aisha making the plan for the future, ideal image, and speech, then leaving that place.

for now, let's hope that the next time I'm coming back something terrible didn't happen.

(!)

On the topmost floor of the Quagmire Tower.

There, stood a young knight just entering his 15th year of life, Lionheart [\[1\]](#) gripped his sword with a rough breath.

"Huff..... Huff....."

"Kukuku, what's wrong Hero, is this the end? "

Standing before him is a creepy guy, wearing a dark grey colored robe and suspicious white mask to hide his face.

"With only that level of skill, did you really think that's enough to defeat this Great Evil Mage, Rudeu.....Ehm, I mean Rudo Ronuma?"

"Damn, daa~~mn it! "

Clenching his sword, Lionheart forced his heavy foot to take a step forward and swung his sword in an all out attack.

But, Rudo Ronuma easily parried that attack and pointed his right hand to Lionheart.

At that moment, an invisible shock wave ran through the room, blowing Lionheart from the place where he is standing.

"Guwaaa?"

"Ah! Lionheart!"

A heartbreaking cry could be heard from the woman who is chained in the corner of the room.

Dressed in a pale pink dress was a lovely woman with a silver coronet on her head.

She is the princess from small country in the northern lands Twall, her name is Geltraude.

"Calm down Princess, I will beat this Pervert rascal immediately! Let's return to the country after that.....!"

Hearing himself saying that encouragement line, Lionheart forcing his tottering feet to stand, with all his power he turns around to Geltraude and gives her a reassuring smile.

Moreover Rudo Ronuma is already panicked.

"Wha, hey, who just you call Pervert!?"

"It's you! To strip the Princess off her panties, moreover WEARING IT ON YOUR HEAD.....KNOW SHAME! "

"Tha, that's not true! This, this is my wife's genuine panties! I won't do something as impolite as that.....!"

It's not a matter about whose pants it is.

Lionheart is the last knight remaining.

If he was defeated, Princess Geltraude will definitely become Rudo Ronuma's plaything.

It's only matter of time till the Princess panties are worn over his head.

"Uo ~O~o!"

"Too weak!"

Facing Lionheart's assault, the Magician Rudo Ronuma avoids that assault while moving around like a certain insect and then launch a shockwave attack.

This already repeated many times, since before.

"Guh~a,....., Shit.....Princess, I can't lose in front of the Princess that I love.....!"

Even while his whole body is battered, Lionheart's eyes didn't lose its powerful will to not lose.

This mission is stimulating his feelings, he is going for Rudo Ronuma.

"Kukuku, that some great loyalty. However, for the king to only send few people to rescue the kidnapped princess, is that really worth of your loyalty?"

"This didn't have anything to do with the country, I.....I.....I love Princess!"

Lionheart Cry from the soul is echoed through the quagmire tower.

Geltraude being deeply moved, closed her mouth with her hands and from her eyes a trickle of the tears are flowing.

"Uoo~o~o!"

"Kukuku, what a beautiful love. But, the difference in our ability won't lose with love alone!"

"Guaa!"

Lionheart was blown away again by Rudo Ronuma.

"Shi, shit..... just a bit more.....always getting away!"

"Kukuku, this me you want to beat. I will become extremely weak if I saw Supard race doll, though the story telling about them in the picture book is different from what the people know....hahahhahahahaha!"

"!!!"

Those words made Lionheart stunned.

Supard race doll, he happens to know about it.

On the way before he arrived here, a shady fortune teller, who forced him to listen to his exaggerated fortune, before finally forcing Lionheart to bring with him a Demon race doll.

He said that this will be useful when the time comes.....but there is no way it's true!

Lionheart leaped to his bag that he threw beside the door.

And takes out a doll from within it.

The doll of an emerald green haired warrior posed with his white spear!

And, a picture book that tells about his story!

"Aaa! That's, it can't be!"

"Yes, it's Supard race -"

"No doubt about it, that's the guy who is judged as a bad guy by the world, but he is actually a gentleman who loves children, also a great hero that overthrew Laplace, that's the doll of Rujierudo Supardia! "

Lionheart didn't know that far.

He is not reading the book.

But, the effect was excellent.

"Ah, crap, my power is diminishing.....!"

"This is it! Lionheart! Now!"

"Uoo~o~o!"

Rudo Ronuma tottering.

Princess Geltraude cried.

Lionheart rushed gripping his sword.

Rudo Ronuma's already weak right hand pointed toward him, but it's too late.

Lionheart sword piercing very deep into Rudo Ronuma's chest.....or not.

The sound of "gakin" could be heard, it's the sound of something snapped. [TL : SFX for metal snapping]

Under the robe, he wore something also.

(Ku... this is also useless)

The next moment Lionheart was about to give up.

"Guaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa!!!"

Rudo Ronuma sudden death throes could be heard, his whole body is enveloped by light, and blown backward.

Ahead of him is the balcony.

With a thud sound, Rudo Ronuma's body is hitting the handrail of the balcony, and while giving an idiotic [Geffu~~u!] voice, he is falling from there.

This is the third floor of the tower.

If it's that magician, this degree of height won't be enough to kill him.

The next moment Lionheart thought so and tried to look a bit under the balcony.

From under the balcony, a large explosion occurred.

The Blast wave brushing Lionheart cheeks, causing his hair to dishevel.

"?"

After the explosion subsided, Lionheart tried to look again, and what he saw down there at the bottom of the tower was a hole.

The trees around where Rudo Ronuma fell are turned upside-down, in the center where the explosion happened, a crater is formed.

"....."

Then, Lionheart realized.

Perhaps, his last blow just now, destroyed the core of Rudo Ronuma armor.

Because of that his magical power is out of control, and Rudo Ronuma exploded like a balloon in every direction.

In other words, he won.

Lionheart has won.

"Lionheart ...!"

"Princess! It's safe now!"

Lionheart rushed over to the Princess, and hugged her.

"Lionheart ...aaa, Lionheart, I believed that you would certainly come to rescue me!"

"Princess I'm aware that for me to fall in love with Princess is something beyond my reach, our social standing is too far apart.....but, but..... "

"Aa, something like that didn't matter for me Lionheart.....I... I also love you very much "

"Princess.....Your words just now is overestimating me! Well then, let's return for Now!"

"Yes!"

The Evil magician Rudo Ronuma is dead.

After this, Lionheart is hailed as the hero of this country.

Given high rank nobility, becoming close companion of the King and the Princess.

The Two of them married, and lived happily ever after.

The End.

--- Rudeus perspective ---

"Aa~h!, that was a close one"

The Mission this time was "to Match The Young Knight Lionheart and The Small Country Princess Geltraude".

It looks like these two descendant will be useful to Orsted.

Naturally in case of these two people, even if they're loving each other, they can't say it because of the difference in their status.

The king that knows about their love, even cheering on them.

But, the problem is their lineage, so secretly [Let's make some situation where Lionheart could be a hero] something like that, with Lionheart's timid nature, there is no way he could made his valor in any case.

So the king, one way or another must create a situation for him to make his stand, he then start a war with neighboring country, and send Lionheart to the front line, and of course the timid Lionheart dead.

As a result Princess Geltraude becomes a political piece, married for political reasons.

And the series of events that happened are is told by a song that was made by Geltraude in her later years.

A Princess falling in love, to a young knight from different social standing.

Knowing that the king gets angry and sent the young knight to the front line to die.

The princess, didn't understand what her father was trying to do.

Anyway, my job this time is to fix their twisted fate, and pairing Lionheart and Geltraude.

First, I made a contact with the king.

I made a proposal to kidnap the Princess and confine her in the tower in the middle of the forest at the edge of the country, then he could send Lionheart to help her.

At first the king doubted me, but after using Ariel's name I could persuade him.

I as the Evil Mage Rudo Ronuma, kidnapped the Princess.

Imprisoning the Princess in a tower, handmade by me.

It's cheap structure that would likely fall with a single earthquake, but it's not a problem for now.

Before Lionheart started his travel, I, masquerading as a fortune teller, gave him a hint to defeat Rudo Ronuma.

Taking that opportunity to spread the wonder of the Supardo race doll, killing two birds with one stone.

Later, I returned to the tower, unconcernedly waiting for Lionheart to come and struggle in a hard fight against me before he reversed the situation.

Though, it sounds easy.

However, from preparation for negotiations, up to the practice, I did it by myself.

Come to think of it later, somehow I doing it as far as made it into too large scheme.

"So tired..... "

Anyway, this mission is also a success.

After receiving words of gratitude from Orsted for my work,
I'm back to my home.

After one month, I return to the magic city Sharia.

This fatigue, I guess it will be healed by Sylphy.

Watching at the two young couple lovey-dovey, for some reason I want to see Sylphy embarrassed expression so much.

With that, began to spend the night in passionate way.

In order to release my beastly instinct.....

But, lately Sylphy grew accustomed to it, she isn't embarrassed by it that much anymore.

Also during this time, when I unintentionally looked at her changing clothes she said [aa, please hold this pants], and handed me her pants.

There is not enough embarrassment material.

Please, just say [Mou, Rudy no echhi]. [TL : Mou~, Rudy is lewd. I prefer left the text as it is]

Anyway, I'm finally back to home.

As usual, Beat opening the door for me,

Lucy running away from me, touching Ellis stomach, groping Sylphy ass, patting Lara's head, licking Sylphy ears, my hand getting licked by Leo, and Lucy running away from me.....

I feel relieved when surrounded by my family.

Come to think of it, in my previous life, when my father came back from his business trip, even though his face looked weary, but seeing his family immediately relieved him, maybe this is how he felt at that time.

Today is the day when Norn will come home, so while waiting for Norn and Roxy to come back, I think I will spend some leisure time in the living room, while I'm deeply sunken sitting on the sofa.

Suddenly, I noticed.

"Are? Aisha isn't home today, did she go shopping? "

As soon as she heard my question, Lilia's complexion changed.

Quite the complexion she had there.

Sylphy's face, also somehow looked a little worried.

Ellis' expression is like usual.

This isn't a good Atmosphere.

I wonder what's wrong?

"That is, recently Aisha is often spending her time outside
..... "

Lilia said it in an apologetic tone.

Outside.....

Oh, I see.

Which reminds me, that last time I asked her to support Rinia's job.

"That is, actually last time I think I asked her to help in some work, isn't that what she does? "

"No....though you said it's work.....but, she is associating with some bad looking guys, and it's still increasing "

When I heard about bad looking guys, what comes to my mind is Mohican styled guys wearing shoulder pads.

In the world where gasoline is precious, that fellows riding high emission motorcycle while shouting [Ya-Ha].[TL : reference to a certain end of century manga, I never read it so don't ask me what manga]

Or some colleagues that often gathered around Rinia.

"Errrr....Rudy.

Recently, I see a lot of strange guys inside of the city and nothing can be done to them.

they are all wearing black suit, however ,

Aisha-chan, is often seen together with those guys "

It's still less than one month since I asked.

Whatever the circumstances might be, for the city to get changed quickly, it seems there isn't any words about some kind of gathering.

Moreover, black suit

U~~m.

She, is soon turning 14 years old.

Now she is in her puberty phase, rebellious age, the season of Eight grade illness.

She will rebell and oppose her brother or parents, the years she will be rebutting with cold words.

Don't tell me, that by giving her permission to go out has made some kind of cultural shock happen, damn it!, what has actually happened for her to start socializing with those kind of guys.

"My apologize, Rudeus-sama. I won't let Aisha do something like this again, when she comes home tonight, I'll scold her properly"

Ah!, so that means she isn't staying out all night and comes home in the morning.

Well then, if it was like that I could feel relieved for the time being.

The moment I think that, Sylphy said something strange.

"But, Aisha-chan said That Rudy already gave her permission to do that"

"....."

Got my permission?.

With that words, inside my head the worst kind of scenery unfolded.

While Rinia taking the application form for the gathering inside the warehouse, the thugs giving a vulgar smile while they lick their lips.

Their line of sight is gathered toward the two beautiful girls, Rinia and Aisha that rooted on the spot.

Inside the cramped warehouse, that way, they encircled them.....

Of course Rinia's battle power is high, but only to general level.

Thus, she won't hold if she is overwhelmed by great number of enemies.

Come to think of it, even though Aisha is still a child, recently her body is experienced spurt of growth.

Mainly with her breast which in the process of approaching her mother.

And, even from my eyes, her brother, she is cute.

Refreshing expression which she inherited from Paul, the effect is doubled to the viewer when combined with her charming double tooth smile.

Aaa, forgetting such simple fact.

Rinia and Aisha, both of them are beautiful.

How could I leave them alone with gathering of a lot of bad guys.

Isn't that the same as throwing a fresh meat into swarm of sharks.

..... No, I don't have anything to say about the collection of the bad guys!

"Eris, why you didn't stop her?"

"...eeh? why I must do that?"

Eris tilted her neck.

Aah, perhaps Eris isn't that interested in Aisha.

"Nothing, since they're not really that bad guys"

No, for Eris, there is no different between a lion and a cat.

Even Sylphy and Lilia is concerned about her surrounded by a lot of bad guys, From Ellis point of view, they may not look that bad, only at the level of being mischievous boy.

No, do not rely on Eris.

She is pregnant now.

Beside, I'm the one who's pulling the string.

It's my responsibility.

".....I see, it's look like I must resolved it myself "

Since I, not particularly giving Aisha a green light, so I won't blame her.

Because the so called 「 A Lot of Bad Looking Guys」 , there is some background story for them.

But, there is something called limit to everything.

After all Aisha is still underage, she might be treated as some kind of convenient woman by some of her colleagues, as her older brother, I think it's my duty to give her some help.

I think, Paul will also do the same thing.

No, I think Paul is also classified as the [Bad Looking Guys].

"Did you know their hangout?"

"I'll show you"

Said Eris immediately.

But, she is pregnant.

What's wrong with her, some kind of change her mind?.

By the way fighting scene is no good, because it will surely turn into something dangerous.

"I'll go too"

Sylphy volunteering herself, but I shook my head.

"... No, I will go alone for the time being"

Assuming the worst case happened, Beside, if there isn't anything happened, there is no need to confine them.

So, first, I have to move alone, to see the situation.

Thinking so, I leave my house again as soon as I came, I'm moving in the direction of Aisha's hangout.

Sylphy told me the directions.

Third Street of the adventurers district.

Far from the main street, there is the place.

It's splendid two-story building, made of anti-magic brick.

Its shape is similar to adventurer guild, and tavern.

But, there is some kind of different feeling with latest addition of new sign board painted with black ink, in the middle of that sign is painted with the mark of ferocious tiger.

I going inside, opening the doors, what appear from inside the room is a man completely dressed in black.

All members are wearing the same black coat, with the same lucky tiger mark attached on their back.

And for some reason, carrying thing such as hoe and sickle.

"Ssha! I~tsuzo~o~o! Raa~a!"

"Ooosssuuuu!"

While they're shouting their full of fighting spirit yell, they passed without taking a glance at me, till they disappear along the main street.

So scary.

That, they absolutely won't do something like cheering for the baseball game right?.

That's not it, they usually practicing battle against Lion in nude while shouting 「 Tiger is stronger than Lion ! 」 .

That was dangerous, I guess it's okay now.

No, thanks to the Orsted training I also become stronger recently.

As a precaution, I also wore Mahirubeyoroi from the office.

So it will be all right. Definitely All right.

Therefore I won't lose against that degree of thugs.

Can't afford to back down now .

That cute Aisha together with such rough fellows in a place like this.

No matter how clever she is, Aisha is still powerless against them.

She always come home at night, but I wonder what happen during the day.....

Giving some assistance is not good.

Even if, many of the enemies get hired.

It's All right. Now is the time to use the tactics against great number of enemy.

After countering with three punch, turn back for a moment, then countering one punch with three punch again.

"E, Excuse me"

Opening the doors, I'm entering the building.

Immediately arrived at the lobby.....I guess.

A spacious room, with barrels lined up with fixed interval.

Why barrels, I can't think any reason for that.

They're using barrels as substitute for the tables.

Placing liquor bottle on the barrels, they're leisurely enjoying their drink.

This place is like a bar.

However, there is one thing that certainly made it different from the bar room.

Everyone inside, they're wearing the same identical black coat with mark of the tiger on their back similar to those group that just go outside.

Look so~ dangerously scary.

"Have some kind of business here?"

I then noticed, from inside someone from the beastman race with a Lion face approaching me.

Taller than me, even his width.

His black coat making "PichiPichi" sound is bulging and almost torn off.

It's appear he have wonderful amount of muscle, and I'm sure that it's his pride.

But, fighting force isn't determined by the amount of the muscle alone.

Even President Orsted and Rujierudo didn't look as macho and strong as him.

"Eeeerr, that, my younger sister, I've come to meet her but, is she really here? "

But, manner come first.

For example, if this person is someone strong who is love to quarrel, must made him overlook me.

Honorific in the first meeting, that is the secret of my success in this world.

It doesn't mean that I'm scared of him.

"Sister ...?"

While this beastman race is frowned with doubtful face, he looked over the lobby.

Calm down and look inside, in there there is many guys wearing black coat, there is also many woman.

They're not particularly look like bad guys, none of them is has a look of that veteran warrior.

At least, magic university student is one rank above them in term of their tough look.

Bad looking guys I'm really wondering, are they really bad?.

Anyway, like that it's look like among everyone inside, Aisha isn't among them.

"Pardon my impoliteness"

After noticing me before, the baestman race face come closer to mine.

Hey what is this!, Stop it!.

Hey you, what kind of place is inside.

I, I'm acquainted with Orsted you know!

From his position the man didn't move at all, only his nose moving while sniffing me.

It seems my smell is bad.

Or something like that, how embarrassing.

".....?"

The man, while sniffing me frowns his eyebrows.

"...!"

And, he is staring at my face intently, “thud” he is taken a back by two step and fell behind.

Dangerous, it’s look like I’m very smelly right now.

Which reminded me that I hadn't takem a bath yet since I came home.

"You, could it be, Aisha-san? "

So the man asked me.

It looks like, my identity is discerned from my smell for the time being.

"Ah, Yes!. I’m the one called Rudeus Grayrat. My younger sister.....is Aisha happen to be here?. "

How could I had forgotten, that self introduction is also important.

naming oneself, to made clear about your affiliation, is also first important step of communication.

Incidentally, it looks like my name is quite famous in this city.

I guess by introducing myself, put some kind of restraint.

"Swo~sh"

As soon as I said my name, the atmosphere instantly changed.

The people that could hear my name, all of the members, now turn their head toward me.

"Grayrat"

"Then he is"

"to think that the day to meet him someday finally came..... "

Somehow I could perfectly feel the atmosphere of being away.

This is look bad.

This sensation, somehow made me feel a little nostalgic feeling.

Like when I'm apologizing long ago to some group when Ellis made big ruckus with them, that kind of feeling.

Maybe, It's already too late, and Ellis already sweep them once.

Nn? So, why then Aisha didn't come back?

Ah!, perhaps, they already give Aisha some detailed instruction.

Oioi, then, with me here what are you planning to do to Aisha?.

Such a fool.

Certainly, they must use some kind of threat.

Shit, how could I made such blunder, to give out my name.

Maybe it's alright if I named myself as Mysterious masked magician, Rudo Ronuma.

In other words, there is no point in arguing over it.

"..... he is the, the president!"

"... the president!"

"President Rudeus ...!"

When I think about that.

The people began to surround me, and lower their head.

From standing at attention, they bowed 45 degree toward me.

Everyone do that all at once.

What is this?.

"Ee~rrr"

Looking, at the beast race youth earlier, he was showing me his back hair.

"Inexcusable, for not having even known President's face "

"Eh?"

"This way please, I will take you to the adviser "

"Adviser? Ah!, Yes"

In regard to what must not to do in these situation is must not follow him.

But, for the time being let's follow that beast youth which muscle even extended to his tail, to see what he will be revealed inside, I must follow his rule.

He will guide me, for now let's follow him for the time being.

"Please"

Climbing the stairs, I was guided towards innermost part of the building.

It's a Dim room with the curtain closed.

The wall is decorated with a portrait of an enigmatic looking ikemen, such a weird room.

On that place, that guy stopped.

In that place, reside the number one bad guy in this city.

Those guys, also wearing the same kind of black coat on their body.

Furthermore, they're wearing white muffler on their neck even though it will be summer soon, and inside this closed and dim room, they're wearing sunglasses.

Dressed like that they're sitting facing each other, counting the number of gold coins while giving a sinister grin and smile.

"Nyahahahahaha. As I thought, purchasing sunglasses is a correct choice after all.

This gold coin radiance will surely make me blind Nya! "

That one is laughing aloud while giving a disgusting smile.

Because of the lighting effect, I could even see that her teeth is shining with gold coin color.

I can't recognize her face because of the sunglasses, but there is no mistake that her eyes are already transformed into gold coin shape.

Her eyes must be shaped like a dollar mark.

Her eyes are done for.

"E~r, this is this month money paid to the government nya!

"U~m"

And, nodding her head, is also a young girl wearing sunglasses.

She, also sitting on a chair, swaggering with bossy attitude like some kind of important person.

From such position, she proudly raised her hand and receiving bag of gold coins from the first woman.

It seems the number of the gold coins is around six pieces.

Judging from the appearance, it's not Asura gold coin, but Ranoa Kingdom gold coin that usually used and seen in this area.

The young girl proceeding to count it's number, by placing the gold coin on the table that was in the vicinity.

And, "sarasara" write the amount of the money on the paper and sign it with her name autograph, then return it to the first person.

"U~mu, it's certainly now"

"Of course Nya! "

"And then?"

The young girl, giving a signal to the woman with her chin.

"Nyahehehe, and this is the adviser fee Nya! "

The woman picking some gold coin from the tower of gold coins on top of the table, and passing it to the young girl.

The number is, 5, 6, in count number.

"Here, even after this please keep give your support Nya?"

"Of course"

"Nyafuhihihi, Adviser-sama is so evil Nyah"

"He~h, not as evil as Rinia-san"

While a bad smile raised from the young girl lips, she received different money bag from the one gold bag that she handed earlier.

As it is, that gold bag is immediately disappeared into her breast valley.....

"Ah"

Then, they notice the beastman race youth and me.

"Chief Rinia, Adviser Aisha. President Rudeus is coming for inspection. "

The two person that dressed like a mafia boss were Aisha and Rinia.

I was sitting on the nearby sofa.

Aisha and Rinia sitting right in front of me.

"This, how did this turn out like this?"

For now, I will try to listen what really happened.

Someone must explain this, I got that kind of feeling.

Certainly, I ordered Aisha and Rinia, to collect the people in this city.

But, the building that I lent them for that purpose isn't here,
And I never said to them to made those guys put on black coat, and the number of people gathering here already surpassed my assumption.

"U~m, I'm really doing it according to what you said Brother, to gather people, and then use the gathered people to start a new business "

" ... hoo, tell me the detail"

Then Aisha explained it to me.

Everything that happened since then, immediately after Aisha and Rinia gathered the people.

Then, focused in gathering the student and graduates from magic university, and adventurers guild, they succeeded in gathering 30 people right away.

Suddenly got 30 people.

That's where they're concerned, the warehouse that I bought became cramped in no time.

So Aisha made her move, she sold the warehouse in the same day, She is inviting her own connection to become their sponsor, i look like they managed to rent this building.

By the way, it looks like Zanoba and Cliff are their sponsors.

The portrait hanging in this room, is my portrait that drawn by Zanoba.

Too much beautification, that it almost didn't resemble me.

"But, as I thought they simply gathered here, they didn't have any sense of unity at all. We must do something regularly"

With the number of people that gathered, and the number of days till I return.

Unless one given direction in what they will do, it seems they will be scattered immediately.

So, Aisha going to the air fortress to get some advice from Nanahoshi.

Taking the whistle to call Pergius from the table inside my room, she summoned Armanfi.

After giving her greeting to Pergius, she got some advice from Nanahoshi.

"Eh? you met Pergius-sama?"

"Yeah. That person is so cool"

By the way, I'm very scared of he unknown.

If I'm offending someone, didn't that also endangered my companion life.

No, that person is very lenient, I guess he won't do something so childish against a minor.

If she is innocently said that he is cool, Sylvia too will be nice to her.

"Then?"

According to Nanahoshi's recommendation, what we need is [Uniform] and [Manner].

If everyone wearing the same cloth, it will raise a sense of solidarity.

After accomplishing that, even without doing anything, they won't scattered.

Furthermore, by teaching the troops about some correct manner, will boosting sense of faith from the business partner and easily gain their trust.

Aisha, moving according to Nanahoshi advice, from her acquaintance shop clothes, she is bought the stockpiling left over cheap clothes.

And the one that left is, this gloomy black coat.

Aisha without thinking too much about that bought it,

She purchased yellow clothed with her own money, it look like she also sew a rat mark on it one-by-one.

A rat mark.

Because I'm a Grayrat, so it's a rat.

Because of the Black cloth on the yellow shirt, I was almost certain that it was tiger mark.

Isn't that nice, that tiger mark over there is so cool, I almost say that.

Anyway after they're wearing same identical garments, Aisha teaching them in how to lower their head.

Tthe one I most skillful at, a respectful bow of 45 degree. Otherwise commonly known as OJIGI.

After all of them could memorize that, they will be known as peoples that paying attention to the courtesy.

Thus, it's the beginning of the completion the formation of the of a group of people in black cloth.

After that, Aisha thinking about what these guys could do.

However, majority of the beast race is actually yearning for Rinia.

They didn't have any talent except for combat, their hobby is memorizing muscle training, let alone alphabet and number, many of them can't even read.

Although there is some smart brained guys among them, at most is that from 5 muscle brain, the ratio of such smart guys is only 1 percent.

Taking advantage of that fact, the only thing that come to mind is forming a mercenary company.

Thus, it's decided that they will form a mercenary company.

Then, the name of the group is also decided.

Using the pseudonym that I always use, it's named [Rudo Mercenary Company].

But, this place is the three great magic power.

and, in the middle of these 3 countries, Magic city Sharia is relatively peaceful.

If one never experiencing the war, it will take some time to made them ready for facing the war.

Facing these circumstances, Aisha devised a new plan, the one so-called as Bodyguard business.

With fixed amount of money for the fixed amount of time, it will send several mercenary.

From several people that dispatched, the one with the best brain is selected as the battle commander, that guy will be the one that giving command.

Also, if in the middle of the works one guy injured or by some bless from heaven he died, another mercenary will immediately dispatched to replace him.

As if it's said, the bodyguard is bound by their contract.

It's definitely not a gangster organisation.

Absolutely not a gangster organisation.

"So if we start with that kind of work, things like fame will instantly come"

Rinia is a Dorudia tribe princess indeed.

Strangely this mercenary business could easily gained trust, there is also relationship between member, and also Aisha promoting it, this mercenary instantly become a famous one.

In 14-15 days from the open business, work began to come from the Knight of Ranoa Kingdom, Magic Guild Leader, and Magic Tool Workshop.

Registered beginner Members also increased at the same time, now, nearly 50 people in black suit loitering around this town.

From adventurer and order of the knight, students, blacksmith, to magic tool shop, various occupation faction is exist in this city, of course quarreling and brawling also often happened.

Hence, come the existence that remain standing on the neutral side to protect them, the crack between each faction demanding such existence.

One wrong move, and the Mercenaries itself will become a new faction, Aisha said it's okay, because they receives various jobs from various faction without giving any privileges to one of them.

"Because of that, my payment is separated from the money we paid toward the government, we gained profit more than I thought"

"Really Nya, to think that I must carrying this much money to paid the government Nya. They're honest fellows Nya "

For the time being.

There s a little different from being an adventurer and being a bodyguard.

In one month from launch, it seems there was also a decent income, the flow of the cash is also already stabilized.

The total amount of earning is not too big, of course, it will take some time for Rinia to pay her debt.

However, with the business as it is now it's possible to do some expansion, after gathering the capital, then start a new different Business, with that plan it might be possible to pay the debt in one go.

And if that was the case, by the time the debt returned at half amount, it's okay for me to write cancellation of the debt letter. I'm not particularly attached to money anyway.

Honestly, I'm expecting them to do something completely different.

What they do now is different indeed, but in this case they're successfully carrying it, so it's okay.

I mean, even I didn't expect it to be going this well as right now.

The secret of success, I guess because of Aisha's appointment.

Giving her the role to keep an eyes for company fund was paid off.

This genius girl is finally become serious, no mistake about it, it just will take a little more time. I mean, like this she will finally do thing more seriously.

"But Aisha, to think that you're this fond of money "

"Eh, it's not like that"

Unintentionally I said it with a sigh, because of that unexpected line Aisha pouting her mouth look somehow displeased.

"The one I love is Brother!. Because Brother told me to do so, I'm working very hard right? "

"Aisha"

Her eyes are sparkling.....

So cute~~.

I feel relieved that I don't feel anything toward my little sister.

"Also, it will be worrying if this cat is brought back to home "

Ah!, so that's her real intention.

Thought I feel that their relationship is looking good a while ago, but I wonder if the reality isn't like that?.

No, that is that, this is this.

"Regardless what happen, well done!"

"Ehehe, Thank you"

when I pat her head, she give a satisfied smile.

Anyway.

With this, we could expect Rinia to pay her debt.

With this, the guys that has business acumen that could do office job will surely come.

A clerk for Orsted office, and also could hire a talented shopkeeper to handle Rujierudo doll marketing.

Could get this far in only one month.

As expected of Aisha.

I might have been underestimated her true ability.

"But, because Lilia is a little worried, we must talk a bit when we're at home "

"E~~, since mother's head is so stubborn, she didn't want to hear my explanation. I, somewhat already used to this job "

"It's Okay. I will also specially ask to her, and give proper explanation "

Because if someone forced to do things against their will it usually won't come good, also this time is somehow could motivating her.

If the person herself this motivated, let's see for a while longer.

I mean, right now she is about to witnessing the fruit of her effort, it's not like she is putting it in more important position than her maid job at home.

"I understand. I will believe you, Brother. When so overly-optimistic Brother facing with Mother, can you really give proper explanation?"

"Ah"

Thus, My subordinate.

Name is [Rudo Mercenary].

My first subordinate.

After this I could finally use my subordinates.

My dream expanded.

"Ah!, that's right boss "

When I almost going back to home with Aisha tagging along, Rinia suddenly call me.

"What?"

"During the time you were working, a letter from Large forest CAME Nyah! "

Hou~, from large forest.

I wonder, if it's from Purusena?

While I think so, I received the letter from Rinia.

It's addressed to Rinia, the seal is already opened.

There is no sender name.

And et, why Rinia knows that this came from the Large Forest.

As I thought I wonder if it's from smell?

Without waiting I immediately took the letter, and read what's written in there.

"...!"

What's written in there, there isn't any date or season of the year.

Just a single line.

written in beast god language.

[Grave Situation, Divine-Beast has disappeared!. Urgent Search ASAP! "

"Well, it looks like Divine Beast disappearance will become a problem Nya"

With her hand folded behind her head, Rinia said that while laughing [Nyahahaha].

"....."

I decided to go to Large Forest.

To apologize to the beast race while bringing a box of cake.

'Rudo Mercenaries "

The summary so far : Divine beast-sama matter come first

Three members will go to the Great Forest: Linia, Leo the Divine Beast and I.

Eris also wanted to tag along, but as one would expect, her stomach had already become quite big, so she refrained.

Because of her toy, which is me is often lost[gong to work]. Recently, Eris saving quite amount of stress.

Just like that, If I managed to bring back another Beast race child as my replacement[sacrifice], fresh from their tribe which happen to be many in number.

Very contrary from Linia who said [I don't want to go, I will only working under Pursena in that case] but if I was the only one that come to them, they won't be very convinced. So her role is convincing them.

The truth is, right after Leo was summoned, I wanted to send a letter to them but completely forgot about it.

Such a failure.

Well, towards the stubborn beast race, I will become adult this time.

It won't become like the previous case.

This time, I've already prepared a long and strong argument and will bring Linia and Leo with me.

Because of that reason, the things about the mercenary business is left to Aisha.

The management itself won't become a problem, since originally, Aisha handled it by herself.

Also, the company colleagues that originally only relied on Linia are now starting to respect Aisha.

Since this is only a short and temporary trip, there won't be any problems.

Honestly, with this trip, the plan for Orsted's jobs also becomes a little out of order.

But, such things will become root of evil in the distant future, so it's better to take care of it in its early stage.

If we don't do this ASAP, they will only become more enraged as the time passes.

And one year later, it won't be strange if hordes of the beast race suddenly come and challenge me to a war.

That would be very troublesome.

However, I will try to persuade them, rather than make them face Orsted's scary face. I will bring Leo as my lawyer, and Orsted will be in charge of my house defense in the meantime.

Thanks to my appearance, many of his strategic moves are going smoothly, so it looks like there won't be any problems for now.

Even as I say that.

A transfer magic circle from our office basement which is connected to the Durodia village.

And, the place of the transfer magic circle from our office basement to the Large forest must be installed in a quite distance place from Durodia village.

As for that matter, it's time to request for Pergius's help and at the same time greet him for my sister's matter.

It's possible that he knows about the abandoned transfer magic circle in the ancient ruin in the northern part of the large forest.

When I come to ask for his help, it's the usual situation where Pergius is sitting on his throne surrounded by Sylvaril and his other 10 familiars.

One more familiar is missing, but it's already well-known that he dispatched one of his familiars to Ariel's palace as his ambassador.

"So to the Large Forest huh?"

"Is there any problem?"

"Nope, did you want to go there immediately?"

"I think it's better if we move as soon as possible"

When I tell about my business at Large Forest to Pergius, he puts on a perplexed face. But that's only for a moment - he immediately gives a nod to my request.

Does he really forgive me for using him as a substitute for a taxi?

As I thought, Pergius-sama is really a forgiving person.

"Even so, Divine Beast huh..... that's made me remember unpleasant memories."

Pergius is looking at Leo. Somehow, he made a complicated face.

He should have known that the being I summoned is the Divine Beast-sama, but this is their first meeting.

Even when he is under Pergius's gaze, Leo is sitting still with a calm face.

Rather, the one who is getting scared is Linia.

It looks like though she already met him once with Aisha, she isn't quite used to Pergius's presence yet.

"The other day, it seems my little sister gave you a little trouble."

"I don't mind. She is a clever person, and I don't dislike such a person"

It looks like Aisha was forgiven. While waving his hand, Pergius's expression looks like he is in a good mood.

When I see that he really means it and doesn't have any ill intentions, it looks like Aisha is well accepted.

"By the way, it seems like your daughter has already been born."

"Yes, did you hear that from Aisha?"

"U~m. Isn't it a nice thing that it isn't a green haired male?"

Pergius said so with his inquiring voice.

".....Yes. I feel relieved that she isn't Laplace's reincarnation."

Hearing my answer, Pergius directs his smile to me.

"Ho~u. Did you already hear the matter about Balaur from the ancient dragon race reincarnating himself?"

"Yes."

"If that is the case, just remember this: If your son is born under such a situation, I will hunt him to the bitter end."

Saying that, Pergius smiles while baring his teeth at me.

Scary.

".....As for me, I hope that won't happen."

Because I feel myself, that I can't confront Laplace.

According to Orsted's story, he is the last surviving warrior from an ancient dragon race who continues a very very long battle against Hitogami.

If that is the case, as far as that matter is concerned, he is my ally.

However, that's only as far as concerning how to defeat Hitogami. Aside from that, we're in different factions. As far as deceiving Lijeld, enemy of Pergius, is concerned, he is my enemy.

As for if he is born as my son, I also don't know how to face that problem.

Well, it's not like I must worry too much about this matter.

Where, when, and whom Laplace is reincarnated to, Orsted will definitely tell me when the time has come.

Although my appearance caused a wide array of other possible futures.

Yeah, about Laplace's severe fate, I don't think I will have any influence on it.

"Thinking about how me and you will be baring our fangs against each other though, if Laplace's person is about to be born, it would be nice if you come here first and discuss about that matter with us."

After Pergius says that to comfort me, he stands up from his throne.

He doesn't continue that consultation talk with me.

But, from his talk and that mood, it's not likely he will leave Laplace alone.

There is a possibility that he will change from his usual kind manner and suddenly go to kill.

"Well then, the preparation for this transfer magic circle will take quite a while. In the meantime, you can rest in the one of these castle rooms."

After saying that line, Pergius leaves his throne.

It takes a while to prepare the transfer magic circle.

Thus, I went to greet Nanahoshi, but she wasn't in her usual room.

I asked Yuruzu-san who is walking in the corridor just now where she is, and got an answer that she is currently deep in the study of applications of transfer magic circle.

I hear that there are many important things that she needs to remember.

I believe that it is something that will need my cooperation but...

For the time being, I will leave the homemade potato chips and the salted Onigiri in her room.

This is her healing food.

After that, I moved to the private room that was assigned for us, and waited for the transfer magic circle to be ready.

Linia's eyes glow brightly when she sees this ultra wonderful room, and she immediately jumps at the soft and fluffy looking sofa.

"Haa~..... Boss aside, even Aisha isn't getting scared Nya. Nyow you could talk as if you're on the equal position[peers] with such scary person."

Linia is complaining to me while stretching her body.

I don't know what kind of conversation happened between Aisha and Pergius.

But I think Aisha hasn't caused any problems since Pergius isn't in a bad mood.

Occasionally, Aisha would accidentally spit out her abusive Language (Real intention).

I'm a little worried.

..... that there is some kind of behind the scene plot.

"Linia. It's not a peer. My position is below him. As for forgiving Aisha's somewhat impolite way of speech, it's because Pergius-sama is a very generous person."

"Is that so? Isn't boss of the boss that Dragon God? Isn't that just by meeting him, he's very scary right? He could even make that always serious Cliff tremble in fear Nya."

"Stop it! Don't just judge other people easily like that!"

Because this side is unaffected by Orsted curse unlike you.

Because, somehow, this conversation will be directly transmitted straight to Pergius.

The tea or the dust-cloth with juices might contain a wiring device[Hidden camera].

Very soon.....

While we're having such conversation, the time passes, and Sylvaril appears with a somewhat sullen mood.

As I thought, she heard our conversation.

"Pergius-sama is a very generous gentleman. He really thinks that Rudeus-sama is one of his best friends."

That word perfectly nailed me in my heart.

Of course, I know that by her tones.

This idiot cat just said something that isn't supposed to be said.

Well, to think that Pergius-sama thinks of me as his friend is quite a honor.

And, while I'm saying of some flattery line, an obviously overrated one, Sylvaril's sullen mood isn't even fixed a bit.

".....This is where the preparations are taking place, please come in."

Because of Sylvaril's sullen mood, we're urged to get inside the room.

With her as our guide, we moved towards the Air Fortress basement.

We also used this dark-Labyrinth-like place when moving to Demon Continent.

There, in one of the rooms with dim lighting stood two people, Pergius and Nanahoshi.

In front of them, as usual, is a transfer magic circle carved there.

But, for some reason, the transfer magic circle isn't shining.

It seems it isn't activated yet.

What's wrong I guess, Nanahoshi is standing carrying one magic crystal in each of her hands.

She is takes a deep breath.

"The practical use is still same as usual, but always follow the proper rules"

"Yes....."

While Nanahoshi says that, she comes closer to the transfer magic circle.

"Rudeus, step in here. If this fails, then please forgive me "

With face filled with a tensed expression, Nanahoshi signals me to step into the magic circle.

Somehow or other, this time Nanahoshi will be the one that activates the magic circle.

Guinea pig for practical class?

I won't complain about that. This side also pushing authority toward them.

"Sylvaril, did you already give them the map?"

"I'm sorry master, I forgot about that matter."

With Pergius's words, Sylvaril takes a single piece of paper from her bosom and gives it to me.

I take a look at the contents after received it from her.

Confirming the position of the place, I see Durodia Village is located at the edge of the map, and our current transfer point is in the one of the ancient ruins.

It will take around half day to get to the Durodia village from our position.

Perhaps because it is located in the forest, it seems pretty close....

For now, I will try to show it to Linia.

"Ah! If it was from this place, I already know Nya. It's okay, it is pretty close Nya."

And, that was her reply.

If that was the case, it seems it is okay.

Nonetheless, it's already ten years since I went to that place, so it's better if I leave it to the local resident.

I mean, Sylvaril-san. Why didn't you say anything about it?

It's looks like she didn't have any intention to pass the map to me.

Hasn't that happened quite often? That's quite dark personality.

Then by Pergius's instruction.

"Well then, start now"

"Yes"

Nanahoshi squats on the ground near the transfer magic circle with a magic crystal in both of her hands. She starts writing something on the ground with a brush.

"This is in case somehow or another the other member is thrown in the opposite direction of yourself the moment when the magic circle activated. Is that clear?"

"?.....Yes"

While the process continued, I think about what Pergius said just now.

.....I guess it's a countermeasure against monster swarms.

Oh wait a minute.

Could it be, now is that "Time".

"Ah!, wai---"

Coincidentally, Linia also realizes it at the same time as me.

However, by the time we noticed, Nanahoshi had already finished the preparations.

On the ground where she wrote with a brush previously, she placed her magic crystals there.

As soon as we said that, the magic circle that was only dimly lit before released a brilliant light, and my body is immediately sucked into the magic circle.

"Uwaph!"

by the time I noticed it, my body is already submerged in the water.

I was soaked till my stomach from the place where I stand, and below my sole is the transfer magic circle.

instantly after that, the magic circle lost it's brilliant light.

"Nya! As I though it was rainy season now!"

while Linia is busy screaming like that, I'm carrying Leo.

Leo being carried like a baggage is only natural, afterall his whole body is submerged into water.

it's regrettable, that the box full of cake is also get wet.

the Water temperature is cold.

if we didn't go to the dry place soon, we will absolutely catching cold.

No, even the like of common cold will be immediately cured by detoxification magic.

while I'm thinking to find some stairs to the higher level, the stairs is already missing.

if it was like that, then then, I summoned spirit of light to become our torch and searching around the room, for the stairs to go to the room below this room.

it's look like, this room is at the top floor of this building.

"Boss, nyease do something!"

"Keep your mouth and wait a moment" as for now, it's better if we go to the higher place first.

with the water level of this place, there should be no place higher than this in this area.

while thingking that, I created stairs on the surface of the wall with earth magic, I continue creating it till it reach the ceiling.

"Fu~h!"

after destroying it with magic, the ceiling part is loss.

I went outside.

downspur of rain.

surveying the surrounding scenery is huge trees after huge trees lined up one after another, looking toward the sky from above the trees.

beneath of that, the whole area is flooded by stream of muddy water.

it's like scenery of an Illusion forest in the river.

No doubt about it, this is Large Forest.

Currently, I'm at the top of the ruins.

almost all part of it's building is submerged by the flood.

"that was Dangerous Nyah, what we will do after this Nyah?
We didn't predicting about this season Nyah"

Linia also came up with Leo.

"we could walk above the frozen water, or moving by creating a ship with magic "

"Ooo, as expected of boss Nyah "

"But, we won't know the way to Dudoria with this rain "

"Achishi, this road also nyuseless..... "

yeah.

After all, this ruin is submerged till the top floor.

th depth of water, it' about 5 meters.

something that could become landmark, also submerged.

"Wha, what we must do nya?"

"how about waiting till the end of the rainy season in this place?"

"after rainy season finished it's mating season Nya, then, Achishi maybe it's also somekind of gift Nyah "

I see. Mating season huh.

rather than inside my house, now I'm in the middle of travelling, there is high chance I can't hold my urges.

and making move with anyone as long as it's good.

Oh wait, how about going back to Shari'a again, then borrowing some magic item from Orsted.

"wan!"

And, now Leo just barked.

While stretching his chest, he is looking toward me.

what kind of request I guessing myself.

"is that true Nya?!"

Linia answering him.

"wan!"

"as expected of Divine Beast-sama Nyah!"

Leo barking and, Linia responding to him.

I'm glad that I'm bringing Linia along.

as I thought, Bau ○ n Gal is necessary.

"What is it, Linia? "

"he said [I know the way to the village, just prepare the ship] Nyah. "

"Ooo, I see "

as expected of Divine Beast-sama.

While I think so, I made a ship with earth magic.

because I created it with magic art, the amount of magical power used for it is quite massive.

but, while I made it as durable as possible, I also made it's weight is as light as possible.

so that's it could maintain it's durability I shaped it like a honeycomb, I trapped some air in the hollowed part inside so it will have more bouyancy when we ride it.

While considering about that factor, the ship is finnaly completed after an hour.

it's shaped like a clumsily made square raft.

well it's floating very well, and the driving force is by magical power.

so there won't be any problem.

"All right, let's go!"

"Boss.....Is this thing really safe Nya?, is your magical power is enough Nya? It won't sunk in the middle of the journey Nyight? "

"the chance for that is impossible, and o we will take a rest on the top of the trees n the way to the village"

While saying that, I hopped onto the raft.

It's a little unstable, but that could easily fixed in the middle of the journey.

"Ugh, I feel rather uneasy Nya"

"Wan!"

"Ah!, boss, go to that nyirection "

"OK. Well then, Let's advance" by manipulating the flow of water around the raft, I began to make the raft going to the direction ointed by Leo the Divine Beast.

Two days later.

we arrived at Durodia village.

the distance isn't that far actually, but we're getting attacked by the monsters along the way and got washed away out of the route, so we got a bit lost.

the good thing is that Millis [Holy Sword Road] isn't washed away by the flood, if it was also got washed away maybe we will get stranded along the way for another ten days.

"Hey, Look!"

"It's Divine Beast-sama!"

"tell Gyuesu right now!"

Durodia tribe village, the villager immediately went into an uproar went they see us.

while the village warriors immediately gathered and surrounding us with honeycomb formation.

Everyone is armed.

"it's a man from Human race"

"don't tel me!, he is kidnapped..... "

"Ah!, come to think of it, 10 years ago there is kidnapping spree incident " when the raft become gloser and closer, the village warrior face become more and more vigilant.

their atmosphere said as if that if we're approaching them, they will instantly restraining us without question.

what we must do now?, if we're caught we will instantly put into the gaol in our most majestic outfit[nude].

And, while I'm feeling uneasy, Linia stood up.

"Hello everyone. Gyues Dedorudia daughter, Linia Dedorudia is return Nya!"

"Eh?"

when Linia said her name, the village warrior suddenly become stiff.

And, looking seriously at Linia face, from watching intently the face of linear, all of them simultaneously sniffing her with their nose.

"It's true, she is linear"

"that girl, she is already this big "

"Twelve, or is it already thirteen years?"

my chest now is filled with nostalgic atmosphere.

I think it's okay to feel relieved now, instantly after I'm thinking like that.

"You! I heard about you from Purusena!"

"becoming whatever merchant!"

"To fulfill your duty to the village!"

such jeering came flying around.

"aaaaaa, As I though! Boss turn back the ship! Please turn back Nyah!"

Ignoring what Linia said, I continue to drive the ship entering Durodia village.

Durodia village just like before, nothing changed in anyway.

typical of closed area, outsider will definitely facing a strong oppression.

although, this time I take initiative by bringing Linia along, for some reason many of them also remembered me.

I come to this village 10 years ago.

the Childrens at that time already enlisted as the Village warrior corps, they remembered me as soon as they sniffing my odor.

among the veteran warrior, there is also people who I remember.

For example, the person who poured cold water to me.

That person in this 10 years even after she give birth to 5 children, she returned to her post as a warrior again.

somehow she is a hardworking person.

they're welcoming me, on the other hand Linia is receiving bashing from them.

"though she is a patriach daughter she is abandoning her duty!"

"she is a shame of the family!"

Linia who is hiding behind me becoming smaller and smaller.

with tears in her eyes, she is whispering in low voice [this is why I don't want to come along Nya.....].

Of course, you reap what you sow.

while the beast race bashing Linia for a while suddenly a growling sound could be heard from below, The Divine Beast that got wet shaking it's body to remove the excess water from it's fur, suddenly they're coming to their senses and facing here.

"rather than Linia, Look it's Divine Beast-sama!"

"that's right, he is returned at last!"

"in summary, where the heck he is in this past few years?"

after that, I as the one who "stole" him is the one who explaining the story for them.

where he is brought to, and how he is brought to.

while the explanation goes on and on, gradually they look at me like some unknown crature and has the look of [no way! He leave his companion] and the look in their eyes is changing to a suspecting one.

Ooh, somehow this kind of nostalgic.

someone then said [come to think of it 10 years ago, Divine Beast-sama is really attached to that person] after that someone else proposed, it's look like I will be thrown into the gaol.

and, the moment I think like that, among the masses of people a voice is raised loudly.

"ALL OF YOU BE QUIET NYA!"

"Be quiet!"

the one whom appeared, is two woman warrior.

I remember their face.

they're the daughters of the beast race that I saved before.

It's Minitona, and Terusena.

these two acting like their leader and calming down our surrounding, then they come in front of me.

"there isn't any meaning speaking in this place!"

" The chief will listen to the story in his house! Open the way!."

And, Just like that I'm taken to Gyues House for interrogation.

Gyues had become The village chief.

seriously injured in the battle against monster in the rainy season few years ago, the former Village Chief Gustav, retired.

now, after he entrusted the village to Gyues, Gustav spending his time leisurely in another settlement.

maybe because he become a village chief, for some reason I could see somekind of dignity from Gyues.

compared to our previous meeting, he become fairly calm now.

in this case, the chance of falsely accusation is zero.

I could relieved for now in that matter, passed the smoked meat which I brought from Shari'a, I explained about my situation to him.

the fact about me waging a war against a powerful enemy.

to combat that powerful enemy without any distraction, I summoned a being that could act as my family guardian.

and Then, the one that appeared is the Divine Beast-sama.

and that's how The Divine Beast-sama coming out as magical beast.

after finished listening to my story, somehow Gyues had a bitter face.

"too absurd, that's too absurd to believe story "

I bet it was.

the time when Leo the Divine Beast is the one that appeared from magic circle, I got surprised myself.

"Wafu!"

"But, Divine Beast-sama, even with that reason "

I don't know what he just said, the Divine Beast-sama sitting quietly beside me, undoubtedly it's look like he speak to protect me.

"Divine Beast-sama just said that [The meals in your house is so delish], is that true??"

"Eh?"

"I'm just joking. He said that [There is a mission to accomplish, and that is to protect his daughter] " after he said that, Gyues is sighed.

just joking!.

that Gyues, now can said a joke.....

Even so, my daughter.

Lucy, no, I guess it was Lara.

Leo is more attached to Lara than to Lucy.

from what I see, he almost never left Lara alone in her Baby bed.

Orsted also said [It's look like Lara is special].

"wan!"

"hou~, fate is it?"

facing each other, Gyues and Leo talking about something.

However, because of Leo [WanWan] language, I don't know what they actually speaking about.

"Linia, please could you translate what they're actually talking about?"

"n? Okay nya? "

listening to their conversation, Linia who is sat on my right side doing her translation job for me.

"Indeed, 100 years after Divine Beast-sama birth, assisting the person who sill save the world.....that's still handed down in our tradition"

"One! (and nyhat is you, the Durodia tribe mission!)"

"indeed that's is Durodia tribe mission, until the saviour appeared, it's our duty to looking for Divine Beast-sama "

"Wafun! (Now I found it Nya, this person daughter is the saviour.)"

"Indeed, I guess that is the only reason. But, it's never happen before in history. To think that the saviour father is the one who summoned the Divine Beast-sama, and enforce him to protect the baby..... " so it's appear that inside Linia Brain, Divine Beast is using [wagahai] to refer to himself.

somehow that's made me remember about a certain muscular Demon King.

Even so, to think that my daughter is the saviour,.

Lara who has that brazen face is the saviour.

come to think, Orsted also said something about that.....

I see.....

now I feel that I'm not young anymore.

as I though it's look like I must teach martial arts to Lara since she is young.

she will be the only child that will be learning about my secret arts directly from me.

"wanwan, wanwanwan! (well then according to the information, before she reach adulthood, the Saviour will die, we must do something to prevent that!)"

".....According to the legend, if the saviour die, the sacred tree will wither, and The Divine Beast-sama will die because of weakness "

"Grrrrrrrrrr!(and for you aiming at my master! You, did you want to kill me!?"

"..... no, I never mean that way "

"wafu! (in that case, I think there isn't any problem anymore with this!)" somehow Gyues showing a bitter face.

then, as if he is repeating some mourning pray, saying norinori and glaring at Linia who is doing the translation.

instantly, Linia curling behind me to hid herself.

don' be like that, I ask you to translate for me, don't do some funny transltion.

I'm prepared to face the punishment for my crime, I'm the only one who will receive it.

And then, Gyues opened his lips.

"Linia, is what Divine Beast-sama said is true?"

"Nye, Nyes. It's true that Divine Beast-sama toward Bo.....Toward Rudeus second daughter, he is very concerning about her and always protecting her " for Linia to use "Keigo", how rare it is.

This delinquent daughter in Shari'a, must be very scared of her father.

"daughter of human race.....It's been 20 years since The Divine Beast-sama born. I think there is still 80 years to go, but..... "

"the daughter is half human and half demon race, therefore. I think that her age will be quite long nya "

"so that's it, I see, if she has Demon Race lineage the possibility for that is quite high..... " after knowing that fact Gyues clapping his hands together.

it's look like in this past 10 years, he is also become thoughtful person.

the him from ten years ago, giving the impression of a reckless youngster who never use his head.

but, the him now is can be seen as more matured ad calm down.

I won der if it was the beast race characteristic, that after they passed the age of 30 years old their manner will be calmer.

Then, the two youngster behind Gyues suddenly shouting.

"It can't be, the Demon Race is the Saviour Nya!"

"he said that Divine Beast-sama is summoned by summoning magic, he must be deceived by some strange magic!"

Terusena and Minitona, somehow they ended up like the old Gyues.

it's really funny, when I remember how they're in the old days, they give their gratitude to me for saving them.....is they already stained by beast race?

those Two girls aside.

certainly, it's a fact that I summoned Leo by using the magic circle formation that was created by Orsted.

In that magic circle, it's look like some kind of equation to make the magical beast completely obedient to me has inputted.

and because of that magic, Leo is likely put under impression that my daughter is the saviour.

"though it's low, there is also that possibility. in that case, the fact that Rudeusdono coming here to our before. and now coming again to our residence in Large Forest, from the other side of the world. now that you come here, feeling guilty about this matter, I understand it's supposed that we will overlook this case "

"is, is that so "

Honestly.

.....excuse me, to think that they understand my situation will overlook this case.

please forgive me.

"about this Divine Beast-sama matter, as for now I think it's okay "

"really?"

"if Divine Beast-sama is the one who decree it, we will abide it "

"Wafu!"

putting his head on my lap Leo facing me and his expression said "that's only natural".

I pat him in reflex, and from his face it's look like he like it.

Terusena and Minitona making a [what with that covering?!] kind of face, their wisdom is still not enough.

Even so, if Divine Beast-sama said Okay, then it's okay.

or something like that is said by him, according to Linia translation.

she resembled Ghyslaine very much.

" however, Rudeus dono. that's for the time being.....isn't it?, then about 15 year later. By the time your second daughter growing to adulthood, please bring her here. following our tradition, I think she need to do the ritual to the sacred tree. because of the distance the trip to there will take one year, but please. Let us do our duty. "

"I understand"

so it's ritual.

I don't know what kind of ceremony, I guess it was something for formality.

let's not forget about this promise.

15 years from now, let's return to the Durodia village with Lara for her coming-of-age ceremony.

..... in order for me to not forget this future appointment, let's write this in diary.

Leo matter is already taken care of, at least for now.

somehow it's resolved easily.

I sighed and feel relieved, Gyues also relaxed his tense shoulder.

the tensed atmosphere in the room is now relaxed.

then, suddenly Gyues turn his face toward Linia.

[shiver] Linia body suddenly trembled.

"and, Linia.....the Dora cat, why are you living in the Rudeus house? "

"Ah!, that's right, this fellow, this fellow is trying to start her own bussiness but, she Borrowed (Shutdown)huph~~- "

"Listen to my wonderful story Nyah!"

Interrupting what I almost say, Linia suddenly appeared before me.

"by the way, after parting with Purusena, I'm thinking of starting a new bussiness Nya, then on a certain day a received a divine revelation from the sky, after that I followed that revelation, I arrived at Magic City Shari'a, and what I found is that Divine Beast-sama hidden in there, and then I know This is it Nyah, because of this I got revelation to visit this city again, for the sake of looking for Divine Beast-sama, the heaven give me such revelation! Achishi, in short there is no way I'm gonna forget Durodia tribe duty, rather it's the opposite, it's my duty to return to the village to report this, to fulfill my duty as the warrior from the village! " amazing.

how dare, she is so shamelessly blurting out such lies.

perhaps she is already thinking about this since from before.

Gyues face is full of doubt but, it's look like Minitona and Tersena is believing her.

Just sometime ago they're looking at her with scornful eyes, now they look at her with full of respect eyes.

These girls, is so simple.

But, there a man that maintaining his scornful look, the man who is already growing into a respectable adult.....he perfectly read this girl like a comic book.

And from his own experience he find that this isn't good, if she has grown into an adult like him.

..... but, Well lying is NG.

"Gyues-san, This fellow here, she was trying to start a new business, but, she was swindled and got caught into a huge debt, not to mention that she'd been finally sold as a slave and come to my place to get help. Well, you could say that she is tangled in another kind of debt "

"I see"

" Nyaa! Boss, don't say the true reason!"

Minitona and Tersena facial expression, instantly turn into contempt.

"And now she is working hard in my house, in order to pay her debt."

"That.....I wonder is she is Rudeus-dono slave?"

u~m.

Come to think of it, Linia is Gyues daughter.

If a man know that his daughter become a slave, what will the father think?.

If it was my case, if Lucy become a slave, then she is dead in the hand of her master, the chance of that isn't zero.

But no, lying is bad.

"That is, That's the truth.....but, I never treat her like a slave. She is a friend that need rehabilitation..... "

"No, it doesn't matter. To throw away her money-making mission and finally running away, I feel indebted toward you Rudeus, you're my family hero, I'm sorry for my family always causing you trouble, I hope I could do something to pay this debt from my family. Please do anything you want to me whether it is boiled or grilled "

Ooooooh.

Gyues, during the time I'm not see him, it's look like he understand how to speak like a man.

No, that face, rather that face is a face of someone who lamented about their bad daughter.

"Dad, wait a minute isn't that a little cruel? Achishi, however that's only a little trouble. Soon I will transformed into a noble to comfort your worry no matter what..... "

"If I remember correctly, Rudeus-dono is a man full of vitality since he is very young. mating season will began very soon, at that time please use Linia to your liking "

"Nyah! Dad, what do you think our daughter chastity is?!"

Linia raised her fist, but Gyues looking at that with sharp eyes then his eyes flashed.

He let out a howl along with thundering voice.

"Shut up. if you're a Dorudia race, return the favor with your body "

"U, uuu.....wa, I understand nya.....achishi, I'm a bad kid Nya..... "

Linia surprised and in no time, she instantly curling her body behind me to hide.

It's fine if you want to hide behind me, but don't press your breast so strongly againsts me.

Because I'm not going to accompany you in the mating season.

"Anyway, now Divine Beast-sama become like this someone must act as his caretaker, don't you agree?. We already don't have anything to pay Linia debt. So Please take her back with you "

"Understood"

Caretaker huh.

I don't think it's really necessary for Leo, but it was Durodia tribe duty.

If they want to give their aid, then there is no reason to refuse it.

Even I, just now, I feel troubled when I'm bringing Linia back to the village.

After great trouble, of bringing this girl mercenary business on track.

"However, just by Linia alone, it will cause anxiety in this side "

"I guess"

"Boss, so you are really agreeing Nyhat and really wished for that nya..... "

Said Linia with full of compassion look, somehow I understand now what Gyues feel.

Though Linia is not particularly useless child, but recently she has shown an inclination going to that side.

"So take another one.....isn't it?, choosing from this place Minitona or Tersena either one of them to take back and attending as an official caretaker" saying that to me, Minitona and Tersena come in front of me.

Both of them are dressed like a Beast race warriors.

Wearing hide armor, and wielding huge meat cleaver.

Well trained body, big boobs.

Their boobs is already big since the time they're still a small kid, now it's developed further.

Beast race is a race that loved by huge boobs.

"I'm the one who will go Nyah "

"No, it will be me"

"That person will be me, my sword skill is good, my head is also good nyah"

"That's a lie, when we're commuting to Wen Port school, my result is better "

It look like they really want to become a caretaker of Divine Beast-sama.

Although I think that 15 years after they leave this earth, then become Family head, most likely that look in their eyes will disappear.

Or, I guess that become caretaker of Divine Beast-sama is more honored position than become a family head.

" Tersena only have excellent point in magic, with exception of that I'm superior in all other aspect Nya "

"There is no such a thing, Tona is a liar"

"The one who is liar is Tersena Nya "

So that's it, these two is rivalry is just like Linia and Pursena years ago, so selfish.

Ah!.

Come to think of it.

"Where is Purusena, is she not come back yet?"

The moment he hear that, Gyues face looks like he is distressed.

Afterward, we are guided to a building located at the edge of the village.

As for me, it's a memorable old building.

I really missed this one building

I mean, I also lived here for a period of time.

It's good and very comfortable one.

Midway at those time I shared that room with a middle aged monkey faced person, nevertheless it's a good and comfortable room.

Especially it's good-----od ol perfect security.

In short, it is a prison.

It looks like Linia has some bad experience with this building, she didn't want to come in.

"....."

There Pursena, emitting considerably slutty atmosphere, rolling down on the bed.

It's not like she is naked like me, but considerable high amount of her skin is exposed.

Her sex appeal hadn't disappeared yet, thin shirt and hot pants.

Dressing like that, in the prison which mean for a person from high stature, she thrust her hand inside her pants, and scratching the base of her tail while munching on something.

Girl power is reduced.

"Hey, Pursena, Wake up!"

"n~~, I can't eat anymore..... "

When her name is called by Gyues, she is "betabeta" muttering some sleep talking answer, while "patapata" shaking her tail.

"It's time for meal"

"..... na!"

And, her body is twitching and trembling, she raised her body.

"Fa--"

When she is about to wake up, her breast bulging up from her thin shirt.

As big as ever.

Boing boing.

It is a poison of the eye.

The kind of poison in which detoxification magic can't cure it.

"Are~? There is no smell of meal "

While her nose made a sniffing sound, she is looking at her surrounding with sleepy eyes.

And, she is looking at this direction.

"Pursena, a visitor for you "

Pursena, inside the cell, has a blank look on her face.

However, when she saw my appearance, she immediately leap at the iron bar.

"Boss! That's not the case! I'm innocent! Please help me!"

I was taken aback when I see Pursena screaming while she grab the iron bar, Looking at her Gyues let out a deep sigh.

Previous story : Dog in the prison

This incident happened ten days ago.

It takes place in Durodia Village during the rainy season.

The cause is the Reinforced Lizard dried meat stored in the village warehouse, someone murdered it... that was what I wanted to say.

It was eaten by someone.

Because of this case, the Durodia warrior tribe immediately began doing an investigation for this case.

And the investigation result is, one suspect found, a female warrior.

Pursena Adorudia.

She returned to Durodia Village just a half year ago, she is the daughter of Adurodia tribe's chief.

Being the top scorer among her graduates in the Magic university Ranoa, she brought back excellent results to her village.

"I fulfilled my mission and came back as a candidate for village chief, Rinia is the lost cat-nano."

And she talked about what happened in her years in Shari'a. Immediately after that, she joined the warrior group of the Durodia tribe.

This place's families' head said, "She is in the first list of candidates both in Dedorudia and Adorudia". Her name has soared high in the Durodia Village.

But, it's not something that she could easily get used to.

To become village chief, she must serve as warrior chief until the previous village chief retires, in addition she must show ability befitting of someone who can lead others and gain trust from her warrior subordinates.

Pursena has enough ability and experience leading others so she is actually already a fine warrior chief.

Usually before entering the warrior group one needs to go a journey to see the world, Pursena was already away from her village for more than ten years, but she still lacks experience with the warrior group.

With that said, the current village chief Gyues provided her with a training period.

She will work and study inside the village, as a warrior chief she must remember her group members' faces and odor, then someday become village chief..... that is how the original plan was.

It wouldn't be an exaggeration to say that it's an elite course.

Pursena, by using her advanced healing magic to the fullest, she gained the warriors' trust in an instant.

It seems Gyues also determined that she passed his test, After this rainy season it would have been time to pick a son-in-law, assuming the warrior chief declared that she wanted it.

Then that incident happened.

The day that incident happened.

Around midnight of that day.

Pursena was on duty to guard the warehouse.

In the warehouse, there was a large amount of preserved food stored for the rainy season.

Every night it's guarded by a team consisting of two people.

And the one who was paired with her that night was Kanalna, a warrior from the Adurodia tribe.

That day, Kanalna's body condition was a little bad.

She was wounded the previous day when she was repelling the demons that attacked the village, and that injury had an after effect to her body even if it was already healed.

She said herself that this wasn't that important, but the testimony said, "When it was time for the shift change, her face was already blue colored."

Like that, Pursena was opposing her to attend to her duty and gave her an order as warrior chief, "Go back to your home and take a rest, I will take responsibility in your place."

Following her order, Kanalna decided that it was better for her to go back to her room and sleep.

She intended to only sleep for a bit, but maybe because of her body's instinct to heal her injury, Kanalna slept soundly.

Then, early morning of the next day.

When it was time for the guards to switch, one person arrived at the warehouse.

But when he came, no one was keeping watch in front of the warehouse.

Not feeling confident, he tried to peek inside the warehouse-
-----.

The food in that place was eaten by someone, with some trace of meat around her mouth, Pursena was sleeping in the warehouse with a full stomach.

Caught redhanded, Pursena was immediately arrested.

In Durodia Village, stealing food during rainy season is a felony.

The warriors' evaluation of her took a 180 turn, she was forced to resigned from her position as warrior chief.

Naturally, she also won't become village chief.

This is why she was thrown into the jail.

However, the main suspect Pursena said.

"That day, I was unconscious because someone hit me from behind, and when I came to I was already inside the warehouse!"

"Someone wants to frame me! That fucking rascal-nano! Boss, please-nano! Please catch the true culprit!"

"Surely, there is someone that didn't want me to become the village chief! Minitona and Terusena are the most suspicious ones!"

"That alone is already strange. If I was the culprit, I wouldn't do something like this to my target!"

It was very obvious that after sending Kanalna back to her room, you immediately ate small portions of the meats!"

Pursena kept claiming that she was innocent.

I also had some experience in it myself, my first impression of people from the Beast Race, is that they're easy to give a false charge.

It is one of their forte.

If she really isn't the one who did that, then I will help her.

With that in mind, I try to do a little investigation.

Durodia Village, the village where the Adorudia tribe and Dedorudia tribe live in harmony.

To raise Divine Beast-sama, many village warriors attend to him to protect him, so that they won't be short in power, many children are reared and the married people usually have many children.

Now they're a very large family numbering about 500 heads, and they live above the trees.

With a stream of muddy water outside during rainy season, their houses look like islands.

The chance that the culprit is an outsider is almost none.

If it was, then it's someone who can move like me and many more difficult ideas come to my brain.

The main suspect Pursena said, that inside the village the line of men who want to mate with her is long.

Then I immediately get my assistant Yasu and my helping inspector Gyues, I began to collect evidence from the testimonies of people that were involved in this incident.

"This mean, Yasu it's time to go!"

"Who is Yasu nya?"

"It's you Rinia. Now I will call you Yasu, a certain assistant from a certain country." [\[1\]](#) [\[2\]](#)

"Oh, so that's it..."

Inspector Gyues also didn't say anything.

Thinking that this is useless, but now is the time to move.

- "First testimony, the one who found her in the morning, warrior Gimel"

"Are you the first person who found her?"

"Yes."

When I saw this youth, I got some sense of déjà vu.

Somehow, I got the feeling that I saw him somewhere before.

So I asked.

Gimel → Ask → Event from the Past [\[3\]](#)

"You, did we met somewhere before?"

"Yes, ten years ago when I fell into the water you're the one who helped me."

Ah, I see.

Ten years ago, come to think of it.

During the rainy season, I together with Ruijerd helped a kid.

At that time, the boy waved his tail.

So nostalgic.

Well, let's put that aside in the meantime.

Now back to our incident.

"At the site of the crime ten days ago, what did Pursena look like when she was found?"

"Let's see, the box of dried meat was opened, Pursena was sleeping while she was leaning on them facing the door and she said, 'I can't eat anymore' happily with her bulging stomach."

The scene at that time, somehow I could perfectly imagine it just like he said.

".....In other words, there were practically no eyewitnesses that saw whether Pursena had really eaten the dried meat or not, right?"

"Yes. But there was some meat left in between Pursena's teeth. And from the half eaten meat that was scattered around that place, Pursena's saliva smell could be detected."

Durodia's unique way for carrying out their investigation.

This incident, just by the smell alone it could be easily resolved.

They really have absolute confidence, in their own noses.

With that as their weapon it's become, "The saliva smell has been detected", and that's already become more than enough evidence.

But that kind of investigation process is full of holes.

"Though Pursena's belly looked like she was full..... but there is a chance that inside her belly there was only air that was trapped and blocked. Isn't there?"

"No, from her burp I could smell the dried lizard meat from it. I have no doubt about it, she was the one who ate it herself."

There was no hole.

From the smell that came from inside of her stomach, it's almost certain that Pursena is the one who ate the meat.

We can bisect her with a large pair of scissors and look directly inside of her stomach, but I don't want to use this kind of method as much as possible. [\[4\]](#)

"Is there really nothing else inside?"

For example..... something like footprints of someone else other than Pursena?"

"Whether it's footprints, smell, or hairs, nothing is left."

I see.

At least, the true culprit is doing his job perfectly.

- "Testimony of Pursena's partner that night, Kanalna"

"Kanalna-san, on your day of duty, how was Pursena's appearance?"

"Yes, she was repeatedly saying, 'I didn't eat anything since morning, so hungry-nano'."

It looks like Pursena was very hungry that day.

But, this fact is very odd.

The Pursena that I know, she was always eating meat whether it was meal time or not.

Dried meat, smoked meat, and occasionally raw meat.

To think that kind of girl, DIDN'T EAT ANYTHING....

What is the true culprit's aim?

"I wonder, why didn't she eat anything?"

"When the warriors were fighting against the demon invasion the day before, quite a number of warriors were injured."

The report says that too, that the day before the incident a large-scale of demons appeared.

There were no civilians wounded by that large-scale attack, but I heard many of the warrior group were injured.

"Ho~~"

"Because Pursena is the only advanced healing magician in this village, she was running around to several places, going back and forth to treat the injured warriors.

And in the end her magical power was running out....."

Pursena's magical power was running out.

I have also experienced it, running out of magical power then losing consciousness, and not being able to even wake up for half a day.

In Pursena's case, she didn't faint..... she must keep her consciousness for her duty time.

Just like that she, without drinking or eating, carried on doing her duty as she was.

"Did she eat something, she has a choice to do that right?"

"That's the rule."

Basically in Durodia Village during rainy season, eating snacks outside of meal time is prohibited.

The stored food absolutely must be enough for three months, so there is a very strict management on it.

"Pursena can take a rest when she is on duty, there is an option like that right?"

"Because the number of demons that attacked the previous day was the most we had, quite few warriors were already on bed rest.

We didn't have enough hands.

I also advised her to take a break from duty and rest, but she said 'I only feel a little hungry'."

I see.

To become village chief, she was filled with a sense of duty, that's admirable.

If it was the me from the old days; I would have made this and that reason to take a rest.

"And, that led to this incident."

"Yes, even now, at least it would have been fine if she was eating something while on duty."

After hearing that, taking that situation into consideration, I feel that I got some leads to this case.

No, Pursena insisting that she wasn't the one who ate the dried meat.

- "Yasu's Opinion"

"Rinia... I mean Yasu, after hearing those stories just now, what do you think?"

For the time being, I will listen to my assistant's opinion.

She is Pursena's friend.

"That girl, I think she is the culprit nya."

"Hmm"

"Since a long time ago whenever she felt hungry Pursena has a habit of snatching food from her surroundings.

When we were still enrolled in school, she often snatched my fish and dried meat nya."

Yeah...there is a criminal record.

Thus, after listening to the full story.

I found that someone's testimony was really strange.

Luckily there is only one person who is lying and that person is.

And that would be.

→ Pursena.

Yes, it's Pursena.

That girl, she just didn't confess her actions until the very end. Still saying that someone hit her from behind.

Let's return to Pursena's room once again, and hear her story.

Moving → Village outskirts → Pursena Gaol → Listen to her story → The incident

"Pursena, if you truly didn't do it, look at my eyes and say it."

"It's true-nano, Boss, please believe me...."

Pursena put her hands together, and her eyes are sparkling.

However, her tail is moving in a dubious way.

Let's trick her a little.

"Before I leave, it's possible for me to become your advocate in this village."

"Waa, as expected of Boss!"

"But, if it's found out after I leave this village that you have lied to me, then I won't let you eat meat for a year as punishment."

"O, O, O, Of course that's true-nano."

"But, swear to GOD?"

"S, Swear to....!"

Pursena's eyes are swimming from left to right.

This guy is suspicious.

This is, it's the eyes of a liar.

"Listen, I absolutely won't forgive anyone who insults my God. Do you really swear by the name of my God?"

I move my hands across the iron bar and grip Pursena's head firmly, let's listen to her answer while looking at her eyes.

Pursena should already know, the thing about me being a devout man.

Her face's color suddenly becomes ghastly pale, her body is trembling.

While trying to hide her crotch with her tail, she is trying to grasp forward with both her hands.

"Now what are your words?"

"I, I was the culprit..."

Case closed.

The incident was resolved.

The culprit is of course, Pursena Adurodia.

She didn't admit her crime, not until an outsider made her confessing her crime, and her punishment will be left to that person.

This rascal.

But, she is tempted by the evil meat, maybe she is also one of the victims.

"Gyues-san, sorry for troubling you."

"It's nothing... but, is it really okay with Pursena?"

Gyues having seen this series of events and listening to my conclusion is amazed.

"So what do you want to talk about?"

"The talk about the one person that will go as the caretaker of Divine Beast-sama from our village."

His face saying please take it as you like.

"Ah, nope, I don't think we need one."

Of course, I do not need one.

More than this, the number of big breasted women around me will be increased, that will only raise the suspicion of me cheating.

Generally, I want someone such as Roxy and Sylphy, but I don't need the stupid ones.

After all, the simple Pursena is an angel factor to increase the number of excuses.

Eris will be happy.

"Is that so, however, who you will bring between Minitona and Terusena?"

"No, aren't those two already village chief candidates? Already different person...."

While talking with Gyues, were getting out of jail.

"A-, wait nano! Boss, don't leave me behind-nano! My time to rise-nano---! I wanted it----! I don't want to live without meat-nano!"

We ignored the wailing voice that came from behind us.

"Nyahahahaha!"

And, Rinia that was waiting for us outside, the first time she goes inside she is laughing very hard.

Previously, she was also imprisoned in a nude state before.

Apparently she also experienced this a long time ago, trapped in the nude here, Remembering those humiliating times, she refused to come in with an unpleasant face.

"Yoo Pursena, you look so terrible nyaaa!"

"Ri, Rinia!? I smelled your odor sometime ago! Why are you here!?"

Before I was aware of it, Rinia put her sunglasses on.

The one that she usually uses at work.

To hide her dollar shaped eyes.

"Why? Fufu... I nyonder why?"

While saying so, Rinia pushed my hand, and pressed it against her chest.

Nonono I can't.

Aaa, noo, the smell of sexual excitement....

"No, no way, Rinia.....and Bo, Boss....?"

Pursena leaned her nose toward our position and sniffed, suddenly her face shivered.

One end of Rinia lips is grinning.

That's devilish smile.

"Well nyaa..... ah, when I recall that passionate night nyah.

I was sleeping in the bedroom, Boss carrying me with Ohime-sama dakko..... [\[5\]](#)

AAAA, I can't say more than this nyaaa!

However, that day I, was crying a lot in front of Boss nyah."

Carried indeed, then thrown outside of the room. She was tossed away.

After that, she was weeping inside of Eris' room.

She didn't lie at all until the last moment.

"No, no way, Boss... we're inferior to Roxy and Sylphy, that's why you never turn your eyes to us!"

"Nya-ha!, Isn't that because Pursena isn't charming enough?

At that time I'm alone nyaa.

Weeell, the Asura noble from the Greyrat house lineage is really intense nyaaa.

Just the first night, my ribs nyended up broken nya."

"Ri, Ribs.....! Wha, What a violent copulation-nano!"

Ah, so it was her first night with Ellis.

While she was sleeping, she was strangled[hugging pillow] to death by Eris.

I, Leo, and Rinia were all done in by Eris' power.

The next morning, it looks like with a half crying face, Rinia begged Sylphy to apply healing magic on her.

U~n, regarding that she isn't crying yet.

"Ri, Rinia, be, become Boss wife?"

"No, nyot his bride...but, something similar to his slave nya."

"Slave!?"

Covering her mouth with both of her hands, Pursena's face is turned red.

U~n, slave...it's not that wrong either.

"Well, my position is considerably good nyaa.

Though a slave, I'm entrusted with some works, now I have 50 subordinates under me nya.

Similar to Pursena, but I'm not thrown into gaol, and received Boss' affection.

A, but I wonder if Durodia Village's chief position is as good as that nya?

So Pursena, don't regret nyis experience...
Nyahahahahaha!"

Loud laughter is echoing inside the gaol.

"Rinia-----!"

"Gashagasha" sound could be heard, Pursena with a bright red face shaking the iron bars.

But, after a little while her hands gradually lost power.

Being powerless Pursena could only kneel on the floor.

"Gusu... this is too much-nano, that day was really busy, I didn't eat anything from morning... I want to eat too, at most, I only ate the same amount of one meal, in that case it could be replaced with the demon that I defeated, It should be more than enough to compensate-nano...."

Inside the gaol, she continued her weeping and lamenting.

And, Rinia immediately left from my side.

"Haa~, I'm satisfied now nyaaa...."

She said that with quite a satisfied face.

Such an awful fellow....

But, I think Pursena's actions are also justified.

According to the story that I heard, the demon attack happened from early morning until over midnight.

And caused huge damage, and that happened right on her watch duty day.

For the healing magician Pursena, that caused a big toll on her.

After repelling the demons, Pursena desperately used her healing magic repeatedly.

Thanks to that, there should be many warriors whose lives were saved by her.

However, in the end Pursena's magical power depleted and she experienced magic out.

After she woke up, she should have eaten her meal, but soon it was her night duty time.

Although, there is the theft accident.

While it's true that she didn't eat anything from morning until her night duty, that's not a reason for her to be sneaking bites.

The me from the previous world, when the crime of police officers from Elite corps come to light.

That said there is still room for leniency, but a crime is a crime.

She broke village rule.

Even if she is warrior chief and soon to be village chief, it's still unavoidable.

"E~r, Boss, father!"

Then Rinia turned her body facing I and Gyues with a serious expression.

"I have a request nya."

She bowed.

It's a 45-degree bow.

"....Pursena, I want her to become Divine Beast-sama's caretaker nya."

Then Rinia lifted her face up, and sent a strong glance to I and Gyues.

I look in her eyes, those are the eyes of someone that was straightened out once.

"I, in a far away land in the distant country, used to keep trying hard to become village chief nya.

Putting great effort more than anyone alone nya.

Trying nyo hard, but in the end failed nya.

I, in the end, lost to Pursena's technique and was forced to surrender my right, But, I agree that Pursena is the most fit one to become village chief nya.

But, with only one mistake that led to her ruin, that's too much nya."

Then, Rinia paused a bit to take a breath, she looked at Gyues' eyes.

"I want to give her a chance nya.

Five years from now, no.. .. 10 years from now.

If Pursena does a good job as Divine Beast-sama's caretaker.

Completed her duty properly, then bring Boss' daughter back to undergo her ceremony, I wish her crime this time is forgiven nya.

I nyow I can't say this to village chief, I only wanted to give her a punishment suitable for her position nya."

Being experiencing school life, she isn't talking through muscle again.

Rinia herself, abandoned her duty, and became a merchant.

For that reason she originally didn't have a right to make a request.

To begin with, this crime, is the result of Pursena's lack of self-control.

If it's according to the story that I heard, certainly there is room for negotiation of her crime.

Something like, Hurray you did it, Hurray you did it.

Or, congratulations for preserving this far, the result is exceedingly good.

But that event didn't happen.

"That will do."

Gyuesu also said so.

Even if the past bygone, but what already happened can't be cancelled.

That's only natural.

But,

But,

As for my own feeling.

Because of her great effort, I want her to be rewarded for that.

Pursena, kept persisting.

Every day, while chewing meat, she took lessons seriously.

Since I took the same healing magic class with her, I know that she tried her best.

There is no doubt about it, she did her best more than others.

Therefore, even if the beast race doesn't have a very good head, she was able to take the first seat in school rank.

With that kind of great effort, she must be rewarded.

That is my wish.

The same case with me if I work hard, I also want to be rewarded.

I not only think that.

"Gyues-san, can I also make a request?"

"Huh? Boss?"

But, if it was I, I want someone to give a reward in this current situation.

As much as possible, I want to be rewarded.

"...."

Gyues had a bitter face for a while now.

But, he immediately raised his face.

"I see. That's a good idea."

If he it was Gyues 10 years ago, he definitely wouldn't have backed down with Pursena's judgment.

It's not like I think that his judgment is right.

That's only my ego.

"Rinia, Pursena. Fulfill your duty perfectly. Understand?"

"Yes Nya!"

"Y, yes-nano!"

Those two girls instantly bowed their heads.

Watching that, I suddenly realized something.

As I thought, these two act better when they're together.

We're returning via Holy Sword Highway by raft. After we arrived at the stone monument mark I blew the whistle to summon Almanfi, then by using the sky fortress, we returned to Shari'a.

"I really missed this place-nano... once I'm the summit of this city, I didn't think that I would back to this city again...."

Upon arriving at the Magic city Shari'a, Purusena muttered to herself with a deep strong emotional voice.

So, she returned to this place.

It can be said that to her, the magic city Shari'a is her second home.

"A, Pursena I forgot to say something nya."

"What-nano? Just a while ago I'm feeling a strong emotion-nano, so make it brief."

"I need a little help therefore, will you become my servant for a while?"

"Eh?"

As Rinia's servant.

Be warned that the degree of translation error may be higher than usual due to the translation method employed.

Chirping sound of the birds, just like the cry of a sparrow, hearing that I open my eyes.

"N..... is it already morning?"

I stretched my body as strong as I could which caused a crisp sound around my muscle at the spine, then after yawning I get up.

"Afa....."

Looking next to me, it is a girl which her blue colored hair is sparkling under the light of the morning sun.

It's Roxy.

Or should I say God.

And a bit further next to her, lied a blue haired baby.

Child of a Goddess and a man, Perseus.

Rather, it's my daughter Lara.

Next to her.

Under the bed, rounded like a silver ball.

Is Leo the divine beast.

He is now officially known, transferred here by the beast race because of a certain matter, since I had a hunch that I must show my face to them soon.

Maybe, it looks like because I have a feeling that Rinia and Pursena will be very famished.

Nevertheless, to think that Lara is extremely lucky. ..

Lara is the saviour.

It was so shocking, though I already predicted it to some extent.

But, there is something special in this child.

There is some part in me that feeling ecstasy, but let's not show that too much.

Since acting like that is the same as attaching superior or inferior label to the children.

"N~... Ah, good morning, Rudy....."

Roxy woke up.

While rubbing her sleepy eyes, she raised her body.

Her chest that got bigger because of her pregnancy is showing itself under the sunshine.

Regrettably, if it's looked at with evil eyes, the eyes will get smashed.

But oh, my eyes are attracted to the evil at that place.

Oh, God. Please help this poor soul.

"Are? Why is Lara...? Rudy are you the one who brought her?"

Roxy, with half asleep eyes looking at me and her daughter beside her.

Tilting her head, she is gently brushing Lara's silky hair.

"Don't remember, that yesterday, you brought her yourself?"

"...Are!"

Yesterday, after our blazing night, we fell asleep until suddenly Lara who usually doesn't cry at night, began crying.

Roxy left the bedroom with a half asleep face, with an unstable way of walking, brought Lara to the bedroom, changed her diaper, and fed her With milk, after she lulled Lara to sleep, she began to sleep.

As for Leo, he followed Lara to the bedroom of course.....

Well, It's fine even if she didn't remember it.

"...Fa~~"

Remained with her still sleepy face, Roxy yawned once.

"I will do my usual morning training."

"Is that so. Then I will sleep a little longer with Lara since today is a holiday."

While saying that, Puff, Roxy fell to the bed again.

"Yes, good night."

"Good night."

Instantly, I could hear Roxy's sleeping sound, then I left the bedroom.

After changing my clothes, I go out into the hallway.

Suddenly I got a sudden thought, I opened Sylphy's bedroom door.

Sylphy is still sleeping.

Together with Lucy, it looks like they're enjoying sleeping together.

For the time being, Lucy is given her own room, though sometimes Sylphy also accompanies her.

Once in a while, I think it's good for parents and their child to sleep together in the same bedroom, forming kanji of river.

But, nothing can be done to my strong sexual desire, since we're sleeping together we must do something about that.....

We must act with discretion in front of the children, we can't be too open when showing our passionate nights.

Anyway, I'm satisfied being blessed with this wonderful scene, then I close the door again.

Next, I peeked in Eris' room.

Looking at Eris in the early morning.

I wonder what is going to happen?

"Ugh..... Ugh....."

When I think that, I saw a poor soul on the bed.

Pressing her face with both hands, she is trembling a little.

Though she has a huge breasts, her hair isn't red.

She has dog ears and a tail.

Her eyes usually always look sleepy, but somehow it's a little watery today.

"Oh, Boss..... Good morning-nano....."

It's Pursena.

After that event at Durodia Village, she is followed us coming back to the magic city Shari'a.

When Pursena came, there was only one person who was very delighted.

It was Eris.

She was looking at Pursena with her tongue out and said, "This child is quite cute".

Looking at her, Rinia trembled with fear, while Pursena was the opposite.

"As expected of me-nano, even boss' wife is pleased meeting with me for the first time."

She pushed out her huge chest and looked at Rinia's face.

The moment Rinia saw Pursena's attitude, "Flash", her eyes flashed and flattered her.

"Iya~~, that's amazing nyaa, to think that you could please and be patted by the "Berserk sword king" over there, as expected of Pursena nya. I always want her to do that to me nya."

"Ufu~, Rinia is being unreasonable-nano."

Pursena got carried away.

She approached Eris while her tail was waving, her ears brushed gently, and her tail got praised. That's a little excessive to be called skinship, but I guess because she is from the Dog race therefore, she muttered while giving a sidelong glance to her frilly tail, "I'm a sinful woman-nano. Even Boss' woman is completely captivated by my charm".

Looking at her, I could only give her a bitter smile.

Usually I would get annoyed, but I can't help but to put a bitter smile toward the scene that happened before me.

Looking at Pursena's attitude, Eris eagerly stepped on further.

"Since I guess sleeping alone will be lonely, we will sleep together once in a while!"

And, here came the proposal.

As for Pursena's consent toward this proposal, "This was only a matter of time before the junior surpasses the senior-nano" she agreed.

Realizing that Rinia was giving a Nyishishishi laugh, at Pursena who will be spending a night with Eris periodically.

And, got one or two broken bones from Eris' Maximum Powered Hug, that really is a sad sight.

"U~h..... My breasts hurt....."

To Pursena who looked like she was in great pain, I applied healing magic on her.

Her breasts are still as big as usual, but there was no problem, after I spent a night with Roxy today I'm a sage.

".....I'm saved"

While receiving thanks from Pursena, I went off to the first floor.

I went into the entranceway without changing my clothes, then grabbed the wooden sword that was strapped beside the front door.

Then it appeared, before the front door, Eris is standing like a Niou statue.

Folding her arms, and opening her legs at shoulder width.

Her big stomach has become more stretched out.

As if she was a gate guardian, she stood before the front gate.

"Eris, good morning."

"Rudeus, good morning."

Today Eris is also in high spirits.

I realized that after looking at her face.

I guess, it was because she was comfortable with hugging Pursena all night long.

Rinia and Pursena.

Currently, those two are renting a residence which is close to the Rudo Mercenary office.

Similar to Cliff's large apartment, also, since those two are best friends, they agreed to share their room together.

Once it was dusk, those two will come alternatively to see Leo, and accompany him to take a stroll.

But they only do their official duty since, being stationed permanently at my house, it won't be amusing if that caused discord with my family members, so it's good.

As for Eris, those two are alternately invited to her room, as her hugging pillow.

Rinia is somehow always trying to escape from that, but she can't escape from Eris.

At least, one of them is free of debt.

When I see the faces of one of those two, disappear into Eris' room, I somehow feel a little jealous.

I also want to get invited into her room once in a while.

I'm also a member of Eris' harem, so it's very reasonable, that I want her compassion [love].

Well, I guess I could embrace her again, after she has given birth.

Are~?

Isn't something get reversed?

It's strange, normally I'am the center of this house or so I thought.....

Well that's fine anyway.

"By the way, what is his name?"

"I'm still thinking of his name. As I thought it must be a heroic."

Thinking about that since early in the morning, and when I'm about going out.

I think that she is like a watch dog.

"A heroic name huh, I guess it was a good name if it was a boy."

"Such as Ars, or Aldebaran, or Kalman....."

"U~m wait a minute, let's do something about those names that are too heroic."

Everyone, did they really want the name of the past hero?

Well, I'm fine with any name.

However, it must not be a very old name, so he won't become a target of bullying I guess.

"Rudeus, any ideas?"

"I think for a girl name. Such as Alice, or Fran..... that's a pretty name and it's quite good I wonder."

"It's a boy, why did you think of a girl name?"

Eris is seriously pondering about it.

"If the one that born is girl, she will become a poor girl with boy name."

".....It's absolutely a boy."

Eris goes into her Tsun-mode and turned her face to the side.

Well then, at least there won't be a problem thinking about a girl or a boy name.

Such as Maki, or Kaoru..... Nope, that isn't the name of this side.

Well, we can still think about this matter until the first month of the year.

"Then, I'm going inside first."

"Have a nice time."

Recently, Eris doesn't do her usual swinging practice.

Now, her pregnancy is entering its sixth month.

It looks like she is aware of that as a pregnant woman, or merely acting based on her instinct.

She doesn't have a strong motherly feeling, but no matter what she will still give birth to her child.

While thinking about this and that, I started my morning training.

By the way at breakfast time, all the family members gather together.

Aisha and Lilia are the waitresses.

Zenith sits on a chair and immerses her self in thought.

Sitting next to her, is Norn since I'm rarely at home we often miss each other.

Next to Norn, is Lucy sitting in her chair quietly, while her legs are flapping around.

And next to her is Sylphy, telling Lucy to not do that.

On the other side of the table, is Roxy with her eyes that are still sleepy, giving breast milk to Lara.

Just like her mother, Lara also drinks it with a sleepy face.

Always following that scene, sitting with a dignified face, and having Pursena's head on her lap while she is gently patting her head is Eris.

Still completely exhausted, Pursena just lets Eris do anything to her, but when the food comes her tail is standing and swaying happily.

I sat next to Eris.

I'm at the end of the table. The so called seat of honor.

Though there is no such concept here.

However, the table is really big, and yet it still feels cramped here.

Soon there won't be enough room in this house.

I guess Lara will also grow up soon.

No, by the time that happens, I wonder if there is a possibility that Norn will be out of the house?

After graduating from the school, what will she do?

As for Aisha, I guess she will stay here even after she reaches adulthood.

"Norn."

"Yes, what is it Onii-san?"

"You, after graduating from school, what are you going to do after that?"

When I asked that, she had a perplexed look on her face, then she looked back at me.

".....Not yet, I still haven't thought about it, but?"

"I see."

Well, she is still in her fifth year, and she is the student council president.

She has yet to reach adulthood.

She didn't think that far yet.

"U~m, Nii-san."

"What?"

"If, this is for example."

"Uhuh."

"Let's just say, if I want to do something like an adventurer, will you oppose it?"

Adventurer huh.

Norn as an adventurer.

Her sword technique is doing fairly well, and in these five years her magic is also progressing very well.

I guess it was enough for her to become a good adventurer.

I wonder if she is longing to become an adventurer after hearing Paul's stories about his time as one.

Well, there is still some concern about it.

The thing about Norn is, isn't she will stepped on somewhere clumsily, and die easily.

And, to this lovely adventurer, it seems that men will easily gather.....

Recently, because I often see adventurers in a pinch, nothing but bad images are floating in my mind.

"I won't oppose it, but I can't help but feel worried..... Do you really want to become an adventurer?"

"No, it's not like I want to become an adventurer. It was just a sudden thought."

Norn shook her head.

Adventurer, whether or not she really wants to become one.

After graduating from the Magic University if by then, she has a stable income from becoming an adventurer then it's good, or having more stable work but.....

No, since it was about money, perhaps her goal is something other than that.

If it's like that, then I will respect her.

"Gochisousama. I'm going to school."

"Yes, bon voyage."

After Norn finished her meal, she immediately grabbed her school bag, and stood quickly from her chair.

Roxy is enjoying the holiday, but it looks like Norn still has some student council work.

It sure is hard.

After saying bon voyage to her family, Norn goes to the school.

"It's not like I oppose it, but if Norn-nee becomes an adventurer I worry something will happen to her."

After Norn is gone, Aisha says that quietly.

"I'm also thinking to let Norn do what she loves. I think that is her own right."

"I'm opposing it. Norn-sama is, Paul-sama's and Zenith-sama's most important daughter. She will be married to an appropriate person befitting her status, that way I think we will send her to a safe and more secure life."

"I also agree. Norn's sword technique has still a way to go, but becoming an adventurer is fun indeed."

After Norn is no longer here, her family here began to talk what fits her the most.

Of course, it doesn't mean that everything is decided by this family's council.

"Well, how about making her familiar with adventurers first. That's what I think if her family opposes her, and silently leaving on her own house."

Finally, with Roxy's awfully heavy words, the breakfast of the day is completed.

We left the house, Pursena and Aisha go towards the Mercenary office's direction.

As for Pursena, her position is the Vice-Director.

The reason is to help Rinia, something like the so called secretary (Private), but her position is the Vice-Director.

Inside the director room, wearing a black suit and sunglasses.

Without cigarettes of course, or some other funny idea.

Now, the rascal is using a hat for the executives' management.

"Then, let's do our best."

"IISSEE, Boss!"

"Let's earn a lot today!"

"Don't show that too much."

And, with her nail she is taking a tube and from inside it, the list of group members..... beginning to work out, with this list of members.

There are 50 names on the list.

Among them, the one who is particularly good with paperwork is marked.

I will show this list to Orsted, then pick someone with the lowest possibility to become Hitogami's apostle from that list.

After he is interviewed behind the scenes, he will be earnestly placed in the main office helping with something like office management and sorting the documents.

"I mean, with that kind of work if in case, well I think it's fine let's do this....."

Somehow, I didn't want to discuss that kind of thing with Aisha.

Certainly, If I discuss it with Aisha the efficiency will greatly rise.

However, if she, by chance of 10000 : 1, saw Orsted.

Possibly, for some reason or other the curse is invoked on her.

It's possible that Aisha will show hostility towards Orsted.

I feel that if Aisha really opposed me working under Orsted, I get the feeling that my movement will be greatly hindered.

She is living her every day lazily, but if she starts to move, she can produce great results in early stage.

I'm afraid that by the time I noticed that Aisha is moving behind the scenes, Orsted would already be at the bottom of the ocean.

There might also be a certain reason.

As though I'm thinking too much about it.

"Aisha, please take care of the Mercenary company."

And, for now let's just say that.

Leaving the guardroom, Orsted is facing my direction.

I tell my activity this last month to him.

Rinia and Pursena acting as the chief of the Mercenary Company, and leaving Aisha to assist them.

Concerning what was mentioned before, especially the opposition part.

"There was that nothing happened so far, continue like before."

And, for my interesting action, I got an amusing answer instead.

As for permission to get a clerk for this office, from the list he said, "I think either one of these two is fine" just like that he selected a clerk.

By some chance, maybe he already expected this.

"Even so those girls, Pursena and Rinia, how about their figures? Their condition didn't affect history right?"

"The typical result of which one of them that becomes the village chief, there will be a big change in history."

The typical result of which one of them that becomes the village chief.

This time, Pursena won by a hair breadth and maintained her position as village chief candidate.

Though Rinia was defeated, it is still possible for her to become a village chief if she liked.

If that really happened, I will carry the responsibility seriously.

"Because of your influence in this time axis, the people that got involved with you usually have their destiny greatly changed.

Therefore I can't say for sure."

That was painful to my ears.

But, I just want to live in peace.

For that, I must endure this lecture.

"Even so, to think that my daughter is the saviour, Orsted-sama did you know about this?"

"No, the partner of Divine beast was always another man."

Well, because Lara is never born in the loop before, it could be either.

"But, from your story, I know that Hitogami was trying very hard so your fate and Roxy wouldn't be tied together. Therefore I guess that your destinies are very strong."

With my daughter's birth, she pushed away the original hero from his seat, and took it for herself.

"By the way, about the original saviour, what kind of person was he?"

"The man who will defeat The Demon Laplace when he is revived."

"I see..... The other person, the other Saviour is he alright?"

"Why do you care? As far as I know, that person and his companion will kill Laplace. The Divine Beast and his partner will get aid..... They're not a necessary piece."

In the Past, when he fought with Laplace in his loop many times, they become a powerful ally.

But, now I wonder if winning against Laplace isn't necessary anymore?

"Lara too, is she destined to be burdened with the battle against Laplace?"

"Well.

But, as far as Hitogami is concerned, the other party wants Laplace to disappear.

With your daughter born, the thing won't go as he wants....

Your daughter, rather than to Laplace, I guess she is more like a major obstacle to Hitogami."

So Lara is an important factor for defeating Hitogami in the future.

And that, no more than a prediction.

Because in this loop, there are many factors that even Orsted didn't know about.

"As I thought, from now on Lara will be targeted by Hitogami....."

For now, that's my only worry.

My cute daughter is being targeted, that's pretty worrying.

But, Orsted shook his head.

"That's what the Divine Beast is for. With the strong fate of the Divine Beast, Hitogami can't easily put his hand on Lara."

".....Ha~~h."

"Besides, if anything does happen, I have no intention of watching your family die. That's why you shouldn't worry."

Well.

If Orsted is going as far as saying that, I can be relieved for the time being.

I, I'm up to the task.

And just like before, it's preparation for "The Next Battle".

After leaving the office, I went to school.

There is still some anxiety remaining about Lara.

But, only feeling anxiety, won't solve anything.

Let's switch the mood.

"Fu~u....."

All right, I switched.

Completely switched. So it's alright.

Now, I guess I will see if Zanoba and Cliff's research has made new progress.

Mashirubeyoroi too, the over fuel consumption is getting better but.

As for now, only I can use it....

No, if the power consumption gets better that will result in anyone being able to use it, it will be troublesome if it was stolen by someone from Hitogami's side.

Well, either way it could happen.

I was also expecting that case, when Cliff and Elinalise were engaging in the production of their second child in the morning.

Those two, for some reason they often do that the first thing in the morning.

One round in the morning, then charging again before the night comes, doing again in the night, and charging again when they sleep.

I guess with that kind of life cycle.

Cliff kidneys won't hold for long.

Well then, I guess I will show my face to Zanoba's place first as usual.

By the way, as for Zanoba, let's start first with the result of Mashirubeyoroi's research.

Then, connecting to the Mercenary Company, and continue to consult about the plan for recruiting a clerk from there.

Once this is done, eating lunch, and going to Cliff's place.

The prototype model, and brought that to Orsted's place.

Lets go with that flow.

And after making that simple plan, I entered the research building.

"Are you an idiot!"

All of sudden a jeer can be heard.

I won't deny that I'am an idiot, but hearing it suddenly is painful.

Who is the fool who said idiot just now.

"I know, that you also know?"

Hearing that, naturally I go to the source of that voice.

I'm looking for the owner of that voice, and instantly found him. He is on the bottom of the staircase.

There are five people.

All of them, are my acquaintances.

"If you're going back, you will only get yourself killed!"

The one that shouted earlier is Cliff.

While he grabbed Zanoba chest, Cliff was shouting at his maximum voice with a terrifying attitude.

Behind him, is Elinalise carrying her baby showing a somewhat difficult face.

Zanoba didn't move at all, he was only looking down at Cliff with cold eyes.

Behind him is the frail Julie trying to restrain him, as for Cliff, he is relying on his piercing eyes.

Julie is at his feet, looking at Zanoba she is about to cry at any moment.

Quarreling..... Them, this is strange.

Something, just happened.

"Zanoba, Cliff!"

My voice climbed through the stairs, hearing that they turn their heads toward me.

Cliff is making a face like he needs my assistance.

Zanoba's face is expressionless.

For the first time, Zanoba is showing an expression similar to a person who was looking at an insect.

No, I got the feeling that I've seen that expression once before.

That was where I wonder.....

"Shisou, you have come at the right place. Come to think of it, now is almost the time for your visit."

"Rudeus, it's good that you have come to this place, please help me persuade Zanoba!"

Those two opening their mouths at the same time.

Zanoba with a sullen face, he is violently pushing Cliff.

From the look of it, it didn't contain that much power, but being a Miko with superhuman power, Cliff tripped and fell on his butt.

Looking at that, in a moment Zanoba's face changed, but he was approaching me without apologizing.

Since he is taller than me by one head, I'm looking up at him.

"....What is the problem?"

"A request for Julie. Buy her with a more expensive price, though originally she is Shishou's slave."

Zanoba said that so easily to me.

But before that, I want an explanation.

"Leaving Julie behind, where are you going?"

"To my home country. A royal command for me to return has come."

Royal command.

You mean, directly from the King.

But, if that was the case, why is Cliff against it so much?

Can't it wait for another six months for the graduation ceremony.

"My brother Pax, he succeeded his coup.

He executed my father and brothers and took the throne."

".....Ha?"

Pax, that seventh prince who caught Lilia?

That guy succeeded in his coup..... Taking the throne?

Does that mean he became a king?

“Exhausted from the civil war, other countries might invade us, So I got a royal command to go back to my country, and assist in defending it.

So, I will be going for a little while.”

Zanoba, said so in a tone like he was going to any convenience store.

But, from his words somehow I realized.

The "next fight", it came earlier than I predicted.
